The old phone scam is creeping up again that has you answering the phone, yet the caller never identifies him/herself even if they ask you if you can hear them. Be careful -- if you say "yes" you could be giving the OK to provide access to a credit card or bank account. You will never hear another voice; just hang up. Tax scams flourish again with cons filing in your name and claiming a refund; file early if you can with a reputable CPA, and never answer questions over the phone about your finances unless you initiate the call. Flag SPAM messages related to banking and financial institutions and send them to the company's security department without opening them. Happy birthday to A, P, M, B and A!

BIRTHDAY HIGHLIGHTS FOR PISCES

Happy Birthday, Pisces! The symbol of your sign has a spiritual connotation -- the Fish that swim in opposite directions showing compassion, imagination and a desire to understand differences, qualities cherished by your water sign element. Although closely affiliated with the 12th House of seclusion, retreat, and regrouping you enjoy personal freedom and share your generous spirit with loved ones. Behind your dreamy eyes, you have a probing mind and love solving mysteries, embracing romance, watching crime stories and taking on challenges if you feel passion for the cause. Sometimes you take on too much and don't want to be realistic when it comes to limiting activities. Clearing your head means ducking into your personally-created sanctuary to search for the truth or escape from scrutiny. Some of you are gamblers at heart and love to play the lottery or slot machines, often coming up with a win. Many Pisces get caught up in dreamland and spend too much time on games, hobbies or chasing rainbows while the other half of you are way too practical to let grass grow under your feet when you have a timeline to meet. Yours is the last of the mutable signs of the Zodiac with Neptune as your ruler and the natural occupant of the 12th House of secrets, planning, behind-the-scenes activity, mysticism, meditation, confinement, convents, escape, charity, handicaps, hospitals, widows, orphans, secret enemies, institutions, indirect lighting, loose ends, poetry, and confidential matters. Spirituality, discovery, deep space, fame and notoriety may be affecting you now that transiting Neptune in Pisces occupies the heavens through 2026. Use your ESP especially if this is the year that Neptune is connecting to your Sun if born March 2-7! Get out of the fog during this aspect, pick the best dates and clarify priorities because this phase takes up the entire year. Your colors are lime, rose tones, lavender, mauve, purple, sea green, violet and royal hues. A new source of income comes about via creative ideas that lead to a new beginning. Donate old shoes and buy new ones to compliment your spring wardrobe. Pisces relates to liquids of the earth including oil and gas; aromatherapy, alcohol, medicinal drugs and illegal drugs, ether, mesmerizing perfumes, as well as the paternal side of the family. Pisces rising can be flirtatious and an audience charmer. This year the Sun enters your sign on February 18 at 12:18 PM EST and leaves on March 20 at 12:15 PM EDT. Material in the following section may also refer to individuals with Pisces on the Ascendant.

Pisces, your birthday year plays host to your signature planet, Neptune in the 13th-16th degrees of Pisces from February 18, 2018-February 19, 2019 in your solar 1st House of emerging creativity, action, independence, innovation, new beginnings, personal appearance and preferences, and assertiveness. Those of you born March 2 - 7 may find yourself responding to changing circumstances involving you or others in your circle. When certain relationships appear to be in an emotional state, ride out the feeling that you can do something to change the course. Be supportive but stay centered. Focus on clearly seeing your plan for improving your health, goals and work. The master year is perfect for setting new goals, finding friends or enjoying romance. If you have been stubborn, now is the time to break free of conditions that keep you going down the rabbit hole. Stay optimistic as you welcome your birthday year and attract fun and a celebratory aura to share light, optimism and a generous spirit with others. Avoid the Neptune fog as a means of escaping from reality via addictions, the wrong meds or treatments, too much negative news, excessive TV, alcohol, gaming or wasting time. Lead a balanced life to enjoy your cherished goals. A healthy and happy YOU reflect a joyful life. Avoid toxic air and toxic people; monitor medication and enjoy using your psychic gifts while embracing current reality. Uranus in Aries through May 15 occupies your solar 2nd House of money, personal income, purchasing power, resources, talent and self-development where it highlights your interest in work benefits and compensation, monetary goals, earning power, investment inclinations and can mean you experience shake-ups in your work environment. Some of you may be leaving for a new enterprise; others retire; some of you work for organizations that are undergoing changes that affect your job. You have probably had the opportunity to update all your computer equipment and software or have upgrades slated for the next few months. Currently, those of you born March 15-20 are most affected. On May 16 Uranus enters Taurus for a 7-year journey through your solar 3rd House of communications, messages, personal and business talks, transportation and all forms of technical instruments - phones, tablets, servers and mechanisms for increasing transmission speed. Many of you may want to use the best possible tools and engage in quality communication. During this cycle, those of you born at the very beginning of the Pisces cycle will see the most action. Your neighbors, siblings, community and daily routine may be in high focus. If Uranus is lurking about the peace and quiet will be in short supply - from the conditions of your commute, to new builds, to renovations or new routes. Get ready because you won't get much of a warning. If you want to go back to school, take a few classes, write articles or study a new language, now is the time to sign up and enjoy a brain workout. The third house relates to mental capacity. Since Uranus goes retrograde for a long period of time each year, expect to see the return to Aries from November 7 through March 6, 2019 which especially affects those of you born the last 4 days of Pisces. Venus is in Pisces and Aries for the duration of your sign in February and March where it connects to your Sun sign February 18 through March 5. Then Venus moves to Aries and into Taurus on March 31. Enjoy loving experiences, pampering from loved ones, and cherished celebrations. Jupiter is in sexy Scorpio through November 9 in your solar 9th House of long distance travel, higher education, the spiritual realm, advanced thinking, legal and medical matters, people who live far away, in-laws and publishing. You could get a real workout in the pursuit of solving mysteries, using your intuition and discovering the truth behind puzzling occurrences. You will no doubt get the full picture as you uncover facts. Evaluate relationships in your business and personal life. If you are attempting to make a go of a personal relationship and your partner is in another location, you may decide to let it go or make the case for living in the same city. Pisces can cut a deal with key people regarding shared expenses, profits or debt loads. Use your money to enjoy life with a long-desired trip in 2018. Saturn has moved to Capricorn as of December 19, 2017 and occupies your solar 11th House of organizations, groups, clubs, associations, friendships, goals, wishes, altruism, humanitarian efforts and leadership opportunities for the next 2-1/2 years. This is a section of your chart that needs close evaluation, especially if you have planets in this house. Those most affected by this transit are Pisces born February 19-March 6 right up until your 2019 birthday cycle begins. Among the themes affecting you are: the financial solvency of your work place, the viability of professional organizations and groups, the types of friendships that appeal to you; existing connections that lead you to take inventory to check for goodness of fit; reviewing plans and goals for your future; considering a run for a public office or a position in a revered organization where you want to demonstrate leadership. Saturn can be tough as nails in this house bringing you abundant responsibility with tight deadlines and no down time. You can make a name for yourself with leading edge contributions and may get a promotion or referral for a new position. Mars spends a lot of time in this house during 2018 retrograde and direct in Capricorn. Expect delays or equipment snafus during this time. Saturn in Capricorn normally benefits Pisces. Pluto in Capricorn in your solar 11th House makes a positive astrological connection to your Sun Sign especially for those born March 9-13 and focuses on friendships, associations, groups and goals. Existing friendships encounter change because Pluto wants you to find the most compatible relationships with individuals and groups that share your goals and dreams. Reconnections are possible, yet new associations seem more likely. Currently Saturn is going through this house as well, so you will be made aware of any situation that needs a change, whether it is a plan that needs tweaking or a relationship that is not genuine. This transit represents a quest to find kindred spirits. Pluto is the secretive planet, so you may be in the middle of exchanges where information is withheld, or you get wind of a scandal - which won't last the year without being disclosed. In combination with your intuitive gifts you may get another mystery to solve, so get ready for full disclosure. Look for ways to make your work environment more productive, polish your personal goals and check off items on your bucket list. Enjoy quality time with friends and associates with favorable energy that brings you abundant blessings.

Eclipse activity makes a strong statement in your life this year with 5 eclipses; the first and last are in Leo in your solar 6th House of health, daily environment, work colleagues and nutrition; the second and 4th occur in your 12th House in Aquarius and the third occurs in your 5th House in Cancer. Let's look at the January 31st Full Moon eclipse in Leo. Do you have any planets in Leo? If so, this one gives you strong clues about where you need help in staying healthy (Leo rules the back and heart), communicating with co-workers, eating nutritious food, improving your body through exercise, image makeover and food quantity; and managing tasks related to your daily routine or household chores. This could be the time to buy new clothing, shoes, change your hair style or color or take up yoga to learn new relaxation techniques. Right in the middle of the Aquarius zone, you experienced the first Solar Eclipse in Aquarius at 27 degrees on February 15th in your solar 12th House of behind-the- scenes activity, healing, visiting the sick, charity, mystical experiences, psychic phenomena and widows, orphans, secret enemies and plans that are percolating but not ready for release. Wherever that degree appears in your chart, pay attention. If those Aquarius planets are in aspect to other planets in your chart, what are they? The connections will tell your personal story. It especially applies to you if born late in the Pisces cycle from March 17th to 19th, and you won't be able to avoid the exposure. Secrets receive exposure. Your plans, deeds, action, passion and appearance are in the spotlight as well as anything you invent or introduce now. New Moon time - begin anew. The second New Moon Eclipse of 2018 falls on July 12 at 20 degrees of Cancer in your solar 5th House of romance, social life, children, recreation, entertainment, sports, vacations and pleasure trips. This house begs for a change in your social life or maybe challenges you to take a risk instead of the same old, same old. Many individuals are set up for blind dates when eclipses come calling here. Certain Pisces will take up a new hobby or spend more time on an old one. Domestic changes are also possible via remodeling, painting multiple rooms, buying new carpet or other flooring material or purchasing furniture to update favorite living spaces. Certain Pisces give birth to a child, become grandparents or adopt a baby. Time for adventure! The second full Moon eclipse of 2018 falls on July 27 in Aquarius in your 12th House of seclusion, secrets, planning behind the scenes, meditation, psychic impressions, creative writing, mystery and charities. The emphasis continues to be on secrets, information that is percolating but not ready to release. Mars is retrograde in Aquarius during this eclipse and will head back to Capricorn right after the last eclipse of 2018 in Leo. You will not be able to beat around the bush, so prepare yourself to reconsider your plans. Like last year, those of you having an affair, spying, planning a coup or involved in identity theft run the risk of getting caught - or someone close to you is vulnerable. Get help if you are up in the air about solving problems, taking financial risks or want to break up with your lover. Get out of a rut if you have been in one. Dealings with those who are ill or down on their luck surface. The Universe comes through for lucky Pisces. Network, visit new places and play your favorite lotteries. The last solar eclipse of 2018 occurs on August 11 in Leo at 18° 42' in your solar 6th House of health, pets, colleagues, kitchen equipment, nutrition, fitness, daily routine and organization. Anticipate change in the realm of physical activity at home and in the workplace. If health is flagging, you get a boost or a lead on a cure. A makeover may be the perfect solution along with some stylish new clothes. If you have any planets in Leo be sure to check to see if the eclipse lands on any of them. You could receive accolades at work, may look for a promotion or, if eligible, retire and spend your time on favorite pastimes after your 2019 birthday. Embrace positive thoughts and attract good news. Enjoy the passionate energy of the 2018 eclipse cycle. Remember if an eclipse falls on your birthday it takes on higher importance; the same is true if the eclipse falls directly on one of your natal planets or a sensitive chart point or opposes one of them. If you are a Pisces and have Cancer, Leo or Aquarius planets or an Ascendant in those signs, these eclipses are incredibly meaningful. Have fun on your new path and soar to success. Embrace the Law of Abundance and enjoy the best birthday ever! Love and blessings follow.

PLANETS' POSITIONS FEBRUARY 18 - MARCH 20

The eclipses of January and February continue to dominate the astrological and global communities for the first half of 2018 and the momentum continues with 3 more eclipses making news in July and August in Cancer, Aquarius and Leo. Aside from these signs, other signs most affected by this year's eclipses are Aries, Taurus, Scorpio Capricorn and Pisces. Just as the Sun moves to Pisces, Mercury enters Pisces through March 5th and then zips into Aries where it is direct in motion until March 22nd when it turns retrograde right after the spring equinox. Venus travels through Pisces in this cycle and moves to Aries on March 6, an indicator that rainy weather or wet snow may change to very dry weather as spring begins. Socially, it can be a very passionate time for fire and air signs. Mars is in Sagittarius until March 18th and can stir up matters related to temperament, passion and associations that are strongly in need of diplomacy. The Olympics brings highly successful performances with a fiery Mars that shows power and mastery of athletic skills yet with the presence of hard aspects may affect the anticipated medal count. On a personal level, you could feel restless if born a Pisces, Sagittarius, Virgo or Gemini or have planets in these signs. Attraction may take you by surprise and lead you to new connections. Mercury the planet of communication lands in Pisces until March 5, moves to Aries and travels swiftly until it goes retrograde in Aries on March 22nd. Expect discussions revolving around spiritual topics, causes for the underdog, demonstrations of compassion and a desire to do more to better conditions on the planet. The White House stays highly visible in the wake of administration revelations. Jupiter travels through Scorpio and goes retrograde on March 8 most affecting Scorpions born November 14-17 during this month. It stays in the reverse pattern until July 10 and mostly affects the Scorpions born from the 25th back to the 13th degree of your sign; once it goes direct it will visit your Scorpio Sun again and will bring you the changes you are expecting. Continue working on any plans or projects that are already in motion. Also affected this month are fixed signs with planets at the 25th - 22nd degrees of your sign (Taurus, Leo, and Aquarius). Water signs Cancer and Pisces benefit from harmonious aspects. New opportunities are in the works and give you time to refine details. Saturn in Capricorn most affects those born December 25-31 during this cycle and reminds you to examine legal documents, contracts and work projects related to home or business. Health checkups are in the works for many Capricorns. The same is true of the other cardinal signs Aries, Cancer and Libra, born with planets at 6-8 degrees of your sign. Take time to heal if you have been under the weather. Pisces, Scorpio, Virgo and Taurus benefit from favorable aspects that allow you to examine and refine goals and put them in motion before March 22. Uranus, the planet of the unexpected has been highly charged in the lives of Aries born April 14-17 and makes you scratch your head at how swiftly pending matters change or new situations occur. You'll be aware of Uranus's presence if you are born with planets at 25-26 degrees of Aries, Cancer, Libra and Capricorn. Intensity, shock and high drama has been present for these signs, depending on the number of planets in the mix in individual charts. The saying "your life can change in a day" comes to mind as you discover truths or hear revelations that take you by surprise and leave you in shock. Aries must hang in there for a few more months while the last bits of the Uranus conjunction unfold for you personally. Feel blessed by the opportunities you have had for several years to alter motivation, power and initiative. The challenges made you whole. Be inspired by new directions. Neptune in Pisces is currently influencing Pisces born March 3-6 as well as Cancers and Scorpios born around 13-14 degrees of their signs. The vibes are strong, and you feel the intuition and a sense of discovery. Although Pisces may have to clear away the cobwebs when certain messages hit, and they don't want to process them, the other water signs get vibrant breakthroughs, have their plumbing problems solved and may even schedule a vacation on or near the water. Enjoy the new romance that comes your way if you are eligible. Discussion could be lively and give you a chance to change your mind about long held attitudes. Pluto in Capricorn all month interacts with Cardinal sign people born at 20 degrees of your sign: Capricorn, Aries, Cancer or Libra; it may also affect your Ascendant or other planets at those degrees. Look for breakthroughs and revelations in the house Pluto in Capricorn travels through and acknowledge that stirring the pot frees you from stuck thinking patterns and stagnant situations. On a global and government level, leaders feel the impact of decisions that jar the confidence of constituents. Speaking out about damaging policies and coverups comes into play and demands attention to restore balance. The focus is on institutions, government, unstable systems and the exposure of leaders who are operating behind-the-scenes or working in high positions without government clearances. No more keeping two sets of books, two or three "stories" to placate questions or changing facts at will to ease pressure from public demand. Since Pluto represents catharsis, advisors, consultants and therapists will be busy if the Moon, Venus or Mars are in the picture and affect relationships. Those who seek career, financial or personal advice gain insight regarding next steps and obtain tools to plan accordingly. If you were born with Chiron in Pisces check the house where it resides - this month The Wounded Healer heightens the clarity for those born March 16-19 related to issues involving family, health, workplace, home and environmental quality. Information emerges regarding finances, secrets and distorted information; seek solutions. Assess the facts before taking drastic actions. Keep Bach remedies on hand to address emotional angst. A few drops of Rescue Remedy bring relief when processing grief. Comedy is balm for the soul.

PEOPLE, PLACES AND TOPICS IN THE NEWS

I received numerous questions from readers and their friends regarding the Philadelphia Eagles, winners of Super Bowl 2018, the winning quarterback, Nick Foles, and head coach Doug Pederson who led the team to victory. Many readers are concerned about this week's lethal shooting of students at Margery Stoneman Douglas High in Parkland, FL, and asked for astrological insight. The pressure is on from readers wanting more information about constant disclosures from the White House. I'm providing what I can in the available space. This month I am featuring birthday information about Pisces celebrants on ABC's award-winning General Hospital.

Philadelphia Eagles: Long-time fans of this team that came into existence on July 9, 1933, celebrated the team's first Super Bowl victory at Super Bowl LII on February 4. Supporters are over the moon to see this long-awaited outcome in their lifetime, especially those of us born in the Philadelphia area and the team's many fans in the U. S. and abroad. The Eagles Team has a Cancer sun sign located in Philadelphia, a Scorpio city in Pennsylvania, a Sagittarius state. Highlights in the chart for Super Bowl Sunday show that 4 of Eagles' Quarterback Nick Fole's Capricorn planets lined up with the chart for the Super Bowl in the 5th House of sports and risk-taking. Saturn in Capricorn was prominent in both charts showing the work that went into executing the victory. Foles has both a solar and a lunar connection with the Eagles natal chart - his Moon in Cancer connects to the Eagles' Sun in Cancer, his Aquarius Sun and Mercury are in Aquarius where the Eagles' Moon and Saturn fall, and Coach Pederson's Sun and Jupiter in Aquarius fall on Foles' mercury and the Eagles' Moon/Saturn conjunction, excellent connections strengthening communication and plans. Coach Pederson's chart showed the unusual mental devices/strategies used to win the game with his natal Mercury (mind) prominent in the 7th house of the public in the Super Bowl chart; with Pederson's Moon in Pisces in the 7th House of the Super Bowl chart (the public picked up the momentum); and 5 configurations in Pederson's chart showed up in the 3rd House of mindsets and thinking patterns in the Super Bowl chart. Both quarterback Nick Foles and coach Doug Peterson are Aquarians born in January. The first lunar eclipse of the year took place in Leo on January 31st, Pederson's birthday, raising his profile and indicating a major change in the wind. The Eagles' chart had natal Uranus in Aries right on transiting Uranus in the Super Bowl chart in the 9th House of distant locations (playing far from home base) showing an unexpected outcome for the game. The Eagles team fought hard to win the game and best the powerhouse New England Patriots. Can't wait to see what happens next season!

Pisces Actors on General Hospital: On February 11, 2018, General Hospital took home the coveted Writers' Guild Award for outstanding writing in daytime drama. Congratulations to the writers who support the actors and help make their storylines believable. Attributes of Pisces include a love of fiction, stories of redemption, compassion, shedding tears and social ties. What a perfect place for these actors to show the artistry of their craft and keep their fans coming back for more. If you follow the show, you will see how these themes play out in every episode. This month's honorees with Pisces birthdays are: Leslie Charleson, February 22, Maurice Benard, March 1, Kimberly McCullough, March 5, and Jackie Zeman, March 6. The show will celebrate 55 years on the air on April 1. Congratulations to the cast, crew, director, producer and writing team - a job well done.

Shooting at Margery Stoneman Douglas High School, Parkland, FL: The AR-15 semi-automatic rifle used to kill 17 teens and adults and wound several others is shockingly easier to purchase in Florida than a handgun. I constructed a chart based on the time of the shooting and found that Cancer was rising on the Ascendant at 2:19 PM EDT (families affected) and the ruler of the chart, the Moon (people in the community, the masses, citizens) was exactly conjunct the Moon's South Node (a fated tie) in Aquarius in the 8th House of death. Mars, the planet affiliated with weapons, destruction and war was in Sagittarius on Vesta (focus) in the 6th House of health and daily environments in exact hard aspect to Neptune (confusion, foggy thinking; the killer's mindset) in Pisces in the 9th House. Jupiter (often affiliated with health conditions and higher learning) in Scorpio occupied the 5th house of children and their interests in exact square to Mercury (younger people, education) in Aquarius on the door of the 9th House. The 7th House of the public, advisors, legal and medical professionals had a trio of malefic planets present - Saturn (limitations and restrictions), Dark Moon Lilith (treachery, getting even) and Pluto (the end of matters, regeneration) showing that the deadly massacre took everyone by surprise. Additionally, Mars in the 6th House also represents the shooter who was quickly apprehended in the school's neighborhood by the police. With Vesta also present, Cruz quickly confessed to his crime.

Who, What, Where and When in the White House: What a confusing world we face each day with secrets revealed, resignations, staff shuffles, mixed messages, statements made and refuted right and left, low morale among the White House staff, scandals emerging, indictments in the mill, discovery of abuse of funds, and as of this date, February 16th, over 131 employees in high level positions have access to highly restricted information without having security clearances. Unheard of - you bet! And no one wants to claim ownership--yet. Both the eclipse in Leo on January 31st and the New Moon Eclipse in Aquarius on February 15th that I cited in last month's newsletter are directly stimulating the activity in Washington and the President's chart. Stay tuned because more individuals will be leaving their posts and a slew of tell-all books will hit the bookstores.

READERS CORNER

Thank you for your comments on last month's questions regarding office protocols including sharing lunchtime with a co-worker and managing romance and relationships in the work place. Most writers were avid about the work place romance - pros and cons. I think it will make a good blog topic and will consider it for a future article. Discretion is very important in this changing work world in light of the awkward relationships discovered in the past year or so that made national headlines -- #MeToo. A reader submitted the following question; maybe the situation reflects conditions you have experienced.

Q. A few weeks after the December holidays ended, my girlfriend broke up with me. We were about to get engaged, I was looking at rings, but she had not yet met my parents. I invited her to spend the Christmas holidays with my family in another state. I had already bonded with her family often over the last year while we dated. "Susie" said that our families were too different and did not have much in common and she could not see us together in the long term. When I pressed her for details she told me my family was into more casual activities for special occasions and she wanted more excitement. The holiday with my family was boring for her because she was used to spending time at dinners, shows, movies, winter events, etc. rather than sitting around talking and visiting all week. She said she missed the festivities and knew this would not be her thing. I still care for her and was shocked by her message. I would like to know what differences brought about the sudden break-up. Thank you for your input.

A. You are a Pisces born March 12 and your friend is a Capricorn born January 7. Your birth Suns are not incompatible (water and earth do go together). The degrees and signs of other planets show both why you were attracted in the first place and also why you are not on the same page as far as expectations go. The strongest connection you have is that Susie's Venus in Aquarius falls on your Moon in Aquarius in your 12th House, just ahead of your Aquarius Ascendant. You have thought about her constantly since you met. "Susie" has several planets in Capricorn that are in hard aspect to her own Moon in mid-Libra that also receives uncomfortable aspects from some of your Capricorn planets - Uranus and Neptune are conjunct in Capricorn for example, so she might be a person who changes direction when she doesn't like what is occurring. "Susie's" Mars in late Taurus received a hard hit from the August 21, 2017 eclipse in Leo (shaking up her romantic feelings) and the February 15th eclipse this week in Aquarius. Mercury in her chart is in late Sagittarius and in December she experienced the transit of Saturn on her Mercury degree. These combinations mean that she has had misgivings about your relationship for some time, and probably accompanied you to visit your parents to honor her commitment. I don't think that your parents could have done anything to change her mind about your future as a couple even if they wined and dined her each night at a fancy restaurant. You mentioned your brother and his wife, and your sister and her husband extended dinner invitations on two nights and all the women had a festive lunch on another day. That sounds like family wanting to show hospitality and getting to know your friend. Venus (women) in your chart in late Aries has had transiting Uranus on it for most of the past year indicating a shakeup or surprises possible in your love life. This planet made difficult connections to Susie's Saturn in Capricorn, so you have probably had hints that you ignored, a situation that often occurs when transiting Neptune (fog, illusion, cloudy insight) makes a visit to your Sun as it has been doing for the last several months and will be a presence over the next year or so. The main issues are that you see life differently; Susie is more materialistic about her choices in life and wants to see and be seen. Her Libra Moon wants a very sociable, entertainment-driven life and is in conflict with her Capricorn Sun which does like the finer things in life but is not always willing to pay for them. "Susie's" chart has no water elements except for Pluto. Although both of you were born with Pluto in Scorpio, a water sign, it is not enough to generate the understanding of feelings you desire in a relationship. On the other hand, your Pisces Sun is in perfect trine (favorable) aspect to Pluto in Scorpio, so you are insightful about the type of person who is the ideal one to share your life. Be glad you did not purchase the engagement ring you had in mind. Don't give up because a new person may enter your life in the fall after the August 11th Leo eclipse lands in your 7th House of partners. Cherish what you value -- may future relationships fulfill your desires.
