

Pisces 2019 NEWSLETTER Compliments of Alice DeVille

Dear Readers,

We're only a month from the winter windup as we say hello to Pisces and savor the mystical cycle that wraps up the astrological year. In the meantime, we can plan our spring garden, order seeds, check the landscape for soil quality and assess any signs of new growth. Perhaps you celebrate St. Patrick's Day by lifting your spirit with lively Irish music and toasting friends who bless your life. Pisces feels strongly about goals and finds ways to see them to completion. Gifts include an aptitude for creative arts, analyzing clues and mysteries and an intuitive vibe in the pit of the stomach. Pisces love films and music, especially their generational favorites. Pisces are either very silent or very vocal and miss little that occurs around them. Celebrate your Pisces friends and relatives with a home-cooked meal, ticket to a musical show, treat at a favorite restaurant, a dramatic movie, a challenging jigsaw puzzle, lottery tickets, a gift card to a shoe store or an ice skating venue.

ANNOUNCEMENTS:

Congratulations to JB for winning the January drawing; February's winner will be notified on the 28th and will receive a $10 discount toward your next consultation or report. Those of you who schedule an appointment February 18-March 20 are eligible for a $10 certificate covering appointments booked through March 31. Fake phone threats and other telephone scams are rampant again. If you don't recognize a phone number, don't answer; a legitimate caller will leave a message. No matter who they say they are, never give a caller access to a credit card or bank account when you have not initiated the phone call. Despite the recent government shutdown, tax scams flourish again with cons filing in your name and claiming a refund. Use a reputable CPA and file early but never answer questions over the phone about your finances unless you make the call to an authentic tax professional. Flag SPAM messages related to banking and financial institutions and send them to the company's security department without opening them. Watch social media outlets and the bug in Face Time that allows others to listen in without a Face Time setup. Be sure to report opportunists to vendors you do business with when they start bombarding you with mail about winnings, sales, prizes, applications and other goods you know you did not order. Happy birthday to A, P, M, B and A!

I accept payments for services via PayPal (www.PayPal.com) where you can use either credit cards or debit cards directly from your checking or savings account at this secure site. Although you don't need one to do business with me, I highly recommend obtaining a PayPal account -- more and more vendors encourage payment through PayPal. You won't have to risk giving permission to vendors to keep your card information on file and can change the payment method to suit your needs. PayPal notifies me when the funds have been received in my account. My PayPal address is through alice.deville27@gmail.com. My phone number is 1-813-374-5398.

Thank you for the lovely Valentine greetings and messages you have sent.

BIRTHDAY HIGHLIGHTS FOR PISCES

Happy Birthday, Pisces! The symbol of your sign has a spiritual connotation -- the Fish swimming in opposite directions indicate compassion, imagination and a desire to understand differences, qualities you cherish as a water sign element. Although closely affiliated with the 12th House of seclusion, retreat, and regrouping you enjoy personal freedom and share your generous spirit with loved ones. Behind your soulful eyes, you have a probing mind and love solving mysteries, embracing romance, watching crime stories and taking on challenges if you feel passion for the cause. You either take on too much and don't want to be realistic when it comes to limiting activities or go radio silent for days and hang out in your room. Clearing your head means checking into your personally-created sanctuary to search for the truth or escape from scrutiny. Some enjoy gambling and love to play the lottery or slot machines, often coming up with a win, especially if you have a good Jupiter. Certain Pisces daydream a lot and spend too much time on games, hobbies or killing time while the other half of you are way too practical to let grass grow under your feet when you have a timeline to meet. Yours is the last of the mutable signs of the Zodiac with Neptune as your ruler and the natural occupant of the 12th House of secrets, planning, behind-the-scenes activity, mysticism, meditation, confinement, convents, escape, charity, handicaps, hospitals, widows, orphans, secret enemies, institutions, indirect lighting, loose ends, poetry, and confidential matters. If you have a 1st House natal Neptune, your Pisces traits accelerate. Spirituality, discovery, deep space, fame and notoriety may be affecting you now that transiting Neptune in Pisces occupies the heavens through 2026. Use your ESP especially if this is the year that Neptune is connecting to your Sun as it will if born March 5-12! You can get out of the fog during this aspect, so pick the best dates and clarify priorities because this phase takes an entire year to play out. Your colors are lime, rose tones, lavender, mauve, purple, sea green, violet and royal hues. Diverse sources of income are possible via creative ideas that lead to a new beginning. Shoes purchases compliment your spring wardrobe. Pisces relates to liquids of the earth including oil and gas; aromatherapy, alcohol, medicinal drugs and illegal drugs, ether, mesmerizing perfumes, as well as the paternal side of the family. Pisces rising can be flirtatious, charming and kind especially when you stay calm. This year the Sun enters your sign on February 18 at 6:04 PM EST and leaves on March 20 at 5:58 PM EDT. Material in the following section may also refer to individuals with Pisces on the Ascendant.

Mercury is in Pisces for the entire Pisces period this year and it goes retrograde on March 5 at 1:19 PM EST in your solar 1st House. The retrograde ends on March 28 @ 9:29 PM EST but does not leave your sign until April 17. Be sure to look over important documents. Don't start any new projects, especially on the station dates listed here. Check your natal chart for the exact location of this long run of Mercury in Pisces. Venus starts out in Capricorn and moves to Aquarius during the Pisces cycle. You may give some serious consideration to planned purchases, entertainment and speculation as well as how you want to spend volunteer time and get involved in altruistic causes. Enjoy amicable people and pamper others who show their love for you. Cherish your birthday and other celebrations. Mars is in compatible Taurus for the Pisces segment of your birthday year and travels through your solar 3rd house of communication, education, neighbors, siblings, technology and transportation. Take care when traveling and watch your words to avoid heated arguments with others. Take a deep breath and think through responses. Uranus arrives in this house again on March 6. Expect the unexpected when negotiating. Jupiter is in adventurous Sagittarius through December 3 in your solar 10th House of career, ambition, authority, organizations, responsibility, status, and family. Be sure to watch for openings in desirable firms if you are looking for a new job. Responsibility increases for many Pisces who look for new challenges or have unfolding scenarios that call for your personal assistance. Bonuses, raises, awards and other windfalls are possible, too. On December 3, Jupiter moves to Capricorn and your solar 11th House which has several key occupants - Saturn and Pluto in Capricorn as well as the strong eclipses in Capricorn that affect your solar opposite House, the 5th that holds Cancer. Talk about gaining momentum and being in high focus - watch this house or wherever Jupiter transits in your natal chart. Saturn is in Capricorn throughout your 2019 birthday cycle and occupies your solar 11th House of organizations, groups, clubs, associations, friendships, goals, wishes, altruism, humanitarian efforts and leadership opportunities. This is a section of your chart that needs close evaluation, especially if you have planets in this house. A recurring theme might be "do a relationship inventory focusing on friends and organizations." Review your goals and take stock of connections. Which work? Which ones need elimination? Pare down anything that drains your energy. Those most affected by this transit are Pisces born March 3-20 right up until your 2020 birthday cycle begins. What have you learned about the financial stability of your workplace, employer and your goals in the past year? Are you willing to take on more responsibility? You may be asked to do so in the coming year, especially if you are interested in demonstrating leadership skills or competing for a promotion. Are you tuned in to stepping up when action calls for it? Saturn can be very demanding when time is running out and your help is vital. Make leading edge contributions and recognition comes your way. Check equipment. Saturn in Capricorn usually works well with Pisces. Uranus is in its waning days in Aries through March 5 and occupies your solar 2nd House of money, personal income, purchasing power, resources, talent and self-development where it has been highlighting your interest in work benefits and compensation, monetary goals, earning power, investment inclinations. Its presence here has meant you experienced conflicts, shake-ups in your work environment, odd experiences with monetary affairs, some confusion and even windfalls. You have most likely experienced most of the changes affiliated with Aries in this house and are putting finishing touches on plans. Those of you born March 18-20 are most affected. On March 6 Uranus returns to Taurus for a 7-year journey through your solar 3rd House of communications, messages, personal and business talks, transportation and all forms of technical instruments - phones, tablets, servers and mechanisms for increasing transmission speed. Use the best tools available and engage in quality communication. During this cycle, those of you born at the very beginning of the Pisces cycle, February 18-25 will experience the most action. Your neighbors, siblings, community and daily routine are probably in high focus. With Uranus moving to a mental house, you have lots to process and think about; education may be part of the cycle. Many of you undergo ideology shifts and see people and conditions as they really are, not as what you thought they were. Notice shifts surrounding the conditions of your commute and changes within the community related to construction, renovations or altered routes. Rules may be changing -- get ready because you won't get much of a warning. Give your brain a workout by enrolling in classes, studying a language or learning computer applications in a new job. Many new jobs are available - look for these opportunities if you are unhappy with the status quo. The third house relates to mental capacity. Since Uranus goes retrograde for a long period of time each year, expect to find some topsy-turvy energy from August 11 through January 10, 2020. Pisces, your birthday year plays host to your signature planet, Neptune in the 15th-18th degrees of Pisces from February 18, 2019-February 19, 2020 in your solar 1st House of emerging creativity, action, independence, innovation, new beginnings, personal appearance and preferences, and assertiveness. Those of you born March 5-12 may find yourself responding to changing circumstances at work or in your personal life. These shifts may occur on both the conscious and subconscious level that involve you or others of importance. Be sure you have all the facts. You can do little to change the minds of those who are stubborn. Focus on your plans for improving your health, wealth, goals and dreams. If you change stuck patterns, you may more easily find friends or romance. Break free of ruts. Optimistically welcome your birthday year and celebrate enthusiastically by sharing light, optimism and a generous spirit with others. Stay clear of the Neptune fog as a means of escaping from reality via addictions, drinking, the wrong meds or treatments. Neutralize negative news and excessive TV, gambling or daydreaming. A balanced life enriches your cherished goals. Be open to a happy, joyful life. Avoid toxic air and toxic people. Test your psychic gifts and embrace metaphysics. Pluto in Capricorn in your solar 11th House makes a positive astrological connection to your Sun Sign especially for those born March 12-16 and focuses on friendships, associations, groups, organizations and goals. Existing friendships undergo change because Pluto intervenes when you are stuck and urges you to find the most compatible relationships with individuals and groups that share meaningful goals and dreams. New associations seem inevitable. Saturn is moving through this house as well, so you will be made aware of any situation you are resisting that needs a change. Let's face it, your inclination is to tough it out rather than face it head on and agree that conditions aren't working. Resistance works for only so long and then you simply have to take off the dirty or rose-colored glasses and take a hard look at what you are putting yourself through. You may find a vast improvement in the quality of relationships. Your job may require you to uncover secrets, fiscal improprieties or information that is partly missing and impedes your work. Workplace procedures undergo changes and upset the status quo; they have been in a state of flux for a few years. Use your intuitive gifts to solve problems and assimilate full disclosure. Your insight may influence productivity in the work environment and compliment your personal goals. A willingness to change brings quality time with friends and contacts and yields much deserved blessings.

Eclipse activity makes a strong statement in your life this year with 5 eclipses as they lean away from the Aquarius-Leo polarities and capture the essence of Capricorn and Cancer. Eclipses make strong statements related to powerful opportunities for growth. Pay attention to the natal houses they occupy. The first solar eclipse of 2019 occurred in Capricorn on January 5 in your solar 11th House of groups, friendships, organizations and their assets, hopes, wishes, dreams, plans and professional interests. This eclipse asks you to look at people and conditions that are upsetting. Where in your life do you run into situations that are aggravating and create a huge impact on your life? No more hanging onto fears and anxieties. With a pile of planets and eclipses in the house ruled by Capricorn this year, how do you spell RELIEF? Two weeks later the first lunar eclipse occurred in Leo, which is also the last eclipse in the current Leo-Aquarius cycle and its influence lasts until July 16 and beyond. This lunation takes place in your solar 6th House of health, daily environment, work colleagues, pets, organizational style, health and nutrition. Do you have any planets in Leo? If so, this one gives you strong clues about where you need help in staying healthy since Leo rules the back and the heart. Also examine how well you are communicating with co-workers, eating nutritious food, improving your body through exercise and ingesting the proper food quantity; and managing tasks related to your daily routine or household chores. This could be the time to examine your wardrobe and buy new clothing or shoes, something your Pisces heart loves to do. Perhaps you'll change your hair style or color or take up yoga or meditation to learn new relaxation techniques. Keep dreaming larger than life. Spiritual growth is all around you this year. Skip ahead to July 2 and you'll experience 2019's second solar eclipse in Cancer at 11 degrees in your solar 5th House of romance, social life, children, recreation, gambling, sports, vacations and pleasure trips, movies or other forms of entertainment. Wherever that degree appears in your chart, pay attention. With a 5th House placement, your risk-taking and lottery playing may accelerate and bring you a big win. What planets are in aspect to other water sign planets in your chart and where are they? The connections will describe your personal story. It especially applies to you if born from March 1-3 or have planets at or around 11 degrees. If you are already in a relationship, the bond may accelerate through an engagement or a marriage; children play a greater role in your life, and those in your circle surprise you with delightful gestures or gifts. The second Full Moon Eclipse of 2019 falls on July 16 at 24 degrees of Capricorn in your solar 11th House of goals, dreams, plans, groups, organizations, political affiliations, leadership in professional organizations, humanitarian endeavors and your employer's assets. This house is a hotbed of activity for you all year and well into 2020 with the presence of both transiting Pluto and Saturn in residence, so get ready for changes on the professional or personal level. People come and go and so do authorities. Revelations occur regarding the structure of organizations and the way they are managed; ditto political parties. This is a good year to work on long-term plans. You are a generous force in encouraging others to be all they can be and improving their life, financial picture and status in life. Some of you will take up studies, new pastimes or hobbies. You may travel via a group tour. Several Pisces look to remodeling projects that never seem to quit. Your creative ideas bring you satisfaction. Be adventurous! The final solar eclipse of 2019 is a New Moon that falls in Capricorn on December 26 once again in your 11th House of friendships, goals, groups, organizations and plans. Much of what we covered in the January and July Capricorn eclipses relates to what is ongoing and needing your personal touch now. Jupiter has joined the already transiting planets in this house as of December 3 and you get help from the Universe on favorite projects and dreams. Depending on aspects in your chart, you may be revising plans and getting a leg up on a cherished goal. Review your personal and health goals at year's end. Enjoy downtime via favorite forms of entertainment. Close contacts may be vulnerable to changing circumstances. Keep visualizing those lucky numbers. Be sure to network, listen to favorite music, do something different and take time to play. One more eclipse occurs before the end of your birthday cycle, a lunar eclipse in Cancer on January 10, 2020 at 20° in your solar 5th House of getaways, vacations, romance, risk-taking, gambling, entertainment venues, children and fitness routines. Anticipate change in routines and new adventures that you did not previously consider. Enjoy a new image and consider a makeover to perk up your psyche. For certain Pisces a cruise or a long trip is on the agenda. Order tickets to a favorite show. Be sure to get plenty of rest because many invitations come your way. You could receive an award, bonus or raise at the workplace or win the lottery. Eligible Pisces may retire and spend leisure time on favorite interests, especially after your 2020 birthday. Embrace joy and upbeat people. Passion resonates in the positive energy of the 2019 eclipse cycle. Remember if an eclipse falls on your birthday it takes on higher importance; the same is true if the eclipse falls directly on one of your natal planets or a sensitive chart point or opposes one of them. If you are a Pisces and have Cancer, Capricorn or Leo planets or an Ascendant in those signs, these eclipses are incredibly meaningful. Have fun on your creative ventures and savor the success. The Law of Abundance invites you to enjoy the best birthday ever! Peace and blessings.

PLANETS' POSITIONS FEBRUARY 18 - MARCH 20

Mercury is in Pisces for the entire Pisces period this year and it goes retrograde on March 5 at 1:19 PM EST at 29 degrees. Although the retrograde ends on March 28 @ 9:29 PM EST at 16 degrees it does not leave Pisces until April 17 nearly at the end of the Aries cycle. This cycle means that you will have to be very cautious about starting new initiatives and signing important documents. Look them over carefully and proofread everything. Be sure to look over projects, contracts and deeds. Don't start any new initiatives, especially on the station dates listed here; use the time productively to clean out closets, file, work on already started projects and research key information. Spiritual themes are part of every day discussions as are projects that focus on the underdogs. The White House remains highly visible in the wake of administration revelations and campaign 2020. The eclipses of January continue to dominate the astrological and global communities for the first half of 2019 and the momentum continues with 3 more eclipses making news in July and December in Cancer and Capricorn. Aside from these signs, other signs most affected by this year's eclipses are Aries, Taurus, Scorpio, Libra, Aquarius and Pisces. Venus wraps up in Capricorn on March 1st and travels through Aquarius for the rest of this cycle, an indicator that icy or rainy weather is ahead, possibly even wet snow depending on the climate in your area as spring begins. Socially, it can be a very cautious time for fixed signs. Mars is in compatible Taurus throughout the Pisces cycle and focuses on matters related to stability, financial fixes, self-development and the use of diplomacy when differences of opinion arise. On a personal level, you could feel compelled to look at the tax structure if born a Taurus, Leo, Scorpio or Aquarius or have planets in these signs. Out of the blue you may find yourself attracted to someone you meet at a professional or social gathering. Enjoy new connections. Jupiter travels through Sagittarius and most affects Sagittarians born December 12-16 during this month. Jupiter creates challenges for Pisces, Virgo and Gemini with planets at 20-23 degrees of their signs. Fires signs Aries and Leo and air signs Libra and Aquarius with planets at these degrees fare well and feel that progress occurs for initiatives that have been stuck. Make edits to documents or tweak presentations during this cycle. New opportunities promise a bright future; polish details. Saturn in Capricorn most affects those born January 7-11 this month and reminds you to examine legal documents, contracts and work projects related to home or business and relationships with colleagues and friends. Health checkups are important for many Capricorns, especially those born around these dates or with planets at 17-19 of Capricorn. The same is true of the other cardinal signs Aries, Cancer and Libra, born with planets at these degrees of your sign. If you have been under the weather, see help from competent medical professionals. Pisces, Scorpio, Virgo and Taurus benefit from favorable aspects that allow you to examine and refine goals. Hold off putting them in motion until after March 28. Uranus, the planet of the unexpected has been highly charged in the lives of Aries born April 18-20 and is eager to wrap up any unfinished Aries business that has challenged you for the last several years. On March 6, Uranus enters the security conscious sign, Taurus. It will still make you scratch your head at unfolding agendas that pave the way for new life conditions. If you are born April 20-22, you will be aware of Uranus's presence with planets at 0-1 degrees of Taurus, Leo, Scorpio or Aquarius. Those born with planets at these degrees in the signs, Virgo, Capricorn, Cancer and Pisces undergo surprises, unexpected gifts, windfalls and benefits. Although Intensity, shock and high drama may be in the works for the fixed signs, the events depend on the number of planets affected in individual charts. The cosmic saying "your life can change in a day" comes to mind as you witness truth and revelation through new eyes. Aries, you are on your way to a new life and most of you have already made the changes that will get you there. Taurus, you are next and will enjoy Uranus' presence for 7 years while the Uranus conjunction to your Sun plays out. Welcome the opportunities you have for the next several years as you assimilate your power and initiative. Choose new directions. Neptune in Pisces is currently influencing Pisces born March 5-8 as well as Cancers and Scorpios born around 15-16 degrees of their signs or with other planets at these degrees. The strong intuitive vibes allow you to experience your inner knower and a powerful sense of self-discovery. While you'll have to clear away debris to get to the heart of discovery, prepare to receive these important messages that beg to be processed and provide long-sought breakthroughs. Certain signs like Gemini, Virgo and Sagittarius with planets at these degrees may have faulty thinking patterns about life or others to work through so they may truly understand different points of view. If you have multiple hits on these degrees, you may be experiencing plumbing problems, floods, crying jags or mental fatigue. A good strategy is to take a break and perhaps schedule a vacation on the water. For many Pisces, a new romance is in the mill if you are eligible. Socially, the event you attend may bring you lively discussions with an intelligent perspective that helps you change your mind about subjects that previously limited your participation and understanding. Pluto in Capricorn all month interacts with Cardinal sign people born at 22 degrees of your sign: Capricorn, Aries, Cancer or Libra; it may also affect your Ascendant or other planets at those degrees. Pisces and Scorpio benefit, too. Which natal houses does Pluto occupy? Look there for clues that call for transformation and purging of stuck ideas. Pluto and Mars are in a jarring square position and reveal information about relationships that need work. On a global and government level, anger among leaders flares as key individuals feel the anger and impact of decisions that weaken the confidence of constituents. Speaking out about damaging policies and coverups comes into play and demands attention to restore balance. Fibs fly and so does the "fur" when the inaccuracies stand out boldly. Those with "lucky" charts are in high places and are aided and abetted by special interest groups who are looking for favors and won't acknowledge truth. To placate unease, those in charge change facts to ease pressure from the public. Since Pluto represents catharsis, advisors, consultants and therapists will be busy while the Moon, visits Mars and skews objectivity. Those who seek career, financial or personal advice gain insight regarding next steps and obtain tools to plan accordingly. If you were born with Chiron in Aries check the house where it resides. Just as the Sun moves into Pisces, The Wounded Healer moves to Aries and heightens the awareness of those born March 19-21 related to issues involving family, health, workplace, home and environmental quality. You may uncover information regarding financial transactions, long-held secrets and distorted accounts; seek solutions. Assess the facts before taking drastic actions and use caution in sharing details. Keep Bach remedies on hand to address emotional angst. A few drops of Rescue Remedy bring relief when processing grief and those with Aries planets benefit from using Impatiens if you are quick to spill the beans. Laughter truly is good for the soul.

PEOPLE, PLACES AND TOPICS IN THE NEWS

I always save this section for last due to the ever-changing agenda on the world stage and particularly in our government since the last presidential election. Several readers pointed out that in last month's newsletter I wrote that we should watch the presidential chart around February 5 when the focus is strongly on him and the state of government. Some wanted to know if I knew the State of the Union address would be postponed. I had a feeling it might be since the government shutdown was dominating the news but what I saw was how strongly his chart was - and still is aspected by planets. Keep watching and read on.

I am sure it is no surprise that readers expressed concern about the direction our country is taking and what confusion exists with mixed messages and uncovering secrets; subpoenas for incriminating testimony that unearths discrepancies related to the last election, Russian intervention and erratic behavior of principals involved in running the government; declaring a national emergency to obtain funding for building a wall when the wall's utility is questionable and Congress does not agree with the intended plan and escalating cost; delivering a State of the union address that was a campaign agenda for 2020; investing in an indoor golf course for the White House; and creating divisiveness among diverse constituents. And these concerns are merely scratching the surface of what is on our minds. So many long for the healing waters of compassion and a harmonious path to unite our Nation, complimentary and uplifting dialog with citizens, respect for past leaders who truly made worthwhile contributions, trust that truth is on the way, signs that imbalance in the thinking process is stopped and addressed by those who can make a difference. The Pisces period treads deep, spiritual waters and allows us to reflect on what we hold dear and how we can contribute to a better quality of life.

Commonwealth of Virginia politics: I received several comments from readers asking what is going on in this commonwealth and with its key political figures. Virginia is a Cancer state, the 10th to join the union, and first ratified the Constitution on June 26, 1788 in Richmond, the capital. During the Civil War, Virginia joined the Confederacy on April 17, 1861, and was not readmitted to the union until 1870. Virginia is called the "Mother of Presidents" because 8 presidents were born there (Washington, Jefferson, Madison, Monroe, William Harrison, Tyler, Taylor and Wilson), five of whom were slave owners. Racism has been prevalent in the south and this state was known for its re-enactment of Civil War battles, displays of Civil War monuments and strong ties to the Confederacy. Virginia's chart has both early and late degree Cancer planets in the chart's 10th House of leadership that either are or will be directly affected by eclipses in Cancer and Capricorn over the next year. Oppositions to these key planets from ongoing Capricorn eclipses ignite conjunctions from Cancer eclipses, oppositions from transiting Pluto and Saturn and from natal Pallas and Dark Moon Lilith in Capricorn in Virginia's 5th House of risk-taking, feeding the latent prejudices, hypocrisies, fragile policies and unbecoming conduct that has been emerging. Transiting Uranus in Aries has been in hard aspect to Mercury and Uranus in Cancer in this chart for over a year, strongly contributing to the negative exposure to racial and sexual misbehavior that has emerged that highlights the charts of the Governor, Lieutenant Governor and Attorney General of the Commonwealth. The only reason these disconcerting reveals are no longer front page news is that our Nation's leader declared a National Emergency to obtain funds to build the wall. Stay tuned.

READERS CORNER

I received numerous messages from readers responding to last month's question about acing job interviews. Writers were very complimentary about the information, asked for more and indicated they would pass the material on to co-workers, subordinates, their children or would use it personally. One writer suggested that women not wear strong perfumes to interviews. I would include men since some of them wear heavily scented aftershave lotion/cologne that stays in the air long after they leave the interview area. I received a number of general questions. In the event you have the same interests, I am sharing a few of them with you.

Q How do you select questions for Readers Corner? How long is the wait time for an answer? Does the question have to come from someone with the sign of the month? Are they confidential?

A. I select questions that are of general interest to readers that can be answered in a limited amount of space and focus on a particular topic, that are not too personal and do not give away the identity of the writer. I do my best to address others' astrological concerns. For example, some time ago, I received input from three separate readers within a month - two men and one woman who lived in different parts of the country and had almost identical questions about the future of their relationships with long-distance dating partners. That makes a good question and I answered it. After the publication of the newsletter, the woman contacted me to complain that the gist of the question sounded like her issue and she felt it was a mild invasion of privacy. I am careful as possible to avoid this scenario, and I never post an actual year or location of birth unless I get permission to do so. This woman was the last of the three to write me about the issue. I felt that since 3 clients were dealing with it, that was a good one to include in the newsletter. I often save questions to tie to an upcoming sign so that the problem appears in the appropriate newsletter. If there is going to be a long wait time, I answer the querent directly well ahead of the publication of the newsletter (see the question on bonus award below). Often, when a reader's birthday is coming up, the questions flow and fit right in with the newsletter schedule. Everyone experiences the effects of planetary transits and that is what the responses reflect. Readers are generally thrilled to see they are not the only one dealing with aspects influenced by critical transiting planets.

Q. What are the top concerns of clients?

A. Clients most often ask about love, finances and health. Love covers all types of personal relationships and feelings, birth, death, sex, separations, divorces, marriages, engagements and blocks; finances include money they receive from the job, career or freelance opportunities and the people connected with these venues such as bosses, heads of organizations and co-workers and the nature of these professional relationships; money they have and how they spend it; money they owe such as mortgages and other debts or loans; legal matters such as wills, estates and leases, partnership income and education, related skill sets and all forms of self-development; real estate holdings and construction or remodeling ventures; health includes both physical and mental conditions, medication, surgery, nutrition, recreation, physical fitness; participation in sports and attitudes or philosophies about life, including the conditions of your daily routine .

Q. A few months before the December holidays, my super generous Pisces wife, born March 9, learned she would be receiving a $50,000 bonus for finishing a highly visible project 6 months ahead of schedule. She had never received an amount close to this windfall and decided to share it with others. After setting aside tax money and paying off the small balance on her car loan, she invited 12 family members on a 4-day resort vacation over the Christmas holidays and paid for everything. We had a great time. While she invited my parents, too, they declined because they were preparing for an upcoming trip to mark their 45th wedding anniversary. She then gave them $2,000 to put toward expenses; still had money left over, bought a new dishwasher and put the balance into savings (we are fortunate to have no other debt). Later, my mother criticized my wife's generosity and suggested she could have contributed to our children's college fund with this large amount. We already fund college expenses for our two children. My mother did not offer to return the $2,000. What planetary aspects were in play here and what is your take on my wife's gesture? Thank you for your input.

A. Your wife's chart received a powerful boost from transiting Jupiter in Scorpio last year as well as from the solar eclipse in Cancer on July 12 on her Cancer Moon that led to her generous bonus. Her solid performance paid off. She truly understands the Law of Abundance by treating relatives to this unexpected getaway. Celebrate her spirit of caring. The evidence of fiscal responsibility in the way the two of you handle money is all the more reason not to be critical of her gesture. Your Mother was out of line in voicing her unsolicited opinion - her Sagittarius Sun is in hard aspect to your wife's Sun and she may have expressed disapproval of your wife's actions in the past. Don't bring up the subject unless your Mother does in the future; then close the door on any criticism immediately. You owe no explanations. Instead honor what you value about your partner and celebrate the success of your joyful relationship.
