Cyber Threats: One new scheme involves phone calls to those eligible for Medicare saying they have been approved for a back, wrist or knee brace (playing the field of possibilities) and if you accept the offer, the expense is very high. Another scam is the single ring phone call. If it happens, just let it go and do not attempt to call the number or redial. Most people who receive them want to find out who it is, but these scammers are looking for your number to use in illegal activity. Bombarding users with demands for bitcoins is a scheme that has come back with attempts to hold your computer hostage via pop up messages that say you have malware and that they have “frozen” your computer. Get out fast, click on nothing and don’t believe that statement. Other scammers use URLs that are a typo away from legitimate websites and look for popular web addresses where users type one wrong letter and trick the user into thinking they are reaching the intended site. Close open documents, run your security check and reboot. Send other types of E-mails requesting your mailing address to SPAM. If you suspect someone is posing as a company you do business with, notify the company and follow instructions. Safety first!

GEMINI and THE YEAR AHEAD: Happy Birthday, Gemini! Your Sun Sign rules the chest cavity, hands, arms and shoulders in the communication-oriented 3rd House of brothers, sisters, cousins and other relatives as well as neighbors, classes and workshops, communities, education, transportation (all forms including commuting, purchasing and repairing of vehicles and methods you choose for travel), media interests and networks, (phones, computers, faxes, Internet, social networks), writing and the diverse facets of your mind, especially how it works and the impact on your mental state. The 3rd house of the chart, regardless of Sun sign, describes your intellect, how you think, the way you converse with others or form creative relationships; Gemini’s natural ruler is Mercury and its symbol is the Twins making you simultaneously an air and a mutable sign displaying Yin and Yang characteristics. Your deductive skills help you analyze all types of problems while sharing your ideas with others. People love your charming sense of humor and the amazing amount of information you recall; you are sociable and love to mingle and tell your stories letting the people-to-people contact recharge your batteries. When choosing a career, you prefer one with the flexibility to move around and don’t care for tasks that take too long. This year the Sun enters your sign on May 21 at 3:59 AM EDT and leaves on June 21 at 11:54 AM EDT.

Jupiter in adventurous Sagittarius is taking a trip through your solar 7th house of romantic and business partners, cooperators, spouses, significant others, the public, advisors, professionals and your shadow self. The planet of expansion stays here until December 3 giving you ample opportunity to build relationships and perfect their qualities. Since you like people, that should be a rewarding challenge as you think about the dynamics and work on making life beautiful. If compatibility is an issue, you make inroads this year. Work on projects, collaborative ventures and writing if it is part of your world. Congratulations come to those of you in line for awards, birth of children, engagements or marriages. Enjoy the progress you are making on life goals. When Jupiter moves to Capricorn on December 3, you are in for a year that highlights the 8th house of partnership resources, debt, birth, sex, death, wills, estates, surgery, investments, deep level processing, and people connected with these matters. Schedules may change in tackling the household workload, your career assignments, financial arrangements or mortgage matters. Capricorn sets a serious tone for consolidating resources, reducing debt and investing in household goods. When in doubt, seek counsel from financial, legal, medical or real estate professionals. This year transiting Mars travels through every house in your chart from your 2019 birthday through your 2020 birthday Enjoy the added energy and feel the vitality as you breeze through projects. Avoid hasty actions and decisions when Mars hits each full moon. Saturn is retrograde through September 18th in

Capricorn in your solar 8th House of money you owe, joint income, debt and assets, sex, birth, death, estates, wills, psychological depth and matters worth probing for answers. This house is one of the most prominent in your chart during this birthday cycle and covers both business and intimate partnerships including spouses, roommates, significant others, personal relationships, advisors, legal and medical professionals and collaborators. Saturn pushes lots of work and decisions your way and continues a pattern begun in late December 2017. Some days you feel as if there is no end to the work that stacks up, yet you set goals to see your “pile” go down. Matters related to this house will be around you through the middle of next year. Many of you make great progress reducing your debt load while making wise investments that strengthen your monetary outlook for years to come. Since this house represents joint income, cooperation goes a long way in uniting your wisdom. Free yourself of your own or others’ debt. You will meet cherished goals to improve your space and create harmony regardless of the restrictions in this cycle. Some of you may refinance existing loans or shop for a new mortgage if you are relocating. Control the arrangements by shopping for competitive interest rates and settling on your home when the aspects look good for you. Accountability affects the outcome with monetary and professional partners. Let go of worries and live in the moment. Uranus in Taurus most affects those of you born May 22-26 throughout your birthday cycle. When located in the 12th House, the planet represents what you’re keeping secret and don’t want revealed, your innermost thoughts, plans you’re not ready to share, affairs or trysts, healing of mind and body, your spiritual retreat, psychic insight, secret enemies, hospital visiting, rehabilitation, widows, orphans, and charities. Over the past two years, you have dropped certain associations, friendships and groups that no longer were a factor in your life goals. Life could have been very erratic in the associate department with the way Uranus loves shake-ups and left you exhausted from picking up the pieces. Now you seek a breather but that is not a good description of the way Uranus operates; break-ups can drain you emotionally and the 12th House is a recovery spot for you to review what went wrong and what you might consider in the future. Mostly, just let go of the problems and the unfulfilling relationships. You have nearly 7 years to uncover deep feelings and visualize new plans and conditions for your future. Just let Uranus move through this house while you surround yourself with individuals you trust. It’s not time for confrontations or arguing - that was so last year. Keep a journal handy to record flashes of insight that shed light on important issues. This is a favorable time to contact your astrologer to sort out the truth. Neptune in Pisces falls in your solar 10th House of authority, ambition, career matters and workplace-related relationships, interactions with those in charge, parents and family status as well as current goals. Get ready for some soul searching if you have been looking for a new job, desire a career change or are considering retirement, want more responsibility in your current position, or just want to quit your job. Those born June 5-9 experience the biggest shift while sorting out confusion. This transit creates a reality check. Gemini meets challenges with Pisces planets since the Neptunian energy is in strong conflict with the organized thought processes you prefer. Maybe you find some of the people at work annoying and you feel the need to take cover amidst the chaos. Communication may be erratic. Perhaps vague direction is the culprit. Family matters seem to be in a state of flux, and you long for better harmony. Neptune has been in this house since 2011 teaching you to cope with the frenetic environment. Research is very important now; commit to changes when you are better assured of the next steps or solutions. A good Mercury placement helps you spot problems in need of attention. Find ways to rest and relax to calm your restless mind. You don't care for long periods of inactivity and crave action. This year, vivid dream recall is likely so take notes and highlight themes. Nurture self-confidence with work that gives you passion. If you are engaged in a career in the educational or metaphysical field, you could grow your business now. Pluto in Capricorn connects with Geminis born June 10-16 in your solar 8th House of finances, debt and money you owe, credit management, estate matters, joint assets, winnings, wills, sex, birth, death, regeneration, and psychological depth. This house has the most activity in the 2019-20 period with Pluto and Saturn and Jupiter arriving in December along with eclipses in July and December. Pluto plays the role of unearthing deep, dark secrets and having you deal with what is buried in your psyche. Intensity has been building here since 2008 and transforms much of your world. Compare notes with where you were 10-12 years ago. Pluto is the natural ruler of the 8th House and it knows what is ripe for dissolution and goes about it gradually with a bit of organizational help from Saturn. Blasts from eclipses landing in this house can move things along suddenly. Financial goals may be part of the transformation you are seeking which include reducing debt, paying off mortgages, buying insurance and making solid investments. Perhaps it is time to make a will or update it. Key people may have passed from your lives since that time. Certain Geminis welcome babies into your life and relish the opportunity to cherish them. Any change you initiate will be long-lasting and lead you toward a very positive growth cycle. Those with edgy personal relationships may dissolve the partnerships after significant counseling yields no positive results; others heal them and give relationships new life. Include fun and celebration in your life to give a boost to your mindset.

This year 5 eclipses occur followed by a full Moon eclipse in January 2020 and a full Moon eclipse that occurs on June 5, 2020 which registers during next year's Gemini birthday cycle. The first two eclipses of 2019 have already occurred. The first fell on January 5, a solar eclipse in Capricorn in that super busy 8th House of yours that relates to your jointly held funds, debts, sex, wills and inner worlds. You may have been very busy paying down debt, refinancing a mortgage, consolidating mutual financial arrangements, merging accounts, managing a relative's estate or creating a will as part of your monetary plan for the year. Be sure to check for accounting errors and seek advice if you need to strengthen your retirement portfolio. This house will keep you busy with additional eclipses occurring here in the next year. The second eclipse was a lunar eclipse in Leo on January 21 in your solar 3rd House of communication, cousins and siblings, education, neighborhood and community, mental attitude, contracts and diverse topics related to transportation, vehicles and electronic equipment. This house also relates to higher mind and education, in-laws, medical and legal professionals, work details involving temporary relocation, a chance to move for a promotion to another city, personal travel opportunities and enhanced spiritual insight. No doubt you had more communication than usual with neighbors and kin, were extremely busy with social media and had trouble keeping up with messages and written material. You may have been shopping for a vehicle or repairing one you own, attending classes, negotiating a contract or giving your mind a chance to chill with some fun and games. This eclipse wanes by mid-July and ends the Leo-Aquarius eclipse cycle of the past few years. Dissolve any mental ruts and think clearly about problems. Instead, celebrate your successes. Your abundant talent pays off; integrate the depth of it. Seek advice as you implement desired goals. The third eclipse of the year is a new moon eclipse that falls on July 2 in home-loving Cancer influencing your solar 2nd house of income and resources.

Now is the time to invest in household improvements, purchase real estate, review your financial picture to determine a workable budget, plan for your future or consider a new job or career switch that reflects your goals. Use self-improvement techniques to roll you out of boredom while you stretch your mental space. Eclipses can bring a few sudden surprises so be aware of any glitches that call for use of emergency funds. If you need to beef up your savings, look at assets now, so you have enough to cover the unplanned expenses. Maximize earning power in the year ahead. The 4th eclipse of 2019 takes place on July 16th in Capricorn in your demanding 8th house and brings the issues addressed near the January 5th eclipse to the forefront. Look at the progress you have made since then and at what still needs attention. That 8th House has lots of company with Saturn, Pluto, Jupiter moving there in December and another eclipse at year's end. If you haven't completely accomplished all of your financial revamping, take a look at your most critical needs at this time and tackle what needs the most work. In the next year, your chart is aligned to bring pending matters to a great conclusion. Review construction plans to make sure your works meets building codes or that your builder is in compliance if buying a new home. A new work assignment may be in the cards for some of you. So much is on your plate that you may have to curb travel this year and stick to local scenes. When the last solar eclipse of 2019 hits on December 26th, it occurs in Capricorn and again activates your solar 8th House magnifying what continued in July when the last eclipse landed. The emphasis is on new expenses, joint funds, sources of income, financial plans and regeneration. This eclipse lasts until July 5, 2020 when another Capricorn eclipse helps you deal with any unfinished business from this cycle over the following 6 months to a year. An eclipse in this position inspires you to develop a clean slate, enjoy peace of mind, happiness, and goals that bring a smile to your face. Capitalize on the wins in your life and the support of partners and close associates, family and children. Trust in the strength of your goals. Whatever you started way back in January is ready for completion as you incorporate new directions that are unfolding in your life. Schedule changes are inevitable, and you'll know what to do make them work. Savor self-satisfaction for a job well done. Sign on the dotted line if you and your partner like the terms. Test your networks. The first solar eclipse of 2020 occurs on January 10th in Cancer in your solar 2nd House of personal resources, income, self-development, people connected with your money, choice financial management, and personal taste. Choice is a big factor in this cycle related to how you want to earn money and how you prefer to spend it. Further analyze your financial picture after the July 5th eclipse and get a handle on any loose ends involving your debt load. How do you feel about your workplace? Update your resume if you are looking for a change. Some of you may hear from headhunters. Another eclipse occurs here right at the end of your 2020 birthday cycle! Be aware of options. On June 5th, 2020, the second lunar eclipse of the year occurs in your solar 7th House in Sagittarius, calling attention to personal and business partners and relationships, collaborators, the public and professionals that cross your path. This eclipse plays out during the next year highlighting conditions in your intimate relationships, upcoming rituals and celebrations, matters connected to roommates and partnership plans. Examine what needs attention and look for ways to mediate the difficult times and turn them into wins for all parties. Enjoy the rewards of your birthday year. Remember that these sections may also apply to those of you with Gemini on the Ascendant or those with multiple Gemini planets. Make dreams come true.

May 21-JUNE 21 PLANET ACTIVITY

Sky Patterns: As the Gemini cycle starts, note that three outer planets are retrograde; Jupiter, Saturn and Pluto and they will be joined by Neptune on June 21. Three of our outer planets are in earth signs: Saturn in Capricorn, Uranus in Taurus and Pluto in Capricorn. If you have followed the stock market and trade and tariff issues with China, you note the emphasis on the economy, along with the environment and security matters. Jupiter in Sagittarius and Neptune in Pisces clash this month as they seek the truth in disclosures and emotional vulnerability is felt around the world. Observers note the turmoil resulting from unfinished business related to The Mueller Report. Mercury executes a rapid trip through Gemini on May 21, right after the Sun moves to Gemini. Shakeups occur over the meaning of messages and this fast-thinking communicator then enters the placid waters of Cancer on June 5. Mercury's direct motion aids the flow of desired transactions, including advertising, timeliness of message delivery and the content and accuracy of written documents. The power of the word dominates the communication environment and applies to individuals, heads of state, CEOs and all in positions of authority. Chosen words create high, long-lasting impact; in these sensitive times, they will resurface in a haunting manner. Think about emerging election campaign scenarios. Venus is in tactile Taurus through June 8th before moving to on-the-go Gemini for the remainder of the month. You could be discussing relationship prospects, planning visits to museums, parks and shopping meccas. Some of you get unexpected attention from mates and dates giving your psyche a welcome lift. Wine-tastings and gourmet shops are favorites of a Venus in Taurus cycle; while education becomes prominent when Gemini appears. Express loving sentiments and cherish relationships that enhance your social life. Mars moved to Cancer on May 16th and dominates the landscape through the end of June energizing water signs Cancer, Scorpio and Pisces and earth signs Taurus, Virgo and Capricorn. Enjoy a welcome boost of energy and tender, passionate feelings during this significant cycle. You may be up for tackling domestic projects you have been putting off. Once the tasks are done you can head to the beach and plan a crab fest or cool off at a mountain retreat. Check your chart to see where this boost of ambition plays out and take advantage of your success cycle. Transiting outer planet Jupiter is retrograde in Sagittarius during this cycle. Currently Jupiter covers 21-18 degrees of Sagittarius and most affects those of you born December 10-15; Jupiter benefits Aries born March 30-April 6, Leo born August 2-9, Aquarius born January 29-February 5, and Libra born October 3-10. These degrees challenge Geminis born May 31-June 7, Virgos born September 2-9 and Pisces born February 29-March 7. A positive Jupiter transit favors purchasing big ticket items like vehicles, homes, jewelry, furnishings or vacations. Check with your astrologer before signing important papers or dealing with legal matters. Be sure to have a medical checkup and pay attention to any changes in health conditions. Be aware of internal workings and discuss growths or changes in bodily function before scheduling surgery. Saturn in Capricorn is retrograde through September 18 and most affects those born December 9-21, Aries born April 7-11, Cancer born July 10-14 and Libra born October 11-15. Assess areas where you feel constraints and find balance by researching workable solutions that bring peace of mind. Sign documents on favorable days. Those benefitting from this Saturn transit are Taurus born May 8-12, Virgo born September 10-14; Scorpios born November 10-14 and Pisces born March 7-11 who experience financial windfalls or creative insight from either a sextile or a trine aspect. Areas of responsibility tied to karma reflect the true meaning of this planet in transit. Now you can see more clearly where you have been blocked; this retrograde period helps you align with the truth. Shift goals and priorities for effective outcomes. Uranus in Taurus, a fixed sign travels to 4-5 degrees of the sign in forward motion most affecting Taurus born April 25-27 this month. Also affected are earth signs Capricorn born December 26-28 and Virgo born August 25-28 who experience a nice trine aspect that stimulates prosperity, abundance or unexpected benefits. Other fixed signs undergoing a challenge with this transit are Leo born July 26-29, Scorpio born October 27-30 and Aquarius born January 24-27. These signs could confront events that rock their world and pop up spontaneously with little or no warning. Life takes unanticipated turns over the next two months. Stay calm and address evolving conditions with clear thinking responsiveness. Uranus transits affect weather patterns (think hurricanes, tsunamis, tornados, earthquakes, volcanic eruptions, lightning and thunderstorms) that produce flooding and structural damage, and fires, plane or train crashes and threatening war games (North Korea, South Korea, Iran, China, the U.S., Syria, and Israel) that affect the lives of citizens in the US and abroad. Uranus is new to this sign in most of our lifetimes since it has been nearly 84 years since it transited in Taurus. I believe its impact is going to be on the economy, finances, values, market stability, work conditions and sudden shifts in global relations. Watch those countries with strong Taurus placements - they will be making the news. Neptune in Pisces goes retrograde on June 21 and stays retrograde until November 27. The planet joins the Suns of Pisces born March 7-9. Anticipate esoteric energy that includes elevated spiritual concepts, romance and appreciation of all things beautiful. Simultaneously keep your eyes and ears out for deceptive behavior, promises, speeches and trickery that pop up everywhere, from subtle hints to hard evidence. Note what is contributing to mental confusion that accompanies this planet's long shift. Benefits come to those born July 10-12, November 10-12, January 8-10 and May 8-10, the water and earth signs, Cancer, Scorpio, Capricorn and Taurus. Individuals born June 8-10, September 10-12, and December 9-11 address challenges brought on by a hard square aspect. Jupiter in an exact square to Neptune on the 21st gets plenty of attention on the world stage - watch the news. More confusion may emanate from sources sending careless, spontaneous messages that lead to lack of trust. The day before, Mercury goes to its retrograde shadow even though it does not go retrograde until July 7. Keep your distance from communicators who spin unbelievable stories, con artists, schemers, chronic liars and slick salespeople. Take advantage of Neptune's love of harmony and use time to expand your consciousness via relaxing getaways and spending time with your romantic partner or bosom buddies. Pluto is in retrograde motion during this cycle and creeps along in Capricorn on the Suns of members of this sign born at the 22nd degree approximately January 12-14. The Pluto aspects are positive with transiting Saturn in Capricorn and Neptune in Pisces, and to some extent, offset some of the negative vibes of the Jupiter-Neptune square that is looming on the day of the Summer Solstice. Take advantage of the upbeat flow to transform stuck environments and shed old baggage. Visualize what you want in life and execute your plans accordingly. Take a few minutes to develop your list and decide where to start. Set priorities. Find ways to spread cheer and optimism in your circle; think and act positively. Aries, Cancer and Libra with planets at 22 degrees also feel the depth of this transit as it slowly reveals information from the subconscious and issues a strong wake-up call. If you're an earth sign, Capricorn, Taurus or Virgo with planets at this degree, you receive assistance for cherished goals in the midst of releasing old toxic beliefs. Take a page from what is occurring in the global Universe and challenge mixed messages or disclosures that don't ring true. Stay tuned to what is coming during the summer eclipse activity in July, particularly national and local politics. Integrity strikes a balance. Get ready! Chiron in Aries is direct at 4-5 degrees and most affects those born March 24-27. Find your deepest truth and integrate inner healing to eliminate painful memories while you clear your mind of fearful emotional clutter that has origins in your past. Whatever anger has been piling up has to go and there is no time like the present to wipe the slate clean. Be sure to note the house where Chiron is transiting in your chart; this is important in 2019-20. In which house does natal Chiron reside? If any aspects occur with transiting and natal Chiron, you will inevitably face the truth and it will set you free. Seek help and more options for sorting through pain. While you're healing, plan and schedule favorite summer activities that include adventure, fun, family gatherings and relaxing vacations.

Readers were curious about the birth of Archie Harrison Mountbatten Windsor, the son of Harry and Megan, the Duke and Duchess of Sussex. Readers continue to comment about the chaotic state of our government and fear Cybersecurity breaches will occur in coming elections. Writers criticize threats of war and the fallout from the trade war with China hoping that sense and sensibility and astute leadership prevails in the future for the greater good of the country.

American Idol: Concludes Season 17 on May 19 with 3 finalists in the running. They are: Madison Vandenberg, an Aquarius born February 12, Alejandro Aranda, was born in 1994, hails from Pomona, CA, yet no birth data has been available; and Laine Hardy a Virgo born September 12. During the May 19th competition, Madison was eliminated, and Laine emerged the final winner of American Idol, Season 17. Congratulations to all who competed. This talented trio and several finalists are destined for success. AI has been renewed for another season even though unconfirmed rumors suggest that new judges may replace the current team.

Archie Harrison Mountbatten-Windsor: The latest addition to the British Royal Family is the son of Prince Harry, the Duke of Sussex (a Virgo) and his wife, Megan Markle, the Duchess of Sussex (a Leo). Baby Sussex is a Taurus born early on the morning of May 6 in Westminster, UK, with his Taurus Sun conjunct his Taurus Ascendant and his Moon in expressive Gemini also in residence in his 1st House. This charmer has a loaded 12th House with Neptune in Pisces, and Chiron, Vesta, Venus, the East Point, Part of Fortune and Mercury in Aries, and Uranus in Taurus. His cousins Princess Charlotte and Prince Louis are also members of Taurus as is his Great Grandmother, Queen Elizabeth. Earth and fire dominate his chart, a fitting combination for compatibility with his loving parents. He has the chart of one who takes responsibility seriously and may find an avid interest in research, medicine, writing and communicating. Happiness to the family!

James Holzhauer: This astounding winner on TV's "Jeopardy" returns to the screen as this newsletter goes out after a 2-week hiatus. James, a professional sports bettor, has captured a strategy that calls for taking unusual risks in amassing big dollar wins and knowing the answers to an amazing number of Jeopardy questions. He is aiming to break Ken Jennings 74-appearance record on the show, although his bets are way higher each time he appears, and he has a high probability of topping the dollar amount if not the number of appearances. James is a Leo born August 6 with a Virgo Ascendant and a loaded 12th House that contains a stellium of planets in Leo (Sun, Juno, Vesta, Trans Pluto and Venus) as well as his East Point and Mercury in Virgo on his Ascendant. Uranus is conjunct his Sagittarius Moon in the 4th House of home and foundation along with natal Neptune in Sagittarius and Jupiter and the Part of Fortune in Capricorn. What a combination for success!

Doris Day: The actress born Doris Mae Kappelhoff was born in Cincinnati, Ohio, an Aries on April 3, 1922, and passed away on May 13, in Carmel Valley, CA. Doris was a talented actress, had a beautiful singing voice amassing many accolades for her recordings, and a passionate animal rights advocate who retired from the acting scene in the early 1970's. She had a late degree Virgo Ascendant with a stellium of planets in Libra in her first house (lovely looks, perfect for the romantic heroines she played on screen), a stellium of planets in Pisces in her 6th House depicting her musical and film talent (dancing, too, but an injury from a car accident curtailed it), and her stellium of Aries planets in the 7th House of public and partners as well as her pioneering spirit and strong position on treatment of animals. Appropriately, her Moon in Gemini was right on the cusp of her 10th House of career indicating her fame and popularity. Rest in peace, Doris, I am glad I had the opportunity to see all your films.

READERS' CORNER

Thank you for the abundant questions and comments you sent during the past month. Several readers commented on the woman who wrote in to find answers about the many household problems she was having. Several of you are experiencing similar issues and no doubt have hard transits in your chart that relate to household difficulties. I appreciate your interest. Here is this month's offering.

Q. I am a Gemini born June 5 and need some help managing excessively and unrealistically long visits from my in-laws. They have decided they want to visit us for at least a month in the spring and a month in the fall. How they behave when they arrive, especially my mother-in-law who was born October 28, is problematic. They were last here for a month in late October and left the week after Thanksgiving - 5 weeks. Now they are arriving again right after Memorial Day and plan to stay until the 29th of June. That's way too long since I work full-time, travel for work (have a trip the first two days of their upcoming visit), have two children in elementary school with significant needs especially as we wrap up the end of the school year, and my mother-in-law has already requested that we visit them in mid-July for a couple of weeks. I have told my husband that will not work for me. I have asked him to discuss the length of the visits with his parents, but he just shrugs it off and says they don't live close and we should just let them visit when they want. He has two other siblings, one who lives closer to them and one whom they visit a week each year. I am resentful and exhausted from all the cooking and cleaning and having to rediscover when they leave where my utensils, dishware, groceries and linens are located because my mother-in-law rearranges everything while I am working. She also expects me to take her shopping every other day to get fresh produce and other supplies that she notices we don't have on hand. My father-in-law will also mention from the sofa that he has not had certain dishes in a while that require special shopping trips. We take them out for dinner once a week while they are here. There is little I like about these visits. What is going on in my chart to trigger my feelings and upset me so much? Am I unreasonable? What can I do to get these issues resolved and restore harmony?

A. I had to trim your description of the problems to fit into the allotted space. What you describe is exhausting, especially since the in-laws do not bother to check about compatibility of their visit beforehand. Your chart shows that you are a Gemini with an early Taurus Ascendant. Right now transiting Uranus in Taurus is right on your Ascendant and is opposing the Sun of your mother-in-law in your 7th House of partners and roommates. This transit is one source of intense conflict. Your Sun is also in the inconjunct or quincunx aspect from hers, a stress-inducing configuration that requires patience and a plan for coping. I can see why you are particularly rattled now - your 9th House of travel, in-laws and people from a distance holds transiting Saturn and Pluto showing the source of angst you may be experiencing from individuals connected with this house - your in-laws. Transiting Jupiter in Sagittarius in your 8th House of partnerships funds is in hard aspect to your natal Moon in Pisces showing the occurrence of additional or unplanned expenses. I suggest talking with your husband again to suggest they reduce the length of their visits. Why does he not see this? Does he pitch in to help? If he won't communicate with them, then after they arrive this month, it will be up to you to let them know that the length of time they spend is not working for you. You could tell them that while you love having them visit, now that your job and your children's needs bring additional demands to your schedule, you find it very difficult to cope with responsibilities and provide them with a quality visit for the month long visits. Be sure you suggest how much time and when is agreeable and that you prefer to make sure there are no date conflicts during the time of their visit driven by work travel or children's events. You might also mention early in the visit that you appreciate her intention to help out but that you prefer that she leave items used in the course of the visit for you to return to their appropriate place. Be tactful, smile and do acknowledge helpfulness.
