IN REMEMBRANCE: Many readers are familiar with my long-time connection to The Pacific Institute, attended seminars and even became a member of the facilitator team. Diane Bailey Tice, the last living founder of The Pacific Institute in Seattle, passed away on January 5 after a long illness. I've had a warm, long-lasting association with Diane since 1988, as well as her husband, Lou (deceased) filled with happy memories that started with becoming a Master Facilitator and presenting their mind-enriching "INVESTMENT IN EXCELLENCE" seminars to government employees across the U.S. The caring Diane was a gifted artist, loving wife, mother, cherished friend, executive and humanitarian whose work goes on in many corners of the world. We last corresponded around her July birthday and I realized how ill she was from the message she wrote me afterward. I knew when I did not hear from Diane at Christmas with one of her inspirationally designed cards and personal messages that the end was near. Thank you for being a friend, Diane. Rest in peace. 🌹

Cyber-security breaches continue to watch culprits at bay that are trying to scare you into believing you've been hacked or have no security protection on your computer. Certain scammers tell you that a virus has been detected in your system. Make sure your Antivirus software is up to date but don't follow links when you receive these notices. Experts stay busy nabbing porch bandits and ATM skimmers, tracking fake messages, illegal requests for funds, and dating site charlatans who are not at all what their credentials claim. Stay away from requests to add a friend or contact to your networks if you don't know the party - they're fishing for information. The demand remains high for those with skills to combat security leaks and keep us safe from theft and intrusion. Don't answer the phone if numbers you don't know show up in Caller ID. If the call is legitimate, the party will leave a number, but most of the time there is no message. If a highlighted message says, "here's your surprise," and tells you to click on the link, send it straight to SPAM or the surprise could be costly.

BIRTHDAY HIGHLIGHTS FOR AQUARIUS

Happy Birthday, Aquarius! Your sign symbol is the Water Bearer, known for favoring humanitarian endeavors and displaying optimism, a trait of your air sign. You are the fourth fixed sign of the Zodiac and the natural occupant of the 11th House of associations, friendships, goals, groups, your employer's resources, hopes, global initiatives, leadership in organizations, motivations, mutual interests, new trends, unorthodox methods, wishes, and sudden revelations or change. Spontaneous Uranus is your sign ruler and helps you connect with others in a variety of social settings adding new insight to your sphere of influence. Many individuals with 11th House emphasis in their charts have astrologers in their lives by birth, through friendship or via a consulting relationship. Your signature colors are brilliant, electric blues, indigo, most medium blue shades, sky blue, lavenders, ultramarine and accents of bright white. You take pride in being among the most analytical in the zodiac. Problem-solving and innovation are your strengths especially if you remain flexible to change and release what is not working in a timely manner. Innovative applications define critical aspects of your work. Many of you collect gadgets and display inventiveness. The more altruistic Aquarians show commitment to the improvement of relationships in both personal and professional settings. When you're not tuned in, everything gets on your nerves and you become detached or cynical. Your sign rules the ankles, blood pressure, calves, hemoglobin, legs from knees to ankles, shins, body tremors and wrinkles. Aquarius relates to social networking. This year the Sun enters your sign on January 20 at 9:55 AM EST and leaves on February 18 at 11:57 PM EST. Much of the material in the following section also refers to individuals with Aquarius on the Ascendant.

Aquarius, your birthday year starts off in the aftermath of the well-publicized Saturn-Pluto conjunction in Capricorn that occurred in your solar 12th House of retreat and regrouping. This duo stays there all year, now joined by Jupiter in Capricorn, and hopefully aided in shifting your seclusion mode to a more active one that allows you to pursue matters that challenge your mind and give you a leg up in meeting your goals. The lineup in your 12th House could mean that you are recovering from surgery, a long illness or a bout with mental stress. Check dates for surgery or important medical tests carefully if you are anticipating further medical procedures. Your solar 12th House became the setting for transiting Jupiter in Capricorn on December 3 which represents behind-the-scenes planning, projects you are working on that many not be ready for the big reveal, a reason for personal healing or visiting the sick in hospitals, rehab centers, institutions or prisons. The House represents your metaphysical powers, meditation, intuition and psychological state. Jupiter remains in Capricorn until December 20th when it moves into Aquarius for the rest of your birthday year. Jupiter in the 12th House often brings to light your desire to relocate, change jobs or make a status shift in a relationship. A career choice, a new job, or a solid business deal may be in the works for you but it is too early to disclose your plans. Secrets you've been keeping, though, are ready for the reveal and may surface despite your best effort to stay silent. You could step up activities with a charity to aid those who are impoverished or in need of assistance they cannot afford. Take advantage of this one-year cycle to pursue emerging goals. When Jupiter heads to Aquarius on December 20 your solar 1st House of action, adventure, innovation and self-image moves into the spotlight. Enjoy the upcoming enterprising developments. Saturn in Capricorn travels through your solar 12th House of behind-the-scenes planning, opportunities to recharge your batteries, self-healing, meditation, seclusion, creating and developing future plans, visiting the sick, getting in touch with the truth and sifting through illusion. Think of this year as the one you spend cleaning out your closets and all the places where the baggage is stored in anticipation of moving on. Once you do that you get some help from Pluto and the aforementioned Jupiter which are making their way through this house as well. Even though you don't like to make a change in routine unless you really want to, something's got to give that has been stuck far too long. Dig out your action plan and work with Saturn the button-pressing taskmaster. Discharge pending obligations, review criticisms to determine validity, evaluate how others judge your work and get moving. Avoidance keeps you from living a better life. By clearing away whatever seems to be rooted in the past, you accelerate the freedom to live a more productive and meaningful life. Saturn in Capricorn brings opportunities for closure through December 17 when it moves to your sign, Aquarius for 2-1/2 years. Be ready to roll.

Uranus, your ruling planet, is residing in survival-oriented Taurus this year in your solar 4th House of home and family where you could be receiving hints to move to new spaces, complete renovation plans you have in motion or finish unpacking. Home base could be in a state of disruption. If you are truly ready, then explore options and offers that come your way to demonstrate that you're serious about new possibilities. Although Taurus energy begs for stability and steadiness, the Uranus structure stimulates drama and the path is unpredictable. Get ready for additional jolts compliments of the unexpected strike from Uranus. Some individuals move several times during its 7-year passage through a house and sometimes natural disasters are at the root of the disruption. This year the Uranus transit most affects Aquarians born January 22-31 and those with planets at 2 to 10 degrees of Aquarius. Center yourself through the shift and stay grounded. Evaluate what means the most to you and get moving. Neptune in Pisces makes strong contact with your Sun if you were born February 4-10 while it moves slowly through your solar 2nd House of income, resources, personal assets, material attachments, money, your ability to relax, benefits received for services offered and self-development, and covers the 16th - 20th degrees of Pisces. This passage calls for keeping your finances solvent with an excellent tracking system to monitor expenses. Knowing that Neptune enjoys mysterious ploys and confusing the bottom line, you can see why you need some reliable accounting practices. With Saturn in Capricorn moving through your 12th House, you receive assistance with side-stepping the Neptune haze to help you find the logical next steps. With Neptune moving in your money house for several years, and the position of Neptune in your natal chart, you'll need clear direction to ensure you have viable income streams, especially if you are not employed or are thinking of retirement. Avoid getting into a rut as you gravitate toward stable prospects. Find ways to improve finances. Whether in your work or personal life, the last year aided your approach to financial problem-solving. Now your best bet is to adjust your financial focus and make sure your current source of income provides growth for the future. A highlight of this lengthy transit in your money house is to stabilize resources. Be sure career moves are compatible with your chart's Astrocartography strengths. Have no fear, relief is here. Even if you're tired of Pluto's long residence (since 2008) in your solar 12th house in Capricorn, this house represents self-assessment and puts you in touch with themes that include healing, widows, orphans, hidden enemies, introspection, quiet reflection, seclusion, private thoughts, behind-the-scenes-activity, secret trysts, visiting the sick, atonement and a pack rat mentality that could use a good purge in 2020. The transit for the year ahead most affects those of you born February 10-14 and those of you with planets or Ascendants in Capricorn, Aries, Cancer and Libra that cover 22-24 degrees of these signs. Although you wish this long transit were over, it hangs out until early 2024. This year you may have to deal with intense anxiety, old secrets or disagreements and do something to heal them to bring more release to your life. Pluto helps you get rid of excess baggage and recycle the parts of life that you want to keep. What truths have you been resisting, hoping you could just deny them and they would go away? Were you able to completely implement emerging plans last year? If not Jupiter in Capricorn joins Saturn on Pluto this year to support you in engaging in difficult communication to give your heart and mind some breathing room. If you have been disenchanted with others, think how they must be feeling about you. Move that emotional garbage. Create a win-win situation fairly and objectively without insisting that your take on life is the only truth. Joining the 12th house lineup this year, is another eclipse in Capricorn opposed by 2 more in Cancer from your 6th House of daily activity that occur before mid-summer. Grieve for the broken pieces, tie up loose ends, put the puzzle pieces together and understand others' heartaches and perspectives. True independence comes from freeing your spirit. Eliminate stubborn standoffs.

As we look at trends for you in the eclipse department this year, know that you will face 6 of them in 2020 and just experienced the last Solar Eclipse of 2019 in Capricorn in your 12th House of seclusion whose effect lingers through July 5. Consider it a powerful omen to point out what you need to do to progress to the depth you desire. No more ruts and no more going around in circles or isolating yourself from the inevitable. If you have planets around 4 degrees of Capricorn (or the other Cardinal signs Aries, Cancer or Libra) they are in the mix so look at your natal chart to see where this eclipse actually falls in your chart. Gather your strengths and heal old wounds. The first lunar eclipse of 2020 occurred on January 10 at 20°@ 00' Cancer and falls in your solar 6th House of fitness, nutrition, the daily environment, health, usual routines, pets, organization, co-workers, attitude toward employment and how you address responsibility. This eclipse stays prominent through the end of 2020 as it highlights facets of these themes depending upon your natal chart makeup. Shifts in work and career experiences over the past year brought security matters to light, altering your outlook and personal as well as professional relationships which created a foundation for major life changes. Assess relationships with authority people and family. Are you pleased with the status quo? As you pursue new work arenas, use talent wisely and embrace evolving technology to keep business practices current. Use training effectively and demonstrate a willingness to pursue new skills. Stay positive. On June 5, the second lunar eclipse of your 2020 birthday occurs in Sagittarius in your solar 11th House of friendships, associates, groups, goals, financial resources of your employer and humanitarian interests. This eclipse calls attention to developing plans and dreams as well as social and business affiliations that hold your interest and the level of interest you have in increasing participation in initiatives. Simultaneously you might take inventory of relationships to identify those that remain strong and those that have outlived your interest. On June 21 you experience the first Solar Eclipse of 2020 at 0 degrees of Cancer, a world point degree in your solar 6th House of schedules, nutrition, the daily environment, health, usual routines, pets, organizational skills, co-workers, attitude toward employment and how you approach managing responsibility. This eclipse brings to light both responsibility at your place of employment and the status of your family relationships and obligations - business vs. feelings. Based on what you learn, you may be ready to take the next steps. Stay in touch with your intuitive voice while you make choices. Live and learn. This eclipse is the last in Cancer in this series and stays current until December 14. The third lunar eclipse of your 2020 birthday occurs 2 weeks later with the cycle that begins with the July 5 eclipse at 13° vs 38' in Capricorn in your in your solar 12th House of healing, retreat, planning, intuition, meditation, mediation, hospital or patient visiting, recovery after illness or emotional setbacks, developing new perspectives and secrets. This is a powerful one for you if you have planets near or in aspect to 14 degrees of Capricorn and represents the last eclipse of the Capricorn-Cancer cycle, staying powerful until November 30. Joining the lineup of Jupiter, Saturn and Pluto in your 12th House, points out that security, family or health need attention and show the need to step out of the shadows to meet challenges that you have been avoiding. This group of planets affects the flow of life plans, pointing out blocks or redirecting the flow of activity. Embrace your choices and refine them, managing issues as they develop and healing relationships along the way. The last lunar eclipse of 2020 falls in Gemini at 8°138' in your solar 5th House of adventure, children, entertainment, risk-taking, romance, speculation and vacation. If you made changes last year that seemed drastic to observers, get ready to face evolving circumstances that could mean a new relationship, the addition of children, an interest in sports' venues and an accelerated social scene. After battling a long bout with procrastination, you're ready to fulfill your fondest dreams. Get ready for action and unanticipated surprises depending on where (which natal house) the eclipse occurs in your chart. Two weeks later on December 14th, 2020, the last solar eclipse that affects you during the current birthday cycle takes place in Sagittarius at 23°Ψ 08' in your 11th House of dreams, hopes, wishes, friends, associates, groups, employer's resources, leadership in organizations and humanitarian interests. Take the time to assess business relationships and advisors/professionals prominent in your life. This eclipse wraps up in May 2021. Whatever you started since the June eclipse gets a closer look now and leads to activity that helps you meet your goals. What have you discovered about preferences and values? Determine how your choices reflect a logical progression toward fulfillment. Celebrate breakthroughs. Material in this section may apply to those with Aquarius Ascendants and depicts the flow of activity in your natal chart.

PLANETS PLACES FROM JANUARY 20-FEBRUARY 18

The Chinese Year of the Rat begins on January 25, 2020 and ends on February 11, 2021. The energy of this lunar new year is also known as The Year of the Metal Rat or The Year of White Rat because metal is affiliated with the color white. The Rat is the first animal in the Chinese Zodiac. The year of the Rat is a Yang Metal year and commonly affiliates with a lively and emotional temperament. Those born this year are smart, optimistic, resourceful and face life with a positive attitude. Be sure to pay attention to your health and eat food that is not greasy to protect your liver and gallbladder. Lucky numbers are 2, 3, and 5. Rats are most compatible with Dragons and Monkeys. The lucky colors are gold, white, and blue; Rat energy affiliates with the 3rd Month; lucky flowers are rose, lily and orchid. This year concentrate on career and relationship status; romance comes to certain Rats based on astrological aspects.

Since Uranus went direct on January 12, no planet is retrograde during this cycle. An eclipse in Cancer on January 10 was followed by the much-touted Saturn-Pluto conjunction on January 12. During the current cycle, the Impeachment trial will take place. Expect the process to take some time, especially if decisions are made to allow testimony from witnesses; expect attempts to sabotage. Mercury began its Aquarian cycle on January 17 and zips through Aquarius by February 3 moving on to Pisces where it travels in conjunct aspect to lovely Venus in Pisces through February 7. Mercury turns retrograde in Pisces on February 16th and goes direct on March 9th. In its slowdown state, be sure to postpone signing important documents or starting new projects. Spend time wisely going over unfinished business, completing what you already started and return unanswered phone calls. Mercury cycles back into Aquarius before the retrograde ends. High tension between Venus and Mars in Sagittarius brings out disagreeable communication and squabbles especially from the 25th - 29th when Neptune in Pisces adds confusion, blocks action plans and tests relationships. Conversations on Valentine's Day between Venus in Aries and fiery Mars in Sagittarius add sparkle to the language of love and favor spontaneity. Mars leaves Sagittarius on the 17th moving into Capricorn to add earthy grounding to the impulsive planet. The action planet enjoys the energy with Uranus in Taurus but not the chaos associated with challenging upheavals. The first half of the month is positive for travel but pull back from it once Mercury shifts its motion. Patience pays off to get things right. Give your goals and plans a boost and make revisions now. Jupiter in Capricorn makes a favorable aspect to Neptune in Pisces in mid-February when these compatible planets support spiritual and personal ideologies and possibly cross-cultural business or creative projects. Globally you'll hear more about workable solutions, healing breaches, and security issues. Those born January 1-9, February 29-March 8, April 30-May 8, September 2-10 and November 2-10 experience favorable aspects while drama may be afoot for individuals born March 31-April 8, July 1-10, and October 3-11 who should carefully examine options, communication and carefully select dates for initiating new projects, marriage, surgery, travel and the scheduling of important meetings. Excellent Jupiter vibes prevail for February 15-23. Saturn travels in Capricorn during this cycle and is still in conjunct aspect to transiting Pluto. This month it most affects you if born January 13-17, April 11-16, July 14-19 or October 15-20. Those born March 12-17 benefit from the action. You may continue to witness shifts in power and structure especially related to government and countries of the world. Look at the U.K. where major changes are unfolding with Brexit and the family of the Queen. On a personal level, your life may be undergoing a rebuilding of those conditions that have fallen apart and need a fresh look to give you the level of security you desire. Sharp insight aids in solving long-standing problems and verifying facts when interpreting information. Purge high drama and tell the truth. Information flow grows stronger now and so does public opinion which is strong during February. Watch energy around the Leo Full Moon on February 9 and around February 7. Uranus went direct on January 10 on the same day as the Cancer Lunar eclipse, traveling in early Taurus degrees this month and spends the next 6 years in this sign, often hitting the same degree multiple times - it already has! Note how rapidly changes in government occurred. Examine your own life for evidence of quick shifts in financial agreements, unexpected expenses, systems replacements and news that came out of the blue about people and conditions. If you were born April 21-24, you'll feel the most impact from this transit now. Remember that no matter the sign, Uranus is the Great Disrupter. Examine your chart for clues. Note news about banking shifts, mergers, loan terms and leadership upheavals globally (U.S., Russia, U.K., Venezuela, Iran). Find the human perspective that heals wounds. Countries on the edge will heal more with diplomacy instead of force to settle disputes. Put people first. Personally make room for calming exercise, meditation, objective discussion and facts instead of spiteful exchanges.

Neptune (in Pisces until 2026) most affects those born March 5-8 this month highlighting the perfect time to take a break from confusion, self-deception and doubt. Depending on the location of natal Neptune in your chart and where this transit in Pisces flows, you have a chance to display spiritual, altruistic and mystical qualities. How delightful our world would be if we could embody an alternative mindset to eliminate rigid behavior patterns. The Universe benefits from reassuring perspectives in doling out compassion, caring for humanity and offering forgiveness. The conjunction with transiting Jupiter in Capricorn to Neptune most of this year brings a welcome release that uplifts those with who need help. Lighten and brighten the air you breathe. Pluto in Capricorn resides at the 23rd degree this month most affecting and challenging those born January 13-15 as well as other cardinal signs Aries (April 11-13), Cancer (July 14-16), and Libra (October 15-17). Wherever Pluto falls in your chart you have opportunities to release unwanted baggage; uncover the truth about people and events; complete karma; eliminate fears; cherish your inner strengths and regenerate life phases. You also have to keep an eye on your natal chart to determine which house Uranus the planet of chaos and sudden events is transiting if you are a Taurus, Leo, Scorpio or Leo. Stifle erratic behavior. Celebrate and enjoy the freedom this Pluto transit brings if you are ready to unload clinging baggage. Chiron is direct in Aries during this cycle and most affects those born March 21-24 who long for an awakened mind and conscious feelings as they inhale a deep healing vibe. Aries the brave can shed fear and replace it with assertiveness and self-confidence to release old lessons that have been challenging conditions in this lifetime. The Wounded Healer plays a vital role in helping you face the truth about people, places and conditions you met along the path. Obliterate any lingering grief that has accelerated life-long concerns and you will know the benefits of inner peace. If you were born with Chiron in Aries, this is your Chiron return so check the house where it resides in your natal chart to find the best solution for releasing stuck energy. Then, experience a return to better physical and mental health. Enjoy a loving, caring month!

PEOPLE, PLACES AND TOPICS IN THE NEWS

The main interest this month from readers are questions about the impeachment procedures. Many individuals do not understand how impeachment works. Here is the current status as of this writing. The Impeachment of Donald Trump, the 45th President of the United States, occurred on December 19, 2019, when the House of Representatives approved articles of impeachment on charges of abuse of power and obstruction of Congress over allegations that Trump unlawfully solicited Ukrainian authorities to influence the 2020 U.S. presidential election. After Impeachment by the House, the trial in the Senate began on January 16, 2020 and will resume on January 21. An impeachment trial is a legal proceeding at which people hear evidence relating to articles of impeachment, formal accusations against a public official. The articles of impeachment represent a series of charges which, if proved, can result in the official's removal from office. The impeached individual remains in office until a trial is held. That trial, and removal from office if convicted, is separate from the act of impeachment itself. In impeachment proceedings, a political process, the defendant does not risk forfeiture of life, liberty or property. Check historical and legislative sources, Wikipedia, and various media outlets for a deeper perspective.

The Acting Awards' season began early this year and is underway through the February 9th broadcast of the Oscar ceremonies; the announcement of Oscar nominations occurred on January 13. The early awards' broadcasts often set the tone for what is to come at the season finale reflecting the momentum, voting and wins of talented nominees. This year the Golden Globes Awards Ceremony took place on January 5; the Critics' Choice Awards on January 12. The Screen Actors Guild Awards ceremony took place on January 19 and Film Independent Spirit Awards broadcast occurs on February 8. If you're a film and TV fan you may have seen some outstanding performances in these arenas during 2019. One of the standout winners in the first three awards' shows was Joaquin Phoenix, Scorpio, who won best male actor for "Joker," a film that is getting acclaim from the critics. Meanwhile Aquarius Laura Dern won Best Supporting Actress in "Marriage Story" 3 times; Sagittarius Scarlett Johansson landed two Oscar nominations for the 2020 awards, Supporting Actress for "Jojo Rabbit" and Best Female Actor in "Marriage Story" while Sagittarius Brad Pitt took home Best Supporting Actor awards for "Once Upon A Time in Hollywood" at the Golden Globes (his first win), Critics' Choice and SAG Awards ceremonies; Renee Zellweger, Taurus, took home Best Actress Award for the first 3 ceremonies for "Judy." Congratulations to all. Look at this space next month in the Pisces Newsletter for Oscar highlights with a list of winners' and their sun signs.

READERS CORNER

Several readers wrote in to talk about the revolving door of romantic prospects last month's writer said she had in her life since 2018. A few individuals also had the same experience and found the tips helpful on how to better assess the potential partner for a long-term relationship. Certain readers want to know when a person will actually come into their lives. As an astrologer I can only suggest times to meet someone during a given year when romantic prospects are likely to appear, but I cannot manifest a new person for a client. It's up to you to make sure you change routines and pursue opportunities to meet potential partners. This month's problem comes from a man who wants to know how to have a better relationship with money and more prosperity in his life. If this material fits your current situation, I hope you, too, find these tips helpful.

Q. I am a single Aquarius born February 6 and want to make more money. I work for a decent company and have not been looking for a new job. I am not seeing anyone romantically and feel that my financial prospects are not where I want to be when I connect with a person I would marry. Relationships have been difficult in the past. I'm restless and feel like I need some type of attitude overhaul. I pay my bills but it seems like I never have anything left to put away or splurge on something I really want. What suggestions do you have for increasing my assets, having more money in my life and attracting prosperity? Is a new job that pays more the answer? Where do I start? Thank you for your help.

A. Thank you for writing. Your question is much more complex than I can discuss here and covers several areas of your life that need thorough examination, so I am going to stick with the prosperity aspect. You are an Aquarius born with the Moon in Libra, Mercury in Aquarius, Venus in Pisces opposite Saturn in Virgo and in hard aspect to Neptune in Sagittarius. This lineup tells some of the story on why you are not content at this phase of your life. One of the best things you can do for yourself is to have a complete interpretation of your natal chart and a look at the effect that planetary transits and eclipses are having on your evolving life patterns. Several themes you mention need analysis and insight.

Let's go back to the attitude overhaul you mentioned. You could benefit from a prosperity assessment which is much deeper than what is in your checkbook. It starts with you claiming ownership in the Wheel of Life and taking a realistic look at current reality in your daily environment - what are your goals and how many of them are you managing at this time? Do you assess them, note what facet of them you have accomplished, or get stuck in unfinished business? Have you addressed barriers that stand in your way such as thinking patterns, blocks, the level of self-esteem you possess, and the way you express yourself, using limiting words in your self-talk (I could never do that, I'm not talented in that area, maybe, I might). Before you can get on the Pathway to Prosperity, you have to identify possible barriers that keep you from elevating your prospects. Barriers start with lower level thinking patterns that determine who and what you are and include: negativity, gossip, blaming others for what doesn't work, early conditioning, distractions, the "buts," (I thought this was going to happen, but...), and low self-esteem. Many telltale signs exist when you own a poverty consciousness such as denial, excessive bargain hunting, cheapness (seldom giving, ignoring charities), hoarding, poor relationships that are unbalanced, lack healthy communications or reflect bad choices, fear, lying about money, destructive habits and addictions. This information is just a start to get you thinking about your next steps after you have examined various departments of your life and assessed what is your current truth. No, a new job is not the answer at this point. Answer as many of the questions I listed and contact me when you're ready to move forward. Best Wishes.

Thank you to all who sent in questions and comments about previous newsletters. I'm glad you enjoyed the issues and welcome your thoughts again.
