Cyber Threats: The porch pirates are back following delivery vans and looking for ways to score your purchases. They are getting bolder and show up in the middle of the day, often in teams. Other scams include stimulus check phone calls claiming more information is needed by the IRS to process your check. Just hang up and provide no information. The IRS will not call you to request personal information - they should already have it. Beware of malware that freezes your computer and never click on links that anyone sends you without your initiation of the process. Get out fast, click on nothing. Several scammers use URLs that are a typo away from legitimate websites and look for popular web addresses where users type one wrong letter and trick the user into thinking they are reaching the intended site. Close open documents, run your security check and reboot. Send other types of E-mails requesting your mailing address to SPAM. If you suspect someone is posing as a company you do business with, notify the company, and follow their security instructions. Safety first!

GEMINI and THE YEAR AHEAD: Happy Birthday, Gemini! This year you join the club of signs that are a part of the 2020-21 eclipse cycle along with your opposite sign, Sagittarius. Your Sun Sign rules the chest cavity, hands, arms and shoulders in the communication-oriented 3rd House of brothers, sisters, cousins and other relatives as well as neighbors, classes and workshops, communities, education, transportation (all forms including commuting, purchasing and repairing of vehicles and methods you choose for travel), media interests and networks, (phones, computers, faxes, Internet, social networks), writing and the diverse facets of your mind, especially how it works and the impact it has on your mental state. The 3rd house of the chart, regardless of Sun sign, describes your intellect, how you think, the way you converse with others or form creative relationships. Gemini's natural ruler is Mercury and its symbol is the Twins making you simultaneously an air and a mutable sign displaying Yin and Yang characteristics. Innate deductive skills help you analyze all types of problems while sharing your ideas with others. People love your charming sense of humor and the amazing amount of information you recall. You are extremely sociable and love to mingle and tell your stories letting the people-to-people contact recharge your batteries. When choosing a career, you prefer one with the flexibility to move around and become restless when you encounter tasks that take too long to complete. This year the Sun enters your sign on May 20 at 9:49 AM EDT and leaves on June 20 at 5:44 PM EDT.

Venus is retrograde in your sign, Gemini, through June 25. Sort out emotional issues and get in touch with your values as you examine situations that ask you to believe hype and put relationships at risk over changing world conditions. Mercury in Gemini is here as well in hard aspect to transiting Neptune in Pisces and cautions you not to jump to false conclusions over what you hear and how you can spend your money. Fat fibs flourish for a while. Jupiter advances in precision-oriented Capricorn moving through your solar 8th house of partnership resources, joint income, birth, sex, debt, wills, estates, investments, deep level processing, surgery and people connected with these matters. The planet of expansion stays here until December 20 giving you a chance to work on increasing prosperity via savvy investments, solid savings plans, raises in income, debt reduction, and organizing your financial records. Work with partners to manage holdings and discuss differences in spending habits and targeted priorities. Since your 8th House holds several transiting planets, I won't kid you and tell you the year will be a piece of cake; sometimes it will be push-pull and then you hit the jackpot. Some of you might pay off a mortgage or refinance. Congratulations to those of you who win awards, welcome the birth of a child, get engaged or marry. Enjoy the progress you are making on life goals. When Jupiter moves to Aquarius on December 20, you are in for a year that highlights the 9th house of the higher mind and long-distance travels, advanced degrees, philosophy, foreign cultures and languages and people at a distance. Stay aware of the possibility of schedule changes especially after the disruptive year you endured related to the Coronavirus restrictions. When in doubt, seek counsel from financial, legal, medical or real estate professionals. Toward the end of your sign cycle, Mercury in Cancer turns retrograde in your 2nd House of income and resources on June 18 EDT. Expect delays in finalizing plans or advancing projects. Mercury will turn direct on July 12. This year transiting Mars starts your birthday year in Pisces in your 10th House of career and ambition lending a creative aura to your projects and bringing attention to your analytical and creative side. Enjoy the added energy and feel the enthusiasm that sparks enthusiasm for your work and draws the attention of colleagues. Avoid hasty actions and decisions when Mars move to Aries on the 28th and then conflicts with Mercury on the 8th of July. Saturn is retrograde through September 29th in Capricorn in your solar 8th House of money you owe, joint income, debt and assets, sex, birth, death, estates, wills, psychological depth and matters worth probing for answers. Saturn actually changed signs briefly on March 22 when it moved to Aquarius in a teaser mode to let you know what is coming up in 2021; it affects only those born May 20-22 at this time in a harmonious way in your solar 9th House. The 8th house is one of the most prominent in your chart during this birthday cycle and covers both business and intimate partnerships including spouses, roommates, significant others, personal relationships, advisors, legal and medical professionals and collaborators. Saturn is eager to wrap up its time in Capricorn, allowing the pattern that began in late December 2017 to play out. It can seem intense when the demand for accomplishment seems to exceed the available hours. Collaborate with major players and make decisions that lead to valuable outcomes for you and your affiliates. Goals help the world go round and yours is never dull. With the company of Jupiter, Pluto and the last of the Capricorn eclipses in this house, it is the one to watch in 2020. This house represents joint income urging cooperation with your partners. Let go of debt - yours or that of another in your space. The goals you have created improve your space and add harmony and good health to your life despite restrictions in this unusual cycle. Shop for competitive interest rates if buying a new home or refinancing existing loans. Pick dates compatible to your chart when selecting settlement dates. Teamwork counts in monetary and professional partnerships. Enjoy a big Ah-Ha moment when it all falls into place. Uranus in Taurus most affects those of you born May 26-June 1 throughout your birthday cycle. When located in the 12th House, this provocative planet is itching for some action and longs to reveal secrets you've been sitting on and presents your innermost thoughts with a few challenges. If you aren't ready to speak up, Uranus could make you restless enough to spill the beans about what you really think of people, the affair you're having or how you plan to change your appearance. Those themes include private matters, psychic insight, holding back and retreating, healing your mind and body, secret enemies, hospital visiting, rehabilitation, secret enemies, widows, orphans and charities. You're still dropping outworn associations and developing new friendships or joining stimulating groups. Shake-ups in life affiliations may be erratic yet they give you peace of mind after exhausting conditions and frustration occur. Enjoy a breather from emotional drains and use the seclusion of the 12th House to recover from too much tension. Once you figure out what went wrong, you'll be glad you let go so you can focus on the future. Seek fulfilling relationships. You have more than 5 years to uncover deep feelings and visualize new plans and conditions you'll cherish. While Uranus moves through this house, just surround yourself with individuals you trust. Out with confrontations and on with inner peace. Using a personal journal to record findings, puts you in touch with current reality. Why not use this favorable time to contact your astrologer to sort out the essentials. Neptune in Pisces falls in your solar 10th House of authority, ambition, career matters and workplace-related relationships, interactions with those in charge, parents and family status as well as current goals. What is on your agenda? If you have been looking for a new job, desire a career change or are considering retirement, want more responsibility in your current position, or just want to quit your job, what is your next move? Those born June 7-15 experience the biggest shift while sorting out confusion. This transit creates a reality check if you have been in a fog over your career and life conditions. Gemini dukes it out with Pisces planets since the Neptunian energy is in strong conflict with the organized thought processes you prefer. You could find annoying circumstances at work that spell confusion and lead to erratic communication. The Coronavirus isolation may have helped you seek shelter from the foggy thinking that pervades your work space. You'll still want to talk out problems with others and perhaps use ZOOM and other methods to share ideas or hold meetings. Family matters seem a bit erratic with unsettled routines getting in the way of your socializing preferences. Find family activities suitable for all ages and share in the fun. Neptune has been in this house since 2011 identifying coping mechanisms to settle your work and family environment. Just because you are cooped up doesn't mean you can escape reality - research facts, seek solutions, and take appropriate next steps when answers are clear. Mercury in your chart helps you identify pending problems. Meditate and relax to calm your restless mind. You long for action and can't wait to hit the ground running. Enjoy dreams and take note of patterns and themes. Creative writing stems from a powerful Neptune transit. Enjoy work that drives your passion. Use your gifts of expression of the written and oral word to expand your portfolio. Neptune is retrograde from June 23-November 28, 2020. Pluto in Capricorn connects with Geminis born June 12-18 in your solar 8th House of finances, debt and money you owe, credit management, estate matters, joint assets, winnings, wills, sex, birth, death, regeneration, and psychological depth. This house has the most activity in the 2020 period with Pluto on Saturn and Jupiter along with the last Capricorn eclipse on July 5 that plays out until the end of the year. Pluto uncovers the deep, dark secrets of life and financial dealings and stirs up what is buried in your psyche. You are likely aware of the intensity that has been building here since 2008 and transforms much of your world. Compare notes with where you were 12-13 years ago as you slide into your 2020-2021 cycle. Pluto is the natural ruler of the 8th House and highlights what is ripe for dissolution, suggesting the changes you need gradually with a bit of organizational help from Saturn and a boost from Jupiter in Capricorn. Blasts from eclipses landing in this house have moved things along suddenly. Financial goals get acknowledgement from this transit and may include reducing debt, paying off mortgages, buying insurance, settling estates and making solid investments. Perhaps it is time to update your will or make one if you haven't done so. Don't let anything scare you, even if you feel vulnerable. Later born Geminis welcome babies into your lives and cherish them deeply. Any change you initiate will result in a positive growth cycle that seeds your future. Dissolve those tense personal relationships that have been cumbersome far too long. Heal the partnerships that are salvageable, savor the upbeat side that makes you laugh and enjoy camaraderie. Infuse your mindset with fun, humor and enjoyable experiences.

On June 21 you wrap up the energy from 2019's last eclipse which took place on December 26, a solar eclipse in your solar 8th House in Capricorn. This year 6 eclipses occur from January through December 2020. A full Moon eclipse in January 2020 fell in your solar 2nd House of income in Cancer at 20° and opened your eyes to the state of your assets, unplanned expenses, developmental opportunities and revenue streams including gifts and bonuses. How are you nurturing your savings accounts? What surprises led you to take inventory of your finances? A full Moon eclipse that occurs on June 5, 2020 registers during your Gemini birthday cycle in Sagittarius at 15° 34' in your solar 7th House of partners. This eclipse starts a new cycle with renewed energy occurring in Gemini in your solar 1st House later this year and another in Sagittarius on December 14. While in your 7th House, an eclipse calls attention to partnership matters in both personal and business arenas. If your love relationship needs attention, you'll get important clues that will open your eyes and lead to serious discussions. This one will affect you if you are born June 4-6 or have planets around 15 degrees of Sagittarius. The first Solar Eclipse of the year makes it debut on June 21 at 0° 21' and falls in your Solar 2nd House of assets, income, how you like to spend your money and what you do to enrich your life and develop your talent. This eclipse is right on the heels of the summer solstice and start of the Cancer cycle. It reflects the last Cancer eclipse in the current cycle and is also at a world point degree. It is especially significant if your birthday falls on that date or you have planets at 0° Cancer. Be on the lookout for wins, new job offers, a raise or unexpected opportunities. The third Full Moon eclipse of 2020 falls on July 5, in Capricorn at 13° 38' in that super busy 8th House of yours that relates to your jointly held funds, debts, sex, wills and inner worlds. This eclipse marks the end of the Capricorn-Cancer cycle of eclipses that have been around for the last two years. The emphasis is on joint funds and emphasizes paying down debt, refinancing a mortgage, consolidating mutual financial arrangements, merging accounts, managing a relative's estate or creating a will as part of your monetary plan for the year. Review accounting records and check for errors. Seek advice if you need a stronger retirement portfolio. This house will keep you busy through the end of 2020 as you apply innovative measures to increase your net worth. The fourth lunar eclipse of 2020 occurs in Gemini at 8° 38' in your solar 1st House of assertiveness, drive, health, innovation, passion and new beginnings on November 30. No doubt you'll have more communication than usual with neighbors and kin, stay extremely busy with social plans and stay on top of new enterprises that stretch your creative mind. If you're not writing, you'll be putting new projects together and looking for the right help to deliver an outstanding product. Many of you will focus on fitness, take better care of your body and entertain better nutrition habits. Coronavirus restrictions no doubt left you restless and itching to hit the great outdoors and break the nesting routine. Hang in there and stay healthy, allowing time to chill with amusing games and brain stretching exercises. Celebrate your successes as you use your special talent. Integrate inclusive plans while developing desired goals. The 6th eclipse of the year is a new moon eclipse that falls on December 14 in adventure-loving Sagittarius now influencing your solar 7th House of business and personal partners. Now is the time to discuss the state of your relationships and see what you can do to spice up the action as you emerge from the COVID-19 cocoon. Maybe one topic is the state of your finances, the desire for travel and fun or the fussiness that made you both a bit grouchy as you hunkered down to wait for the all-clear signal for resuming favorite activities. Don't let things fester, or the condition of either personal or business matters could deteriorate if you table discussions. Review plans for your future or consider a new direction at work that reflects your goals. Eclipses can bring a few surprises so scrutinize plans and examine the availability of funds to meet upcoming expenses. Find ways to maximize earning power in the year ahead. An eclipse in this position inspires you to nurture relationships and celebrate the wins in your life. Revisit collaboration opportunities if you are looking for a change or a headhunter if you want a new job. Be flexible and don't overlook any opportunities to celebrate the good times regardless of circumstances. Make change an adventure and turn difficult moments into winning solutions for all. Enjoy the enthusiastic high of your birthday year. Remember that these sections may also apply to those of you with Gemini on the Ascendant or those with multiple Gemini planets. Make dreams come true.

May 20-JUNE 20 PLANET ACTIVITY

Sky Patterns: As the Gemini cycle starts, note that one inner and three outer planets are retrograde; Venus in Gemini, and Jupiter and Pluto in Capricorn, and Saturn in Aquarius. Neptune will join them on June 23. Three of our outer planets are in earth signs: Jupiter and Pluto in Capricorn, and Uranus in Taurus. If you have followed the news, you have heard of numerous bankruptcies or firms on the brink of it such as Neiman Marcus, J.C. Penney, J. Crew and Pier One who announced the likelihood this week. Coronavirus has been mentioned as a big player that created heavy debt loads for small and large companies looking for alternative strategies to stay afloat. Relief can't come soon enough. Note the emphasis on the economy, along with the environment, health and security matters. Jupiter is briefly in early Aquarius and drops hints for what is to come in 2021. Vulnerability is a world-wide condition now as workers long to return to their jobs and resume earning power. Observers note the turmoil resulting from unfinished business. Mercury executes a rapid trip through Gemini that wraps up on May 29, before heading to Cancer where it goes retrograde on June 18. The early days of Gemini Sun are the best for a positive flow of action. When Mercury changes signs, the calm waters of Cancer can't erase the confusion over messages and the true meaning of confusing communication once the retrograde hits. You know what to expect when Mercury stations, so plan actions wisely and don't rush until you have checked important facts. Chose words wisely as they leave a strong impact that can be harmful in these sensitive times. Pay attention to emerging election campaign scenarios. Transiting outer planet Jupiter is retrograde in Capricorn during this cycle and covers 25-27 degrees of the sign, affecting Capricorns born January 15-19. Currently Jupiter affects these degrees of Aries, Cancer and Libra and challenges your cherished plans, desire for movement and ambition. Those of you born with planets at 25-27 degrees of

Taurus, Virgo, Scorpio and Pisces get a boost in energy and attention from supporters. A positive Jupiter transit favors purchasing big ticket items like vehicles, homes, jewelry, furnishings or vacations. Please wear your mask if you visit these vendors. Check with your astrologer before signing important papers or dealing with legal matters. Be sure to have a medical checkup and pay attention to any changes in health conditions that affect internal bodily functions and discuss growths or known changes before scheduling surgery. Saturn slipped into Aquarius briefly in March and went retrograde on May 11 EDT, most affecting Aquarians born January 20-22, Leos born July 22-24, and Scorpions born October 2-24. Check where you may have planets at 0-1 degree of Aquarius. This period may be blissful if you are born March 19-21, May 20-22, or September 22-24. Assess troubled areas where you feel constraints and find balance by seeking workable solutions that bring peace of mind. Sign documents on favorable days. You could experience financial windfalls or creative applause from either a sextile or a trine aspect. Areas of responsibility tied to karma reflect the true meaning of this planet in transit. Open your eyes to see more clearly where you have been blocked; this retrograde period helps you align with the truth. Effectiveness leads to successful outcomes. Uranus in Taurus, a fixed sign travels to 8-9 degrees of the sign in forward motion most affecting Taurus born April 27-29 this month. Also affected beneficially are earth signs Capricorn born December 29-31 and Virgo born August 30-September 1 who experience a nice trine aspect that stimulates prosperity, abundance or unexpected benefits. Additional fixed signs undergoing a challenge with this transit are Leo born July 31-August 2, Scorpio born October 31-November 2 and Aquarius born January 27-30. These signs face conditions that upend their world and do so unexpectedly with little or no warning. Life takes unplanned turns over the next two months. Meditate, stay calm and study stressful conditions responsibly. Uranus transits affect weather patterns (think hurricanes, tsunamis, tornados, earthquakes, volcanic eruptions, lightning and thunderstorms) that produce flooding and structural damage, and fires, plane or train crashes and threatening war games (North Korea, South Korea, Iran, China, Afghanistan, the U.S., Syria, and Israel) that affect the lives of citizens in the US and abroad. Uranus is in an 84-year cycle since it began its journey in Taurus. The impact is already hitting the economy, key finances, values, market stability, work conditions and unstable global relations. Watch those countries with strong Taurus placements - they will be making the news. Neptune in Pisces goes retrograde on June 23 and stays retrograde until November 28. The planet joins the Suns of Pisces born March 9-11. Anticipate shifts that draw you to spiritual concepts, romance and an appreciation of all things beautiful and orderly. Simultaneously keep your eyes and ears out for false information, deceptive behavior, weak promises, flowery speeches and trickery that pop up everywhere. What triggers mental confusion that accompanies this planet's long shift? Benefits come to those born July 11-13, November 11-13, January 10-12 and May 9-11, the water and earth signs, Cancer, Scorpio, Capricorn and Taurus. Individuals born June 9-11, September 11-13, and December 11-13 address challenges brought on by a hard square aspect. Neptune aspects the Moon on June 18 and may give you a boost of confidence. Avoid confusion from sources that send careless, spontaneous messages that erode trust. Watch communication related to deception on the 22nd. We will hear more about how individuals have experienced the Coronavirus and went undetected or unreported. The day before, Keep your distance from pontificators who spin unbelievable stories, con artists, schemers, chronic liars and slick salespeople. Take advantage of Neptune's love of harmony and ask for facts and proof to expand your knowledge of current reality. Spend time with your romantic partner or bosom buddies after mid-June. Pluto is in retrograde motion during this cycle and creeps along in Capricorn on the Suns of members of this sign born at the 24th degree approximately January 14-16. The Pluto aspects align positively with transiting Jupiter in Capricorn and Neptune in Pisces, and to some extent, offset some of the negative vibes of the upcoming eclipses that show up 2 weeks apart, especially the one on June 5 that opposes the Gemini Sun. The world point degree of the June 21st Solar Eclipse at 0 degrees heralds changes in critical matters and tough choices for leaders who really have to find a way to comfort humanity. It begs us to focus on family and our home. Meanwhile Pluto urges us to find new solutions to transform ideas and behavior. On a personal level, find ways to shed old baggage through clear plans and careful execution. Set priorities with optimism and treat others with kindness and compassion. Revisit your wish list and start the ball rolling. Be courteous as you include others, pay generous deeds forward, and demonstrate positive thinking. Aries, Cancer and Libra with planets at 24 degrees also feel the depth of this transit as it slowly stirs up information from the subconscious while prompting a strong wake-up call. If you're an earth sign, Capricorn, Taurus or Virgo with planets at this degree, you receive assistance for cherished goals in the midst of releasing stuck beliefs. Examine what is on the world stage and challenge mixed messages or disclosures that don't ring true. Stay tuned to what is coming during the summer eclipse activity in June and July, particularly national and local politics and conditions. Walk in integrity always. Get ready! Chiron in Aries is direct at 8-9 degrees and most affects those born March 27-29. Discover your truth and deeply integrate it for complete inner healing. You can eliminate painful memories while you free your mind from emotional clutter that bogs you down in fear and has origins in your past. Let go of anger that has piled up and needs a release. Erase the board and start living. Be sure to note the house where Chiron is transiting in your chart; this is important in 2020-21. In which house does natal Chiron reside? If any aspects occur with transiting and natal Chiron, you will get a strong wake-up call. Know that it will set you free. Ask for help, weigh options and release pain including fear of the Coronavirus. While you're healing, plan and schedule favorite summer activities that include flexible, family fun, cherished gatherings and relaxing vacations.

PEOPLE, PLACES, EVENTS, AND TOPICS IN THE NEWS

Readers' concerns for the Coronavirus Pandemic lead the questions this month. See the Taurus Newsletter for comments regarding the astrological impact we can expect in the coming year. As of this writing, even though some of the restrictions may have been lifted, we will have to rely on prevailing conditions in our local area that call for wearing face masks, social distancing and seeking medical advice from trusted practitioners, often via Telehealth conferences. Many of you enjoyed learning about Dr. Fauci, whose visibility is less prominent at this time. Steer clear of scams advertising masks or products whose effectiveness may not hold up. We don't have a cure yet. Not enough citizens have been tested and some areas of the country (and world) are not interested in testing, while others are looking for ways to get as many citizens tested as possible. Steer clear of places where you may be vulnerable, especially if you are young, are battling poor health conditions or are among the elderly. Invest in the future for the greater good of the country by staying safe, washing your hands and treating others with loving kindness.

American Idol: Concluded ABC's Season 3 (18 seasons total) on May 17 with winner Sagittarius (born November 23) Samantha Diaz (Just Sam) known as the subway singer from Harlem New York, beating Scorpio (October 24) Arthur Gunn, a singer and songwriter born in Kathmandu, Nepal and residing in Wichita, Kansas, with his family. Arthur was the runner-up in the virtual competition that was rerouted compliments of the Coronavirus pandemic to all the finalists' homes so that viewers could vote after seeing more personal facets of the performers' styles. Congratulations to Just Sam, Arthur and to all who competed to the final 5 slots: Louis Knight, Dillon James and Jonny West; Julia Gargano and Francisco Martin were cut from the final 7. These performers and several finalists are destined for success. What a finale with the AI family and finalists singing "We Are The World," a song with universal appeal at this time as the Coronavirus has spread to every corner of the world. AI has been renewed for ABC season 4. Stay tuned to see whether auditions will be live or virtual.

Little Richard (Richard Wayne Penniman): This influential and talented American singer, songwriter and musician was born December 5, a Sagittarius, in Macon, GA. His music career began at age 14 in 1947 and his famous genres included rock and roll, rhythm and blues, gospel, and blues. He had the chart of one who thrives on individuality whether it is in the range of his voice or attention-drawing costumes. Creative and artistic license drove facets of his planetary connections with Moon in Pisces, Uranus in Aries a Black Moon/Chiron conjunction (overcoming criticism, rejection from parents and peers, and taunting as a child), Venus in Scorpio, and a Mercury/Sun conjunction in Sagittarius. Little Richard's cause of death was attributed to cancer and his chart shows the current transits of Saturn and Pluto in Capricorn opposing his natal Pluto (end of matters, transformation) making aspect on the day of his death, May 9. Rest in peace.

READERS' CORNER

Thank you for the abundant questions and comments you sent during the past month. Several readers commented on the woman whose parents gave her generous money gifts to fund her wedding and asked to add 5 extra couples to the guest list (well-known to the bride throughout her life). Her fiancé felt they were interfering with the guest list and objected. Readers thought he was being unnecessarily picky. This month I am addressing general questions you have submitted. I hope you enjoy the information. I appreciate your interest in astrology solutions. Here is this month's offering.

Q. Can you tell me which signs are known for going gray prematurely. My friend seems to think you talked about this in a seminar some years ago. Thank you for your insight.

A. As a rule the signs whose members seem to sport gray hair prematurely are members of air (Gemini, Libra and Aquarius) and mutable signs (Gemini, Virgo Sagittarius and Pisces). Water (Cancer and Scorpio) and Earth (Taurus and Capricorn) signs have slower graying rates. Some research suggests a connection between premature graying and lower bone density later in life while thyroid deficiencies are cited by others. Genetic predisposition might also be a factor, especially if these signs are prominent in your family. Stress and smoking have been known to expedite aging due to oxidative damage that accelerates graying hair. Sometimes a shock leaves an individual with a streak of white or a whole head that loses its color - it may be temporary or permanent. I am addressing the astrological influence in this section. If you are a Gemini with a Pisces Ascendant, you might have gray hair in your 20's; likewise, an Aquarius with a Virgo Ascendant might go gray in the mid-30's, an early age for most Americans. A Scorpio with a Capricorn Ascendant may still have most of their own hair color even after reaching age 70. Your friend was correct; I did discuss graying hair in both classes and seminars some years ago. The audiences asked questions about different sign types and Ascendant combinations. Quality hair color hides the gray strands and is easy to apply for do-it-yourselfers as well as your favorite colorist. Perhaps you are a big fan of someone who looks like a silver fox. They have been known to find silver hair on their heads as early as their teen years. If you're going for a distinguished look, leave it alone and enjoy the sophistication! Thanks for writing.

Thank you to all who sent in questions and comments about earlier newsletters. I appreciate your feedback on the Taurus issue and welcome your thoughts on this one. This newsletter appears on Facebook and on my Word Press website astrologyondemand.com.
