

VIRGO 2022 NEWSLETTER Compliments of Alice DeVille

The 5th day of September, which honors America's workers on our annual Labor Day celebration, falls on a Monday. Most students across the nation begin the school year the next day, however this year, in some districts, schedules may be revised due to the lingering Coronavirus impact. Many schools open in August, in Florida starting on the 8th. COVID-19 vaccines and masks are mandatory in most states for school age children to combat new strains of COVID. This month the new Moon in Virgo squares Mars in Gemini on the 27th accelerating mental energy, and creating irritation that blocks the concentration of Virgo, the second Mercury-ruled sign of the zodiac. The long holiday weekend celebrates the American labor movement honoring those in the workforce who make contributions to our Nation's prosperity. Relax while acknowledging success in work accomplishments. Virgos enjoy parties, so treat your favorite Virgo to a tantalizing feast of fresh, tasty foods, seafood, chicken, and a delicious summer drink. Don't forget the chocolate cake and sparkling candles. Restaurant meals are an option if your Virgo agrees; otherwise, order takeout from Virgo's favorite eatery. Touch Virgo's heart with a sentimental card, a personal message, and a toast when you present Virgo with the perfect gift from your honoree's wish list.

Important Dates

September 5: Labor Day in U.S., Labour Day in Canada
September 11: Twenty-first Anniversary of 9/11; Patriot Day
September 11: Grandparents' Day
September 22: Autumn Begins, Fall Equinox 9:04 PM

ANNOUNCEMENTS: Happy birthday to JB, NS and MB; happy anniversary to M&P. Thank you for your kind thoughts and wishes for my daughter, Allie, who continues to manage two rare cancers. Pick up your copies of the 2023 Llewellyn Sun Sign Book, and 2023 calendars at your favorite book seller or purchase directly from www.llewellyn.com or amazon.com. Winner of the July client drawing was CJ; August's drawing will be for a $15 gift certificate to apply to your next consultation. Book a one-hour or more consultation to be eligible for the September drawing.

Security: A reality is that individuals around the neighborhoods are leaving their vehicles unlocked resulting in an uptick of incidences of car robberies where cash, packages, and personal information is being taken. Vehicles are on personal residence driveways and in front of the houses. Some vehicles are locked, and the thieves break into them and take anything of value including IDs and tools. Protect yourself by reporting these incidents to both the police and your neighborhood watch group. Fake “real estate agents” are calling residents of many neighborhoods supposedly in response to an ad you posted to sell your home. They are trolling for information. Hang up and don’t divulge information when you know your home is not for sale.

VIRGO’S BIRTHDAY HIGHLIGHTS

Happy Birthday, Virgo! You are the second Mercury-led sign (Mercury also rules Gemini) but the only one who has rulership over the 6th house of work, daily environments and routines, health consciousness, medical advice, colleagues, alternative medicine, workouts, nutrition, certain medications, herbs, spices, your kitchen’s utility, pets the size of dogs or smaller, vitamins, efficiency of output, body workers, and assimilation of facts and information. Virgo rules the bowels and intestines; digestion issues are often a recurring problem. While some Virgos are hypochondriacs, pop vitamins excessively, or can be extreme germaphobes most of you understand the need to practice healthy habits, especially during this time of virus vigilance, since Monkey Pox and Polio have recently been added to the list. Irritating people or life conditions that get on your nerves won’t disrupt you for very long, especially if you dislike what transpires. You’ll go find a solution. A Virgo or an individual with well-placed planets in the 6th House usually thrives on work designed to organize practices or edit materials, often revising the operating guidelines so work flows more efficiently. Mercury drives your mental state attracting you to employment in communication-oriented careers, fact-finding and research firms, libraries, think tanks, body working, health fields, publications (writing, editing, journalism and collaborative ventures), problem-solving or administrative support roles. Virgos enjoy taking charge and looking for whatever needs attention, using systems that keep them on top of work and social scheduling. Often, you prefer to work alone to keep things rolling behind the scenes. You make excellent consultants or freelance writers. You might be the Virgo that excels at space management and design. Others in your sign prefer healing modalities, massage, nursing, x-ray technician fields and veterinary medicine. Whether you prefer to create lots of salads or other light fare, a full banquet, or family feasts, your culinary skills are on par with the best cooks, and you keep the nutritional value of food in mind when you prepare meals. Many a Virgo aspires to own a restaurant or catering firm. A plus is that your sign understands planning processes and thrives on using them for daily balance. One of your most active houses this year is your solar 7th house of business and personal partners. Jupiter was moving through this house as the year started, moved quickly into Aries, slid backward in motion due to retrograde motion, and will go back into Pisces after the retrograde that slowed Jupiter’s plans ends. Although known for preferring an orderly environment, certain Virgos use creative avoidance to detach from messy domestic chores like cleaning the house, the oven, washing windows, and scrubbing toilets. If the work environment leaves you exhausted, hire a cleaning service so you can spend down time relaxing with loved ones. This year the Sun enters your sign on August 22 at 11:16 PM EDT and leaves on September 22 at 9:04 PM EDT.

Your birthday year starts out with Mercury on the brink of leaving Virgo in your solar 1st house of adventure, attitude, independence, invention, passion, and self-image. Within a few days, Mercury moves to your second house of income in

Libra and turns retrograde on September 9 where it stays until October 2. Many of you are keeping a close eye on the price of food, gasoline, household purchases, and the price of luxury items. If your income stream has changed for the better as a result of roaring inflation, you'll welcome and use a salary increase or a bonus. Take a look at what projects you begin; don't sign off while Mercury is retrograde. Talk through any concerns with your spouse or financial advisor and remain flexible to accommodate changes as they arise. Jupiter started the year off in Pisces on January 1 in your 7th House of personal and business partners and moved into Aries by May 10th making fast tracks in your 8th house until shifting retrograde on July 28 and heading back into Pisces on October 28 before finishing its cycle on December 20. Jupiter resumes its journey in Aries on that date and focuses on your attention on joint income and debt in 2023. World events and work place changes may have altered the way you perform your work. Learn new collaboration techniques and use media effectively to streamline communication. Adapt to a new work schedule, travel, or a job shift that covers most of your birthday year. Choose enjoyable entertainment venues for the entire family. Saturn in Aquarius is in year two of its 2-1/2-year cycle and occupies your 6th House of everyday routines, fitness, health, nutrition, organization, pets, work, and team members. Saturn is currently retrograde until October 23, possibly delaying the launching of important initiatives or having to rethink personal or business plans. It is best that you recheck important documents or loan papers to make sure everything is in order. You'll feel the pressure of the inconjunct aspect to your sun this year if born September 3-18 that pushes you to adjust the flow and pace of your work and examine facets of it that need revision. Guard your health, too, if you are ignoring signs of exhaustion. Schedule check-ups and spend free time on recreation you enjoy. Embrace the humanitarian side of decisions and the Aquarian energy that is present while you implement major environmental and work improvements. Keep plans flexible. Address the tension by implementing new mental health practices. Unpredictable Uranus is compatibly based in security-oriented Taurus and connects compatibly with Virgos born September 2-12 in your solar 9th House of long-distance travel, higher education, spiritual interests, foreigners and their cultures, in-laws, politics, journalism and career moves. Although you may have been ready to travel again and hoped for smoother transitions in studies and publishing, sudden changes materialize making it impossible to control schedules or outcomes. Evaluate the strength of both professional or long-distance relationships. These contacts may include your in-laws, members of the clergy, attorneys, foreigners, medical professionals, instructors or teachers, politicians, and publishers. Study the disruptions related to moves, long-distance travel, medical procedures, higher education, and publication of materials. Modify due dates and confer with key individuals to discuss details and work out adjustments. As a discriminating Virgo, look for information based on fact. Table the cruise or long-distance vacation until economic conditions stabilize or fewer flights get canceled. Study conditions in countries you plan to visit. Prepare for unexpected visits from those at a distance. Help those whose homes sustained fire or storm damage. Some of you may complete a graduate degree or enroll in an online certificate program. Ask for a raise or accept a transfer to a different duty station. Your network likely supports a job offer. Seek an expert's help to assess options. Save extra cash to prepare for a financially secure future. Uranus is retrograde from August 24, 2022-January 22, 2023. Neptune in Pisces contacts your Virgo Sun via the opposition through the end of your 2022 birthday cycle in your solar 7th House of both business and personal partners, the public, marriage and roommate alliances, and cooperative ventures especially if you were born September 12-18. If you are looking for a romantic mate, you may find that many potential partners find you attractive this year. Check for compatibility as you get to know the new person. A comparison analysis of your natal charts may give you the answers you seek. Sometimes Neptune can be the trickster and blinds you to the truth about another's character. Ask key questions and question discrepancies if you are uneasy about information exchanges. Look at partners in your work life as well to determine suitability if you're considering a long-term collaboration or hiring staff. If you rent space in your home, examine natal charts, check credit, and make sure the potential renter is paying bills. A number of individuals report that they are having trouble collecting rent from the leases they cut. Romance is warm and affectionate when compatible with Neptune in the 7th House. Find the right partner and you'll know what true fulfillment can be. Give romance a chance without being too critical of your love interest. Cherish and know another's mind set. Consider another's feelings and hopefully your attitude and understanding will bring happiness to your door. Sidestep Neptune's foggy thinking pattern to block negative energy that creates confusion. Build trust, reach out, and make room for others in your life. Visualize your fondest dream. Work with advisors and mentors who demonstrate honesty and integrity. Neptune in Pisces goes retrograde from June 28 through December 3 in 2022 and remains active in your solar 7th house until 2025. Pluto in Capricorn is in your solar 5th House of amusements, children, competition, dating, risk-taking, speculation, social and romantic life, sports, outdoor activity, and vacation destinations and resonates strongly with Virgos born September 17-22 through the next 12 months of your birthday cycle. Work on eliminating fears, phobias, and old baggage that cramp your style. Embrace new pathways to use greater personal power. Pluto is in a positive trine aspect to your Sun if you are born on the above dates and helps you discover a loving, more enjoyable, passionate life. Pluto in Capricorn has been here in your house of social opportunities since 2008 moving through it slowly but firmly to stimulate you toward making meaningful change. Undoubtedly, your social life and activities planned with children, friends, and romantic interests have undergone modification in the past few years due to the Pandemic and feelings of insecurity. Look optimistically toward the future. You'll discover that Pluto is pushing you to be more creative in finding balance and fun in your life, something that can be a challenge for work-oriented Virgos. Enjoy much-deserved down time and celebrate life. The 5th house represents creativity, play, and social opportunities. Stay in touch with friends and relatives in diverse parts of the country and the world. Send positive, caring thoughts to professional contacts and loved ones as you show appreciation for relationships. If you're in a close romantic relationship, you could get engaged, marry, or bond more intensely with your significant other during this birthday year. Lose the fear of commitment and trust the one you love. Work on challenging conditions that affect children, those you date, students, travel companions, and teammates. Do damage control on lingering sore spots related to children and lovers. Make sure what you say is not taken for indifference. Praise the shift in attitude you notice and help love grow. Retrograde since April 29, Pluto goes direct on October 8. Pluto stays present through 2025, encouraging you to lighten your mind and heart and create new adventures while discovering traits to treasure about yourself and others.

Eclipses create opportunities in the houses or departments of life in which they occur. This year's eclipses affect you as follows: two lunar and two solar eclipses take place in 2022. The signs, Taurus and Scorpio are prominent through the end of 2022. The year's eclipses highlight several of your solar houses in this order: 9th, 3rd, 3rd, and 9th houses. You experience major emphasis related to higher learning, in-laws, travel (9th); communication, education, neighbors, transportation (3rd) in 2022. In 2023, a solar eclipse in Aries at 29° 50' on April 20, a new sign, shows up in your solar 8th house and represents joint income, debt, and savings (8th). The first lunar eclipse of the year occurs on May 5 in Scorpio, 14° 58' in your solar third house, the final eclipse before your birthday cycle ends and deals with communication, education, neighbors, transportation (3rd). Note whether any natal planets match the degree of an eclipse, and you'll have insight into how your chart manages the activity. The first solar eclipse of 2022 occurred in Taurus on April 30 in your solar ninth house and plays out until November 8 affecting long-distance travel, higher mind and education, foreigners, religion, and in-laws. On May 16, 2022, the year's first lunar eclipse occurred in Scorpio at 25° 18' in your solar third house of communication, your neighborhood, siblings, your mind, electronics, and transportation where it remains prominent until October 25. How are you getting along with family? What goals are in alignment? Assess if there are any areas of communication that need attention. Do you have trouble making yourself understood with any neighbors, relatives, community authorities, or IT professionals? If so, meet with key individuals and discuss differences. Upgrade equipment to streamline work practices. The final solar eclipse of 2022 takes place in your third house on October 25 in Scorpio at 2° 00'. Determine what changes have occurred since the May 16 eclipse and consider the outcome of newly implemented practices and integration of new technology. Take each win as a sign that communication is improving at a deeper level. The final lunar eclipse of 2022 falls your solar ninth house in Taurus at 16° 01' on November 8. This one affects your higher mind, educational advancement, foreign languages and culture, long-distance travel or moves, and plays out through the end of 2023. Uranus in Taurus is also traveling in your 9th house and corresponds with teaching, writing, publishing, and visits from those at a distance including in-laws or exchange students. You'll receive surprise visits and phone calls when you least expect them. Sudden business trips are likely as well as activities that involve relatives or co-workers at a distance. Certain Virgos may move. If any family members have been ill, reach out to see what you can do to alleviate extra stress. Suggest coping mechanisms and a workable routine with medical professionals. Maintain flexibility. For those of you with younger children, make safety and predictable schedules a high priority for maintaining good health and make sure they have mandatory vaccinations. Stay confident as you tackle new responsibilities. Revise plans to make desired progress. Enjoy the life-changing shifts these eclipses bring to heal pain, find happiness, and solve predicaments. This section may apply if your Ascendant or Rising Sign is in Virgo, or you have multiple planets in the signs mentioned.

Famous Virgos include: Adam Sandler, River Phoenix, Hugh Grant, Amy Irving, Kobe Bryant, Rick Springfield, Melissa McCarthy, Steve Guttenberg, Dave Chappelle, Billy Ray Cyrus, Claudia Schiffer, Sean Connery, Rupert Grint, Chad Michael Murray, Jack Black, Regis Philbin, Gene Simmons, Rachel Bilson, Elvis Costello, Macaulay Culkin, Sarah Chalke, Paul Reubens, Jason Priestly, LeAnn Rimes, David Arquette, Pink, Colin Firth, Shania Twain, Michael Jackson, Cameron Diaz, Van Morrison, Joan Jett, Faith Hill, Pink, Richard Gere, Gloria Estefan, Mark Harmon, Lily Tomlin, Keanu Reeves, Charlie Sheen, Jada Pinkett Smith, Freddie Mercury, Marc Anthony, Guy Richie,

The Virgo cycle begins with Mercury direct in Virgo until August 27 when it heads to Libra and then turns retrograde on September 9 remains in Libra for the rest of this cycle turning direct in Virgo on October 2. The mission of the Messenger of the Gods is to hold you accountable for providing accurate communication and responsiveness toward those who seek information and want helpful answers. Mercury in Libra engages with others using loads of charm, along with tact and diplomacy to discuss sensitive subjects. Venus starts out in debonair Leo showing grace, charm, and an outgoing nature that compliments social interactions. On the 6th Venus goes to Virgo and demonstrates a calm, practical, and stable air for the rest of Virgo's cycle. Labor Day offers a compatible link between Mercury and Mars that has just the right amount of passion to make conversation cordial and warm at holiday events. Just as you begin to build confidence in a new relationship, Mercury goes retrograde and gives you the gift of time to ponder feelings. Watch a romantic movie or a comedy on the 11th when Mars in Gemini shows its playful side and remains in Gemini for the rest of the month assuring you that you'll be talking, writing or teaching, maybe even playing a few games to test mental agility. Spend time organizing cabinets and closets and get a donation together for a favorite charity. Take a course in using the Air Fryer, one of the latest tools that cuts down on food prep time. If you supervise a team, improve the flow of communication with employees who work from remote locations, approximately 30 percent of the workforce. Jupiter left Pisces in May moved on to Aries where it turned retrograde in July and continues in reverse motion all of September. It will be back in Pisces later this year to finish out its tour in the mystical sign. Those most affected by this month's transit in Aries are Aries born March 24-28, Aquarius born January 24-28, Gemini born May 25-29, and Sagittarius born November 27-30. Check the house where Jupiter transits your chart. Dealings include career advancement, rapport with bosses, authority figures, family members, organizational structures and mentors. Contacts will be challenging for Taurus, Cancer, Leo, Virgo, Libra, and Scorpio with the sun or other planets at 4-7 degrees of their signs. Challenges may affect the flow of personal circumstances or the compatibility of business relationships. Where does Aries fall in your chart? Check for planets at these degrees. Manage business and personal plans judiciously. With the surge in prices of goods and services, look for ways to cut back on unnecessary purchases. Utility prices will go up considerably. Saturn in Aquarius is retrograde until October 23, 2022. Currently Saturn challenges Aquarians born February 7-11 as well as Taurus born May 9-12, Leo born August 11-15, and Scorpio born November 11-15. If you find planets at 19-21 degrees of the following signs, your plans progress and you may experience a successful, prosperous period: Aries, Gemini, Libra, and Sagittarius born with these degrees. Feel the power as you experience career and relationship growth. While Saturn is in strong aspect to your Sun take a close look at circumstances that influence work, money, legal matters, and various aspects of your health including energy, vision, calves, bones or dental work. Uranus in Taurus stations at 18 degrees on August 24 and visits the Suns of those born May 8-10. Uranus stays retrograde until January 23, 2023. Check your natal chart for fixed planets at 18 degrees which can shake things up by creating disruptions, delays, unexpected anger outbursts, harsh communication, sudden moves, or lead to impulsive decisions. The fixed signs Leo, Scorpio, and Aquarius with this important degree are likely to encounter volatile conditions and it will come up more than once over the next year. Those with planets in Capricorn, Cancer, Virgo and Pisces at 14 degrees may benefit from positive experiences via implementation of plans, a windfall in the form of money or prizes, meeting new acquaintances, reunions with old friends or relatives, especially under unanticipated conditions. Be aware of the New Moon square Mars on the 27th and the square between Venus and Uranus that lead to mood shifts and insecurity. By Sunday everything changes when a Grand Trine in earth signs occurs between the Moon, Uranus, and Pluto and gives you a creative vision for change. Hold that thought and wait until you get back to work and scope out a plan—no rush—before implementing. When Uranus trines Venus on the 14th, love gets a big lift. By the end of the week storm clouds can roll in to change your plans. Read the tea leaves if you suspect someone is in a snit. Currently, Neptune is retrograde in Pisces at 24-23 degrees and will not go direct until December 3. Check your chart to locate planets or points in Pisces at this degree; the house where Pisces resides shows what type of activity may headed your way. If Neptune is near your Sun, Ascendant, a planet or a house cusp, assess why you may be feeling overwhelmed, confused or jittery. That is Neptune sending a little anxiety your way. This month Neptune affects those born March 13-16. Others dealing with questionable truths or blocks include Virgos, Geminis and Sagittarians with planets at 23-24 degrees. Feeling apprehensive? Examine fears and identify anxieties you're clinging to, especially if you're unsure of the relationship you have with yourself or others close to you. For the big AH-HA that exposes the truth via the Big Picture, clarify areas of confusion. Individuals born with planets at these degrees of Cancer, Scorpio, Capricorn or Taurus benefit from this transit by creating opportunities for personal and professional growth. Authorities at work recognize your accomplishments and reward you in the form of bonuses, raises or promotions. Enter a lottery, take a chance, or play the slot machines. Retrograde Pluto moves through Capricorn in harmonious aspect to Neptune on the Sun of members of the sign born January 16-18 at 26 degrees of the sign; those with an Ascendant at that point or other key planets may feel the vibes, too. The rest of the signs should look at any planets or houses where you have this degree opposing or squaring Capricorn, especially Cancer, Aries, and Libra who may be undergoing health, relationship, career, real estate, and financial challenges that are both subtle and intense in nature. Taurus, Virgo, Pisces and Scorpio benefit from positive vibes from the trine or sextile to the Sun or other planets. Pluto is the dwarf planet that works by channeling the karma cleaners to help you let go of all the old internal garbage. What stale conditions still dog you? Gather them up, grab the trash bags, dump the troubles, and you'll eliminate pain, misunderstandings, and jarring communication while you start to build good will. When Pluto makes contact in your chart, conditions undergo transformation in the house where Pluto transits. What situations need your personal attention? Pluto is moving to the end of its cycle in Capricorn in the next two years, moving slowly but deliberately to craft a new outlook. Watch how circumstances unfold and make note of what you are eliminating through the end of the year. Chiron, the Wounded Healer is retrograde in Aries at 15-14 degrees of the sign most affecting Aries born April 4-6. Where is that pain coming from? Examine your heart and notice the palpitations you're experiencing. Do you know what is actually eating you? Where did these vague feelings come from and why are you stuck? Heal areas where you feel suppressed or sad by acknowledging them. Use a variety of modalities: yoga, meditation, relaxation responses, visualization techniques, dancing, walking, and quiet escapes to reflect on issues. Saturn in Aquarius travels compatibly with Chiron now giving you the courage to explore blocks and emphasize the need to heal in the remaining months of 2022 and into 2023. Discover what will add impact and discovery to your daily routine.

PEOPLE, PLACES AND TOPICS IN THE NEWS

A number of readers who responded to this section asked about the chart of President Joe Biden and wonder if there are any aspects that have made it possible to have so many executive orders passed and changes that are designed to help citizens - $3.5 million bi-partisan infrastructure package, economy related to inflation and consumer goods, health care, wages, environment, immigration, policy on oil and gas, taxes, American Rescue Plan, foreign policy, mobilization of 30 NATO nations to oppose Putin's aggression against Ukraine, COVID-19 relief initiatives, 8.3 million jobs have been created since the President took office and more are imminent, the unemployment rate is only 3.6, and the U.S. returned to the World Health Organization last year. Consult the White House website for full details on topics and major concerns. They are updated almost daily. President Biden is a Scorpio born November 20 with several Scorpio planets and the Moon and Part of Fortune in Taurus. He also has placements in Leo and Aquarius which could result in a Grand Square in 2023 due to unanticipated activity on the U.S. and World stage. This year all four eclipses in Scorpio and Taurus touch his natal chart and that brings high activity and a demand to work through and manage any critical crises that come along. His chart shows resiliency and fitness despite contracting COVID-19 twice (with full recovery) and falling off his bicycle. Count on greater achievements this year, higher ratings, and a lower federal deficit.

Olivia Newton-John: Born in Cambridge, England, the singer, actress, activist, dancer, mother, and long-time cancer survivor was a Libra born September 26 at 6:00 AM. She had breast cancer and died peacefully with her family present in Santa Ynez, CA on August 8, 2022. With the release of "Let Me Be There" in 1973, Olivia's life changed when the song earned her a Grammy for Best Country Female. Many successes and challenges came her way and her career soared but the truly life changing one occurred when she starred in the film adaptation of "Grease" with John Travolta, the biggest box office hit of 1978, netted three top 5 singles from the film's sound track, and was nominated for a Golden Globe as Best Actress in a Musical. The film and the songs are timeless. Olivia was diagnosed with breast cancer in 1992. Her only daughter, Chloe Rose, was also the child of her husband, Matt Lattanzi - they divorced in 1995. Olivia's chart shows she is a Libra with a Virgo Ascendant, the Moon and Uranus conjunct in her natal 10th house of career, a stellium of planets in Leo (show business, creative artistry) in her 11th House, and several Libra planets Sun, Neptune, and Mercury, along with Vesta in Libra. An eclipse in Taurus in her natal 8th house of death occurred in April on her Moon's North Node. Her natal 4th house of home, family, endings, and conditions at the end of life has Sagittarius on the cusp. At the time of her death, the Vertex, a release point was on that cusp. It represents her desire to be with family and be at home. Her fourth house also has natal Jupiter in Sagittarius conjunct the part of fortune (like having double Jupiter), so she loved that home and was very proud of it. Let's remember Olivia, her talent, and her grace. May she rest in peace.

America's Got Talent: The popular talent show made format changes in Season 17 in selecting finalists to move through the live competition. What an array of talent entertains us every Tuesday, with a one-hour follow-up show on Wednesday to announce the two contestants who will go through to the finals. September 13 is the date of the final scheduled show this season with results announced on September 14. This year's judges are: Simon Cowell, Libra; Howie Mandel, Sagittarius; Heidi Klum, Gemini; Sofia Vergara, Cancer; Terry Crews, Leo, the show's beloved Emcee and star of Brooklyn Nine-Nine. Keep watching and vote for your favorite performer.

READERS' CORNER

Readers commented on the individual who wrote in discussing her disappointment over diminishing responsibilities in her workplace. The consensus of most who commented was to quietly start looking at better employment options and apply for positions that are a better fit and skills match. This month's mailbag brought concerns about compatible signs in romantic relationships and what happens when an ex joins the company where you are currently employed. I hope you enjoy the information. Thanks to all who contributed.

Q. I am a Virgo born September 10. I am currently unattached but recently found out that my ex-girlfriend has taken a job with the company where I am employed. I haven't seen her in over 3 years. Her birthday is March 13. While we are employed by two different departments, we are both analysts and are likely to interact with one another on projects. Do you think that will be awkward for us? I would also like to know what signs are compatible for me to date and which should I stay away from. Thank you for your help.

A. Your ex is a Pisces born with the Moon in Virgo, possibly one of the reasons you were attracted to each another in the first place since the lunar connection is a strong one. Your own Moon is in Taurus in close degree to the first eclipse in Taurus this year on April 30, and in harmony with both her Moon and yours. It is not unusual for opposites to attract as the two of you did. For relationships to last, there must be other factors that form the glue. It looks like the mutable sign Gemini and Sagittarius solar and lunar eclipses in 2020 strained your relationship by highlighting the differences in outlook you discovered between you and lead to misunderstandings and the breakup. The presence of Neptune in Pisces near your ex's Sun sent confusing signals as well. Looks like you both were ready for a change. So that April 30 eclipse on your placements in your 7th house of partners shows the return of someone from your past. What you do about it is up to the two of you. I feel there could possibly be another chapter to write here, and the timing was off in 2019-20 yet life travels on and new circumstances arise. Awkwardness rather than hostility seems to linger a bit.

Keep interactions on a professional level. Regardless of what traditional lore says, a Pisces and a Virgo can be very compatible. The big picture of your charts in comparison tells the story. The Ascendants are compatible, too. Scorpio for you and Cancer for her. Virgos ordinarily do well with earth signs Taurus and Capricorn, as well as with Cancers and Scorpions, and could have strong chemistry with the opposite sign, Pisces. Normally the signs that don't work for either of you are Aries, Gemini, Leo, Libra, Sagittarius, and Aquarius. With Jupiter in Aries transiting your 6th house of the work environment, your interest may be rekindled in the near future. Several departments in your life are affected this year and well into 2023. If you decide to reconnect, I suggest you contact me for a consultation to examine the strengths and challenges of this relationship. Thank you for writing. I wish you much happiness.

Thank you to all who sent in questions and comments about last month's newsletter. I'm glad you enjoyed Leo's issue and welcome your thoughts once again.
