Note Schedule Changes: No office hours November 23-25.

Current Fraud Alerts in the Giving Season: Robocalls from firms that want to sell you cable and phone services are accelerating along with those marketing lawn care services. Messages imply that you are already a customer, and they have a special deal for you. They often leave multiple messages a day until you finally pick up. Report or block any numbers that show up on caller ID. Be aware of door-to-door solicitors looking for donations or work and don't answer the doorbell. Report incidents of misdirected or missing mail to the post office. Several readers have reported that checks they were expecting did not arrive and vendors they mailed payments to never received them. Calls reportedly from the IRS or Social Security Administration are fakes. Ignore the threats, hang up and report the incident to your local IRS or SSA office or headquarters. Most surveys that are conducted by third parties online are fishing for contact information. Read the fine print and delete. Answering them doubles the amount of surveys you'll receive, or increases merchandise offers.

BIRTHDAY HIGHLIGHTS FOR SAGITTARIUS

Happy Birthday, Sagittarius! Enjoy the new cycle that comes your way. Your symbol is the Centaur, the sign of the Archer, the 3rd fire and 3rd mutable member of the Zodiac and natural ruler of the 9th House of the higher mind, religion, spirituality, the clergy, advanced education, law, publishing, in-laws, foreign cultures and languages, and travel to distant places. Jupiter rules your sign and exposes you to a variety of adventures at home, at work, in sports, in distant places, and via entertainment. Your color preferences are rich, deep colors like bottle green, dark blues, browns, and majestic purple shades. You enjoy stately trees such as birch, elm, oak, and Sequoia that resonate with your sign. As a truth seeker you explore facts to get to the bottom of questionable areas and seldom quit until you discover the answers you seek. Some call you "outrageously blunt" when you tell others exactly what you think, which you do freely if they ask for your opinion. This year the Sun enters your sign on November 22 at 3:20 AM EST and leaves on December 21 at 4:48 PM EST the date which also coincides with the winter solstice the beginning of Yule (12/21/22-1/1/2023). Most of the material in the following section also refers to individuals with Sagittarius on the Ascendant/Rising Sign or a Sagittarius Moon.

Sagittarius, your birthday year starts out with a new cycle of Mercury in Sagittarius that moved to your sign on November 17, a phase that reveals several harmonious aspects lining up to put you in a holiday mood. If you felt edgy and a bit high strung after the mid-term elections, you'll become more outgoing and adventurous through mid-December when Mercury moves to your sign and your playfulness emerges. Your signature planet, Jupiter, now in complex Pisces is completing its cycle in your solar 4th house through December 20 when it enters Aries in your solar fifth house through May 16 when it enters Taurus for a year that focuses on shifts in your daily routines. The Jupiter run in Pisces stabilizes conditions in your household and brings prosperity and contentment your way. When the planet of expansion enters Aries for a year in your romantic 5th house, your social life picks up as you have already noticed since it arrived with passion in May 2022 for a teaser run. In Pisces, Jupiter influences the spiritual outlook in your home, has a calming effect on the energy there, and makes you aware of any plumbing problems that are lurking in the pipes. A bathroom remodeling project you undertook could be winding down and now you have your own spa to relax and unwind in leisure. As a new strain of Coronavirus entered our lives in 2022, the transit of Jupiter could extend opportunities to work remotely or to increase your responsibility during your work day. It also reminds you to sign up for a COVID booster to stay protected from contamination. Some of you may have experienced job loss, had to change schools, or dealt with emotional strain. If you met a new romantic partner, you may be assessing this relationship for permanence. Review current goals this year and add modifications to strengthen them such as meditation and workouts to the mix to fine-tune your vision. Check Jupiter transits with your natal chart to gauge the timing of purchases and go for it. With Saturn in Aquarius traveling through your solar 3rd house of communication, community, contracts, your state of mind, neighbors, cousins, siblings, electronic equipment, local travel and transportation, and developmental opportunities, you have developed a serious attitude about educational pursuits for you or your children. Analyze agreements before you enter into them and consider the fate of relationships that either need to be eliminated or could benefit from improvement. Don't stay in no-win situations that drain your time and money. Those of you born from December 11-22 experience the most activity from this Saturn transit through March 10, 2023, when the planet of responsibility moves forward in Pisces for the remainder of 2023. Use positive Jupiter cycles to communicate your message clearly, mediate disputes, write papers, books, reports, and articles for publication or for use in your employing organization. Your work site may be relocated to another space in early 2023. Work practices and procedures for accomplishing tasks could be undergoing revision. Be sure to set some cash aside for emergencies. Currently Uranus is retrograde in Taurus through January 22 in your solar 6th House of health, daily routines, fitness, nutrition, organization, colleague interactions, health, and pets through the end of 2022 and moves in forward motion throughout August 2023. The transit primarily influences wellness, nutrition, organizational, and work place issues, so look at these themes to be prepared to make changes. If you have pets, look at their health or training needs. If you were born with natal planets in Taurus, you are undoubtedly aware of disruption from the eruptive planet. Demands on your time come out of the blue, especially while Saturn has been nudging you from your 3rd house of communication. This house has been exceptionally crowded with Taurus eclipses and oppositions from those in Scorpio all of which will clear out by the end of 2023. Review and reset goals, stay healthy, and streamline your workload with fresh approaches. Adjustments may lead to targeted accomplishments and a desirable raise. Those of you born between December 7-17 feel the most impact from this Uranus transit in the next year. Make pending changes when Uranus moves direct, and your contributions strengthen your value to the work world. If you maintain optimism, one of your signature traits, you can't miss. Treasure the stability that comes your way. Neptune in Pisces is in contact with your Sun if born December 14-21 while it moves through your solar 4th House of home, foundation, hearth, physical space, parents, family and real estate/land for the remainder of 2022 and throughout 2023. On December 3, this planet goes direct in motion after turning retrograde on June 28 EDT. Be alert and on the lookout for confusing behavior, fuzzy thinking, or uncoordinated Neptune energy while your Sagittarius Sun experiences the square aspect from Neptune. Adjust your vision and enjoy a spiritual interlude when Neptune helps you focus on current reality. Have fun sharpening your intuition so you can be ready when disruptions set in and slow down planned activity. Take a hard look at people in either your romantic or work life and examine the clues you see. If contacts exhibit awkward behavior or seem untruthful, make changes in how you interact with them. Don't interact with those whose behavior drags you down. Your sign experiences the hard aspect called the square during the next year if you were born on the dates mentioned above. Attract positive spiritual energy in your auric field to gain greater insight about yourself, family, and individuals connected to your home. Scope out what's irritating people at home base and identify any illusions about why they are putting out confusing vibes. With Neptune in this house pay attention to energy in the physical environment when toxic materials are present; be sure to eliminate them and control their presence if you suspect they exist. Wash your hands frequently. Check the water, too. Don't let residents disrupt your equilibrium whether they are drug users, smokers, drinkers, or hallucinators. Don't keep ashtrays around to tempt smokers. You so dislike feeling out of control, a condition that may occur when Neptune occupies the 4th house. Fill your home with warmth and inspiration. Raise the energy there by hosting a party and encouraging harmonious relationships with compatible people. Savor good will. During the last 14 years in Capricorn, Pluto has continued on its journey in your solar 2nd House of income, resources, values, assets, self-development, and how you desire to earn your living; it now affects those of you born December 19-22 through the rest of 2022 and most of 2023. As the slowest moving planet, Pluto, advances only 3 degrees a year while turning retrograde for 6 out of 12 months and will do so again on May 1, 2023. Watch your finances while Pluto is in aspect to your Sun. A 2nd house Pluto transit makes you aware of your earning power, budget, spending habits and debt consolidation. While Sagittarius loves to spend money, gamble occasionally, and take financial risks, Capricorn reminds you that you'll have pay back to contend with when you use credit cards too often and your sporadic betting spree affects your cash flow. Be discreet. Address what has been blocking your prosperity and then take action. Eradicate fears about exploring new employment options if you are considering a job change. Pursue meaningful interests that coincide with your life goals and match your desires. Consult with financial experts to address fiscal challenges. Stay fit in body and mind and add entertainment and recreation to the mix. Curb spending. If you decide to change careers in the coming year, enjoy a rebirth period that allows you to learn new work norms that help you find your passion again. Enjoy the qualities of the people who enter your life and interact with you on many levels. Congratulations on embracing completion of a challenging journey in 2023.

Eclipses strongly affect cadent houses (5, 12, 11, 6) in your chart in the year ahead. The influence of two eclipses occurred just ahead of the start of your 2022 birthday cycle beginning with the October 25 Solar Eclipse in Scorpio 2° 00' in your solar 12th house of healing, hospital visiting, metaphysical interests, secrets, seclusion, and plans you are working on that are not ready for action. On November 8 a lunar eclipse occurred in Taurus at 16° 01' in your solar 6th house of daily routines, fitness, health, organizing ability, pets, work life, including coworkers, colleagues, and subordinates. You continue to make changes in the health of your physical body by working on nutrition, exercise, and adding more sleep to become healthy and whole again. Excess nervous energy occurs here, too, because of the presence of Uranus in Taurus, eclipse energy, and huge workload that prevent you from relaxing easily. You may be in the process of looking for a job, since the first eclipse of 2022 fell in this house and may have affected your concentration while you were adapting to the changing work environment.

When the first eclipse of 2023 hits your solar 5th house in Aries on April 20, at 29° 50', you respond to matters related to children, students, amusements, romance, speculative ventures, sports, and vacations. Some of you may experience pressure from important relationships affiliated with this house and will choose to examine problem areas. Others will take a love relationship to a new level by getting engaged or will break up if compatibility issues are present. Seek professional advice if the situation warrants a different set of eyes. The second eclipse of 2023 is lunar and falls in Scorpio on May 5 at 14° ♏ 58' in your solar twelfth house of hidden matters, confidentiality, healing after illness or surgery, caring for family who are ill, writing or working from home, psychic insight, and supporting charities. On October 14, the second solar eclipse of 2023 takes place in Libra 21° ♎ 08' in your solar 11th house of associations, friends, goals, groups, humanitarian projects, and wishes. You'll have pressure on you to keep goals on track, to network with important contacts, take a leadership role in a budding enterprise, and make new friends. Most importantly enjoy the harmony that professional relationships bring to your work. The second lunar eclipse of 2023 occurs on October 28 in Taurus 5° ♉ 09' in your solar 6th house of daily routines, fitness, health, food and nutrition, organizing acumen, pets, work life, including coworkers, colleagues, and subordinates. Keep up with health conditions by scheduling checkups, tests, and booster shots, getting adequate rest, managing the pressures of the workload that needs the assistance of other parties, and using your fine communication skills to deliver sales pitches, talks, presentations, or training to staff. Improve nutrition by eating less junk food and preparing foods that are more compatible to your stomach and addresses digestive issues. Make this birthday memorable by booking a trip to a new location and checking off another bucket list item.

Kennedy, Jr., Robert Goulet, Jerry Ver Dorn, Tina Turner, Bruce Lee, Caroline Kennedy, Jimi Hendrix, Ed Harris, Jon Stewart, Garry Shandling, Christel Khalil, Ben Stiller, Bette Midler, Woody Allen, Britney Spears, Nelly Furtado, Melissa Archer, Monica Seles, Lucy Liu, Rena Sofer, Rick Savage, Randy Gardner, Dame Judi Dench, Richard Jenkins, Stone Phillips, Julie Harris, Steven Bauer, Joy Reid, Daryl Hannah, Julianne Moore, Jesse Metcalfe, Kara Dioguardi, Felicity Huffman, John Malkovich, Michael Nouri, Dick Butkis, Kirk Douglas, Jay-Z, Jeff Bridges, Steve Buscemi, Marisa Tomei, Dan Butler, Tyra Banks, Sinead O'Connor, Beau Bridges, Taylor Swift, Donny Osmond, Dame Judi Dench, Kenneth Branagh, Christina Onassis, Teri Garr, Jamie Foxx, Patty Duke, Don Johnson, Taylor Swift, Adam Brody, Benjamin Bratt, Liv Ullman, Milla Jovovich, Brad Pitt, Katie Holmes, Keith Richards, Steven Spielberg, Christina Aguilera, Jake Gyllenhaal, Alyssa Milano, Jane Fonda, Kiefer Sutherland, Phil Donahue, Ray Romano, and Samuel L. PLANETS' POSITIONS FROM NOVEMBER 22-DECEMBER 21

Here's to celebrating the independence-loving freedom seekers known as Sagittarians who dominate the astrology world this month. Your sign begins Thanksgiving week with a beautiful Mercury-Venus conjunction in Sagittarius that is favorable for engaging in team projects, networking, dating, and sharing meals with old friends or colleagues. Both planets move to Capricorn in December: Mercury on the 7th and Venus on December 11. Leave plenty of space and time if you are traveling for Thanksgiving because aspects between the Moon, Uranus, and Saturn could delay travel. The Sun moves to Sagittarius on the 22nd as well and the Sagittarius New Moon occurs on November 23 bringing a lovely Jupiter-Neptune conjunction to the environment on Thanksgiving Day. Reach out to others and enjoy friendly, meaningful conversations. The 25th is iffy and is best spent recovering from the feast by relaxing, playing games, watching college football, and holiday movies. By Sunday harmony returns as visitors pack their bags and reflect on the holiday blessings they receive. The week of the 27th reminds you that you not only have to get your body back to home base but your mind as well. You may be eager to return to work and pick up where you left off when you run head-on into retrograde Mars in Gemini on the 1st conjunct Mercury and Venus in hard aspect to Jupiter and Neptune in Pisces leading to erratic energy via stalemates, arguments over procedures, or disagreements over plans. It will take a few days to work out the details, but you'll head home for the weekend with a clear head and a revised plan in mind to start off productively on Monday, the 4th.

Jupiter in Pisces affects Pisces born March 17-21 as the benevolent planet wraps up its tour in spiritual Pisces and moves to Aries on December 20 where it will spend the next year accelerating goals, following passionate pursuits, and initiating new ventures. Those of you born with planets near 0-1 degree of Aries see the most action as 2022 comes to a close. Others who benefit productively include Aquarius born January 18-19, Gemini born May 21-22, Leo born July 23-24, and Sagittarius born December 21-22. You could reap windfalls, bonuses, celebrations, lucky breaks and trips. Signs Cancer, Libra, and Capricorn born with planets at 0-1 degrees may deal with confusing financial conditions or contend with unplanned expenses. If reviewing plans, contracts or legal documents, look positively at what you would like to improve in the new year. Saturn has been in its original home sign, Aquarius (now ruled by Uranus) since late 2020 and is moving ahead with plans to fully explore the innovative energy of the Water Bearer most affecting those born February 7-9 with planets at 19-20 degrees of Aquarius during this cycle. Prioritize health by scheduling checkups, exercising, and following a practical program for stabilizing emotional and physical stamina. Progressive vibes occur for air signs Gemini and Libra born June 9-11, and October 12-15, and favors Aries and Sagittarius born with planets at 19-20 degrees of your signs. Enjoy the increased energy and passion for your favorite pastimes and humanitarian undertakings. Saturn travels in favorable aspect to Mars in Gemini through the end of December and well into 2023 when Mars moves direct on January 12. Rebellious yet determined Saturn in Aquarius is the driving force behind the ongoing shifts in social, economic and political conditions where we see a new world vision unfolding. To many it seems erratic and not everyone is pleased. As nations come to grips with the impact on the economy, safety, and eroding infrastructures, we'll see that answers create new patterns and behavior to correct collapsing institutions and build trust again. Over the past two years, identifying them has occurred and calls for consistently making corrections for global success. Let's support assertive attention and turning the tide in a positive direction. Uranus in Taurus is retrograde as we start this cycle at 15-16 degrees and most affects Taurus born May 5-8, Cancers born July 7-10, Virgos born September 7-10 and Capricorns born January 5-8 who have planets at 15-16 degrees of their signs. Unusual changes in direction may shake up your life or schedule. Individuals born around these dates benefit from unexpected boosts in relationships, recognition, rewards, health changes, and surprises from encountering new people or those who return from your past. In contrast Leos, Scorpios and Aquarius born with planets at 15-16 degrees of your signs experience challenges in these matters. Find out why and uncover ways to create more balance in your life. Engage in reliable fitness routines, secure your home, assess finances, and monitor your credit to minimize upsets. Embrace the Uranus flow to incorporate technological discoveries, inventions, understand your hidden talent, and advocate entrepreneurial expansion. Neptune is retrograde in Pisces and goes direct on December 3. Currently Neptune occupies 22 degrees of Pisces and most affects individuals favorably if born March 12-14, and those born July 14-16 and November 14-16 with intuitive vibes and enlightening breakthroughs. Enjoy peace of mind again. Relax with an interesting book, an enjoyable movie, or go to a concert. Those born December 14-16, September 14-16 and June 13-15 may meet with challenges stemming from miscommunication, vague meanings, poor interpretation, or lack of good judgment. Address lingering issues that need attention and surface with little or no warning. When solid solutions appear, act promptly and process the revelations. Look for a beautiful lunar aspect that creates a trine between Neptune and Mercury on the 20th of December and accelerates positive energy as the holiday nears. Enjoy meditating daily, create a vision board, and use mantras or yoga daily to center yourself. Open your arms to the caring souls in your life. Pluto in Capricorn remains in Capricorn in late degrees 26-27, as it moves through its long cycle in this sign and advance to completion by 2025. For those of you dealing with excess baggage, the transit makes letting go a priority. World-wide interest in scenarios unfolding in the U.S. and in other mindful countries (see the next section) escalates with increasing focus on global warming, rebuilding infrastructure, and healing the damage from COVID-19 and the currently escalating Respiratory Syncytial Virus (RSV). Pluto digs deep for secrets and lawsuits go into the court system for resolution. Unscrupulous minds look for ways to make outright lies sound appealing to the vulnerable. Pluto is strongly positioned in the USA chart and next month will experience its final Pluto return - to the same place and degree it occupied when the U.S.A. was founded in 1776. On a personal level Pluto joins the Suns of those born January 16-18 and probes the minds of those interested in making lasting internal change in important life sectors, while simultaneously expressing relief from shedding years of excessive baggage. Act now. It is your time to let go of fear and toxic shame under this transit. Others challenged by this transit are Aries born April 15-18, Cancers born July 17-20 and Libras born October 19-21. If you need help in sorting out the intensity of this transit, consult your astrologer for advice on managing releases that are unfolding if your birth date is among those cited. Get rid of old garbage and call on Pluto's effectiveness and wisdom via karma cleaners to unload unnecessary burdens in the next year. Chiron in Aries is retrograde at 11-12 degrees. This planetoid takes a deliberate path and most affects Aries born March 31-April 2, exposing the secrets that have kept your stomach in knots. Take the time to let go of old hurts or resentments that nag you, taunt you, and take up way too much daily self-talk. Your time to release is here so open your awareness and heal the pain that affects your mind, body and spirit! Embrace what makes you whole. The kindness you show benefits humanity creating inner balance and abundant energy. Wherever Aries falls in your chart you have options for creating a vision that makes you resilient and fulfills your dreams. Bring flowing inspiration to social and financial successes. When you connect with others on a higher plane, you find lasting peace. May the holiday season bring good health, a blazing spirit, and many ways to find joy. Happiness becomes you.

PEOPLE, PLACES AND TOPICS IN THE NEWS

I outlined in earlier newsletters that the U.S. chart's natal Pluto would experience three separate Pluto returns this year, all charts calculated for Philadelphia, PA where our country's natal chart evolved on July 4, 1776. The first Pluto return occurred on February 20, 2022, right after we aided Ukraine by providing funds and resources to battle Russia's insurgence. Then we began to realize that so much we thought we knew and valued in our country was changing beyond recognition with product shortages, climate change effects, corporate greed, and an ideologically divided country. Pluto went retrograde on April 29 and on June 24, right after the Moon opposed Venus (women's rights) Roe v Wade was overturned and emerged as a huge factor in the mid-term outcome. The second U.S. Pluto return occurred on July 11 and brought us back to domestic issues, such as the importance of mid-term elections which resulted in extraordinary voter turnout in the midst of erratic behavior, anger out of control, an eclipse on election day, and the big question that asked who should or would win? Were the ultimate results all a part of Pluto's regeneration plan? Is Pluto judging the plight that unfolded for women and took away rights, eyeing our country's assets, monitoring the health of the people, and questioning the judiciary that has been making questionable decisions that affect daily lives? As Pluto in Capricorn gets ready to make its third station (conjunction) to the Pluto position in the U.S. chart on December 28, it is not surprising that top concerns of readers continue to revolve around the mid-term election results and wonder what will happen next. The much-touted Republican wave did not happen, a former power figure lost steam, will not win and probably will not run for President, and the cost of borrowing money needs urgent relief. The focus is on independence as the sun shifts to Sagittarius and calls for passionate expression of the truth.

Taylor Swift: Taylor Alison Swift, an American singer-songwriter is a Sagittarius born December 13, 1989, in West Reading, Pennsylvania. Taylor's personal life often inspires the songs she writes. She moved to Nashville at age 14 to become a country artist. On October 21 her latest album, Midnights, became the most streamed album in a single day in Spotify history with over 185 million streams. On October 31, 2022, she became the first artist to ever fill the entire top ten of Billboard Hot 100 with cuts from the album. With 32 wins she is the most awarded artist in AMA's history, surpassing Michael Jackson's record of 24 wins. This tremendously talented artist was born with the Sun in Sagittarius and Moon opposite in Gemini along with four stelliums of planets and points in Cancer, Scorpio, Capricorn, and Aquarius and a small grouping of Pisces points and Pallas in Pisces. She has a grand trine in water, good for putting your heart and soul into your words and music. Taylor's Scorpio placements have had eclipse hits and will continue with more exposure to the limelight as she takes to the road on an extensive concert tour that is selling out in several markets. She is both popular and polarizing and speaks her mind. Her fourth house planets are all in Capricorn and show her savvy business mind and the abundant, wealthy real estate portfolio she has amassed at a young age. She will continue to receive showers of accolades in the next few years. Let's wish her a very Happy Birthday.

Elon Musk: Many have asked about the chart of Elon Musk, a prominent business magnate who has been in the news prominently in the past year. This prolific business investor was born on June 28, a Cancer, in Pretoria, South Africa. He is the founder, CEO, and chief engineer of SpaceX; co-founder of Neuralink and Open AI; angel investor, CEO, and product architect of Tesla, Inc.; and more recently acquired Twitter after much deliberation in recent months. Controversy followed. Almost immediately, Musk fired half of the 7,500 Twitter employees and plans to cut nearly 75 percent of his total staff. He mandated that those remaining must commit to hardcore work or leave the company explaining that he sometimes spends 120 hours a week at work and sleeps on the floor. He also said he would reinstate Trump's Twitter account. His natal chart indicates that he has many children (Vertex, Venus and Ceres in Gemini in his 5th house of children), the Sun and Mercury in Cancer, Moon and Pluto in Virgo in hard aspect to those Gemini planets, Jupiter in Scorpio, Ascendant in Aquarius (and Saturn transiting the Ascendant now and opposing a stellium of progressed Leo planets in his 6th and 7th Houses), and Mars in Aquarius on his ascendant receiving the full impact of the stern taskmaster planet Saturn right now - manifesting these instant firings and sudden decisions. More headlines ahead.

Jerry Lee Lewis: One of the early legends of rock and roll and rockabilly music, "The Killer" as he was described, died peacefully on October 28 in Nesbit, Mississippi. Jerry Lee was born in Ferriday, LA, on September 29, 1935, a Libra, with Ceres, Sun and Moon in his sign. He nailed down piano magic with a highly energetic passion, had four planets in Virgo that showed his discipline for mastering the keyboard, singing, and writing music. His first hit was "Crazy Arms" that mesmerized southern audiences, but it was "Whole Lotta Shakin Goin On" that catapulted him to fame in 1957 followed by many major hits like "Great Balls of Fire" and "Breathless." His career hit a sour note when he unexpectedly married his 13-year-old cousin in 1957. May he rest in peace.

READER'S CORNER

Several readers commented on last month's information that covered eclipses and want to follow future eclipse explanations. I wrote an article on Solar and lunar Eclipses for the Llewellyn 2024 Moon Sign Book and hope you will check it out in July 2023 when the book publishes. This month the question involves a brief introduction to Feng Shui, an area of expertise for me, from a reader interested in selling her home.

Q. I am a Sagittarius who is downsizing and want to sell my large home. I want to buy a replacement home with all the bells and whistles but not the size. I hope to sell my home and pay cash for a new one next year. I attended a Feng Shui course you conducted at a business meeting years ago and could use a refresher. I like privacy. Please let me know some Feng Shui tips that would be helpful in selling my home and aid in searching for a new residence. My Realtor says homes on a corner lot have fewer neighbors. I am sure you gave pros and cons in your seminar regarding privacy which I deeply value. Can you give me advice on this property or others that I may be contemplating?

A. Your question, although timely, is multi-layered, and probably works best in a personal consultation regarding your current home or the one you would like to buy. I am going to give you and readers of other signs information that may help with housing transactions as well as give you tips for maximizing features of the home. I call it The Feng Shui Factor.

Location means considerably more to Feng Shui experts. They advocate making adjustments to features and furniture placement that help sell your current home and prosper in your new home to create the flow of positive energy (chi) and balance. When you are house hunting, look at the location of the lot. If it is a corner lot with traffic patterns in two directions, it may be a more expensive house than others in the neighborhood. Corner lots are usually priced higher, yet distractions to the residence's energy are considerable. The school bus stops on the corner, pet walkers flock to the corner of the street, visiting cars may park on the side or front curb of the house, and shars (negative chi created by sharp angles from nearby structures) may come from homes situated at diverse angles aimed toward the front, side or back of the house.

Although a cul-de-sac is often touted as a privacy benefit, if the home you are looking for is at the center of the circle, every vehicle that drives down the street is going to send a Shar directly to your front door. To the Feng Shui practitioner, the front door represents the property owner's wealth, and constant flow of "poison arrows" dissipates prosperity and energy. Today, savvy home buyers hire Feng Shui practitioners to assess the compatibility of their planned home purchase or to give advice on remodeling projects before the walls start coming down. The following section refers to amenities the sun signs prefer. Use these Feng Shui tips to put pleasure in your house hunting and designing plans. The advice is useful for every sign.

ARIES: You love gadgets and built-ins, but keep electromagnetic energy from TVs, VCRs and computers out of the bedroom. These vibes are detrimental to your health, the quality of rest, and fertility.

TAURUS: Choose a solid front door instead of an all glass entrance. A decorative touch with beveled glass is acceptable, but clear glass offers little protection to your home and allows prosperity to leak out. Be sure the door size is in proportion to your home - not too large and not too small. Mirrored or shiny doorknockers deflect poison arrows from the street.

GEMINI: Do use soft greens (health and prosperity) or blues (harmony and serenity) in the bathroom. Use scented candles in the closets or bath to purify the space; help you relax; and sleep restfully. Accent ceilings with borders or crown molding.

CANCER: Put something tasty in your stainless steel ovens but please don't install your range underneath the plumbing fixtures of a second floor bathroom. A wall behind the stove provides solid support for your family in lieu of placing burners on a middle-of-the room island. Kitchens represent the family's wealth.

LEO: Be sure the dramatic staircase you desire is one that curves rather than spirals - too much confusing chi. Look for stairs that angle away from the front door rather than fall directly in front of the entrance. When you enter your front door, make sure you don't face a mirror, which only sends your prosperity vibes back into the street.

VIRGO: Balance yin and yang, light and dark in the various plants and materials in your landscaping. Incorporate curving paths in your garden to attract positive energy. Use statues, gazing balls, benches, and water treatments for flow. Be sure trees do not block the clear view from your front door.

LIBRA: Put round or curved tables in the family room or sun room to encourage harmony, conversation, participation, or family equality. Guests feel more at ease when no hard angles from sharp table corners cut into their bodies.

SCORPIO: If your heart is set on a sumptuous master bath, be sure it is not located near or above your front door. Energy (and waste in the pipes) flows out of the house and blocks positive energy from entering your home. Avoid placing your bed on a wall adjacent to your bathroom. Keep seats, covers, and doors to bathrooms closed at all times, especially if the toilet faces the bedroom.

SAGITTARIUS: Apply the “luxury for less” principle by knocking out confining walls and adding columns or railings to highlight your family room. Fire and water elements don’t mix, so keep decorative mirrors off the wall that houses your fireplace.

CAPRICORN: Use a combination of closed and open bookshelves in your libraries to reduce piercing shars. Arrange your home office workspace so that you don’t look out into a corridor or face stairs, closets or storage areas which minimizes distractions.

AQUARIUS: Warm up your favorite rooms with dramatic area rugs to break up the lines of your expensive all-wood floors. Choose a home with a large “Gathering Room” and arrange furniture in cozy groups conducive to conversation and your eclectic mix of friends.

PISCES: Create a harmonious relaxation spot to recharge your body and spirit. Accent with bold colors but make sure the main color scheme is elegantly restful. Placing your bed under a ceiling fan or beam interferes with healthful vibrations. So does sleeping with your body in the crease of an arched ceiling.

Good luck in your home sale and Happy House Hunting!
