BIRTHDAY HIGHLIGHTS FOR ARIES

Happy Birthday, Aries. Light up your world with a fabulous birthday celebration. Visualize the charging ram symbol that shows your action-oriented Cardinal nature while you search your personal Universe highlighting the energy of the Zodiac’s first sign and shaping the tone for the astrological year ahead. With your outstanding initiative and abundant energy, you create goals, show your innovative style, and implement plans in record time. Even if you encounter unanticipated dilemmas, you manage them with spot-on solutions and solid conviction as you develop follow-up steps. If career, romantic, or love life changes are on your 2023 agenda, find your altered path and take charge. The Sun enters your sign on March 20 at 5:24 PM EDT and leaves on April 20 at 4:14 AM EDT. A Solar Eclipse takes place on April 20 at 12:13 AM EDT in Aries 29° 7’ 50” just ahead of the waning hours of sun in Aries. Enjoy your lead position in the Zodiac as you give others a chance to get to know you and see your gifts and talents in motion. Shine your sunny light and build networks that are essential to your world this year. Express your uniqueness through work, cherish your home, and interact with others who influence your partnerships and career. Take charge of reason, spending habits, risk-taking, and all facets of negotiation. Strengthen partnerships. Be tactful when discussing sensitive subject matter, especially when you are ready to move in a new direction without twisting arms. Jupiter in Aries occupies your solar 1st house ruling personality, planning, health, self-image, assertiveness, leadership, and spontaneous pursuits. While in Aries through May 17, you may have little time to make major decisions that fall in your lap. Take a breath before responding to urgent requests and allow time to assimilate facts. Jupiter spent time in Aries last year, too, getting you ready for major career and personal moves. Enjoy meeting new contacts in this emerging, progressive phase that is moving in and affects humanitarian activity. Jupiter’s tour slides into Taurus in your second house of income, assets, spending habits, raises, and self-development. The planet of expansion moves retrograde on September 4 in Taurus and turns direct on December 30th occupying your solar second house for seven months and starting 2024 in your lucrative money house. When Jupiter occupies your house of resources, you are sure to reap unexpected benefits. Live life joyfully in the year ahead. Saturn in Pisces moved to this sign on March 7, 2023, and occupies your solar 12th house of healing, seclusion, planning behind the scenes, meditation, psychic gifts, hospital visiting, helping charities, writing, and solving mysteries. If your birthday is April 12-20, Saturn connected with your Sun through March 7 related to networks and associates. If you are born between March 20-29 you may break out of a rut and declare the end of a business arrangement that no longer meets your needs. Be sure to take the time to heal from any illness or surgery you recently experienced. Emerging personal or professional goals pique your interest and you could soon meet a new boss. Saturn in Pisces goes retrograde on June 17 and moves direct on November 4 affecting plans in both your personal and professional life bringing decisions to the surface and deadlines for making changes. When Saturn goes direct again, you will feel lighter especially if the degrees are favorable to your Aries birthdate. Travel is possible, along with a family reunion or celebration of a milestone occurrence. Submit work to a publisher if you are ready to have your materials critiqued. Transiting Neptune in Pisces occupies this house as well and brings a highly spiritual tone to your insights. Be sure to have your astrologer update your chart during your birthday period. Those of you born April 6-15 have Uranus in Taurus in aspect to your Sun through your birthday year in your solar 2nd House where it will spend the next 3 years alerting you to monitor income, protect valuable assets, negotiate for a higher salary, and save some of the money you earn. Pursue self-development options and enjoy courses related to professional interests. This passage of Uranus suggests that you enjoy leisure time and relaxation to avoid burnout. While other planets like Saturn and Neptune in Pisces occupy your 12th house, you may experience a shift in responsibilities or confusion over conditions in the job market or assignment of work. Build your qualifications for career growth. What has the planet of unexpected shake-ups done that affected your career? Is your workplace stable now or undergoing a shift in work priorities? Monitor this house and its effect on earning potential, spending, and savings. Work with your astrologer to find out how to embrace unexpected directions. Eliminate work that no longer suits your purpose. Watch late August through January 27 when Uranus is in retrograde motion for delays in accomplishing work or personal goals. Finances can be erratic this year so keep an eye on prospects. Mars moves to Cancer and settles in your solar fourth house of home and family on the 26th and opens your eyes to emotional issues that need attention. Neptune in Pisces resides in its natural home in your solar 12th House of retreat, seclusion, secrets, meditation, widows, orphans, inner healing, time alone, hospital visiting, mystical vibes, serious planning, and charity work. From now through the end of the 2023 Aries cycle Neptune connects most with those of you born April 12-19 in 2023 while it puts you in touch with hidden feelings and nagging fears, awakens your higher mind, and stimulates interests like ESP, intuitive awareness, mediumship, and psychic insight that span the metaphysical realm. Show emotional sensitivity to individuals who have experienced personal, health, and job loss. Develop a solid health routine including fitness practices, scheduling appointments with medical practitioners, and staying aware of physical ailments. Offer solutions that have a calming effect on those in need and suggest specialists to assist in solving pressing problems. Neptune collaborates with your subconscious while you address angst on the mental and physical plane and in some cases, recovery from lingering illness or surgery. Neptune may stir up private matters connected to relationship situations that you buried long ago. Acknowledge them and process confused feelings. Enjoy your awakened sense of intuition and valuable clarity. Saturn in Pisces occupies your solar 12th house all year. If you have natal or transiting planets in the 12th house, move through the Neptune haze with the help of meditation, music, yoga, and exercise. Neptune will be retrograde in your solar 12th house from June 30-December 6. Pluto in Capricorn occupies your solar 10th House of career, ambition, and life status and influences your world related to job choices, leadership, organizations, responsibility, authority figures, family, and the status quo. For Aries born April 19-20, you will briefly usher out the remaining degrees of Pluto in Capricorn that have been in your career and authority house since 2008. Now is your chance to do a big dump of any angst that has been eating away at your psyche. Pluto is going to make a teaser entry into your solar eleventh house of groups, friends, professional organizations, and goals on March 23 in Aquarius where it will reside until June 11, just enough to give those of you born March 20-22 a taste of harmony as you successfully manage an emerging goal and seem to meet the right contacts. While Pluto goes retrograde on May 1 in Aquarius, it will backslide into Capricorn and will move direct in this sign on October 10. Enjoy the insight that drives your soul and reflects the responsibility you are ready to undertake with this shift. The 11th house is going to be an important one for many years to come with the sign of the humanitarian influence your group undertakings. If born on the cited dates, you will most enjoy anything you can unload from your baggage and embrace the temptation to soar with the help from Pluto in Aquarius. Balance your life to enjoy more of it instead of creating conflict. Thoroughly deliver your message when communicating your innovative ideas. Say hello to the freedom of a smooth transition that allows you to make peace with Pluto and reduce the clutter that kept you juggling angst. You deserve the freedom - grab the spotlight. Leadership becomes you. Enjoy the new responsibility that rewarded your good work. Open up to your true purpose.

As we embrace your solar year, your Aries Sun is still under the influence of two of 2022's eclipses. Many of you have undergone shifts in workplace associations, family matters, and spending habits. The second solar eclipse of 2022 occurred on October 25, 2022 at 2° Scorpio 00' and fell in your solar 8th House of joint income and savings, debt load, taxes, karmic matters, psychological conditions, mental depth, and how you discharge duties related to managing other people's money like estates or wills. You and your partner may have experienced revitalized financial windfalls or one or both of you may have changed jobs. When the last full moon lunar eclipse of 2022 took place at 16° Taurus 01' on November 8, in your solar 2nd house of income, valuable assets, developmental plans, banking and money you earn, Uranus in Taurus was present highlighting areas of financial management that needed adjustments. This eclipse continues to let you examine how well household income has been covering your needs and how well you manage assets and responsibilities when the possibility of unexpected developments loom. You may have experienced an employment gap or saw the reinvention of the work environment last year.

Eclipse activity makes a strong statement in your life this year with 4 eclipses affecting your chart during this cycle. Now you're ready to pursue activity in your solar first house of physical appearance, attitude, assertiveness, imagination, individuality, and passion, when the first solar eclipse of 2023 occurs on April 20 in Aries at 29° ♈ 50' in this sector and drives your personal goals. Keep promises you made to take better care of your health, take time off to enjoy life, and hire a consultant if you need help with challenging life aspects. This eclipse is strongest for you if born April 18-21. The first lunar eclipse of 2023 occurs in Scorpio on May 5th at 14° Scorpio 58' in your solar 8th House of joint funds and debts, investments, legal and estate matters, reworking partnership money arrangements, and transforming fiscal matters to meet mutual goals. This house is a focal point of financial activity for you through 2023, so prepare for changes related to managing finances, juggling conditions related to your job or unemployment issues, joint savings and income, investments, estates, sex, birth, debt, and transformative events. Develop a savings plan and eliminate outstanding balances. Certain Aries may take on a second job to supplement income. A partner may also receive a promotion or award that helps to cover escalating expenses and bills that reflect rising interest rates. Remember if an eclipse falls on your birthday or on a natal planet, it takes on higher importance.

The second solar eclipse of 2023 occurs in Libra on October 14 at 21° ♎ 08' and falls in your solar 7th House of personal and business partners, spouses, your significant other, roommates, collaborators, consultants, doctors, lawyers, therapists, advisors, known enemies, and the public. An eclipse can shake up your partnership world and reveal conditions you had no idea existed. That means the impact could also bring surprises that create a win that you may not have expected. The best thing you can do is address any communication shortfalls, strengthen bonds, and seek peaceful solutions to any rifts that exist. Enjoy new opportunities for you or your partner that come your way. The year's final lunar eclipse takes place on October 28 at 5° Taurus ° 09' in your solar second house of money, how you spend your income, what you value, assets, potential realized through self-development, and financial goals. Although you feel the disruption of Uranus in Taurus in this house, see the positive side of debt reduction that a raise may bring. This eclipse opposes the degree of the Sun in Scorpio in your solar eighth house and could disclose financial issues that need your attention. Cope with new assignments, reorganizations, or altered work locations that may affect you. Be patient with others whose finances remain on shaky ground. Embrace networking. If you have Taurus or Scorpio planets or an Ascendant in those signs, these eclipses may be deeply meaningful. Enjoy evolving ventures and savor the success you reap. Remember the Law of Abundance that works to fulfill your desired happiness as you enjoy the best birthday ever this year! Love and blessings. Let activities that satisfy your soul dominate and celebrate success with dear ones. The material in this section may also apply to those with Aries Ascendants. Enjoy!

PLANETS IN ARIES' TIME from March 20-April 20

On March 20th at 5:24 PM EDT we'll welcome spring when the Sun moves to Aries, and we enjoy the Equinox that truly exudes joy. Celebrate the new astrological cycle that starts out with Mercury direct in your sun sign, Aries and moves to Taurus on the morning of April 3. The 20th ushers in a feeling of confidence, power, and exuberance, just what you need to begin the work week on a positive note. The Aries New Moon takes place on March 21, a delightful omen for enjoying relationship dynamics and stirring up passion. The week of the 27th is energizing and you will appreciate the teamwork and cooperation that lifts your spirits. If you haven't already heard, the federal tax return deadline is April 17 this year. Venus in Taurus conjuncts Uranus in Taurus the week ending March 27 and can stir up a sudden romance for single Aries. Creativity abounds on March 28 adding an enjoyable note to undertakings. Visit favorite restaurants and share a delightful meal with a special someone. Many businesses continue to adjust business hours, accommodate telework, or employee needs by examining the pay scale. Enjoy TV programming watching movies or favorite series. Don't overschedule the weekend of the 2nd or you'll feel burnout when you return to work on April 3rd. Mars moves to reflective Cancer on March 25 promoting enjoyable family interests, inspiring communication, and scheduling activities that help promote your gentler side. Plan new initiatives to avoid setting stressful deadlines. If the week of April 3 starts out on a chaotic note, rein in the energy by mid-week to tackle important tasks and create more life balance when the push for meeting deadlines subsides. By Thursday's full Moon in Libra, teammates may be heading out of town to celebrate the Easter season. Pack your sense of humor and greet others with a light air and don't dump your problems the moment you arrive at your guest destination. Preparations flow smoothly after 11 am on April 7. Watch for cranky flaring tempers on the 8th between 9:30 AM - 2 PM. Jupiter is direct in Aries during this cycle and moves along at a well-paced clip now strongly affecting those of you born April 6-23 with a conjunction to your Sun, as well as benefiting Gemini born June 7-16, Sagittarius born December 8-16, and Aquarius born February 5-14. Those meeting challenges in this cycle include Cancers born July 8-17; and Libras born October 9-17, and Capricorns born January 6-15. Check your charts for wherever you find 16-23 degrees of Aries. Build personal income, increase prosperity and shop for a new job if you're in the market for new responsibilities. Discard vague offers of employment. Saturn is in Pisces and this month and occupies 1-4 degrees of the sign; most affecting Pisces born February 19-24. Saturn last occupied Pisces in 1993 and will be around nearly 3 years before finishing its current cycle. The taskmaster planet enjoys showcasing its spiritual, creative side adding a dimension of psychic flair and a complex model for leadership that follows the inner knower. Pisces displays its presence on the world stage as an inspiring builder of reliable hunches. Give your professional life a new spark by using your time to cultivate your core group and interest these members in your plans and ideas. Those most favorably affected during the next month by Saturn's transit are Taurus born April 21-26, Cancers born June 22-26, Scorpios born October 23-28, and Capricorns born December 23-27. You may wrestle with a few challenges if born May 22-26, August 24-28, or Sagittarius born November 22-27. Responsibilities escalate for many born on these dates. Eliminate fears by integrating innovative ideas and build on their merits in the year ahead. While in Pisces early degrees, Saturn reflects compatibility with Mercury through April 8. Show compassion and understanding of the human spirit. Uranus in Taurus is moving through its fifth year of a 7-year journey in this sign covering 16-17 degrees in this cycle. Currently those born May 6-9 with these Taurus degrees will be most affected. Also having strong, favorable aspects are Cancers born July 8-11, Virgos born September 8-11, Capricorns born January 6-9 and Pisces born March 6-9. Other fixed signs - Leos born August 8-11, Scorpios born November 8-11, and Aquarius born February 5-8 deal with challenges, mixed messages or erratic communication. Look at house cusps or planets where you have 16-17 degrees of these signs and be sure to examine current conditions. Surprises or unexpected events occur depending on where these numbers appear in your chart. Make security and safety a priority and avoid taking unnecessary risks. Protect your health, especially legs now. Neptune in Pisces coasts along at 25-26 degrees over the next month and most affects those born March 15-18. Others affected harmoniously include Cancers and Scorpios born with planets at these degrees. Challenged signs in this cycle are Geminis born June 16-18, Virgos born September 18-21 and Sagittarius born December 17-20. Neptune makes a beautiful connection to transiting Pluto in Capricorn later this year when it returns from a visit in early Aquarius. You may feel a sense of peace and harmony that energizes support for charities and humanitarian projects and attracts successful endeavors. Neptune makes excellent aspects to the Cancer moon on March 30. Community relationships improve with team efforts to beautify your neighborhood. Wherever transiting Neptune appears in your chart, the house calls attention to areas of confusion, spiritual insight, psychic impressions and matters involving liquids either what you drink or where you have leaks or toxins. Examine whatever looks shaky around your physical or emotional foundation. Modify eyesores and clear your space. Meditate using healing modalities for greater peace of mind and body. Pluto travels in Aquarius at 0 degrees from March 23 through the end of April. Currently Taurus, Leo, Scorpio and Aquarius feel a jolt from this transformer planet when born with their sign at 0-1 degrees. Because this is a newborn teaser transit, no one will feel much intensity. Decide what resources you need to take action that give you a fresh perspective. Globally, we're still dealing with concerns over the economy, fuel costs, travel, work, war in the Ukraine and world-wide closures that affect business and personal life, education, families and health. Medical research is soaring to great heights matching critical demand. Businesses look for the quickest way to replenish supplies with vendors. Individuals born April 4-7 have Chiron in Aries in direct motion on their suns this month at 15-16 degrees. Open your compassionate heart to others and encourage release. Give those in need a morale boost and offer a simple act of kindness while you send healing energy. Let go of buried feelings and expose those painful personal wounds that will help you let go of hurtful pain. The Wounded Healer helps you uncover your aching heart energy. If life seems overwhelming, it probably is, so meditate and feel the deep release of fear. As a Cardinal sign your Sun degree falls in these critical degrees in April. Schedule a consultation to see what's affecting your life now and take steps to release pain. Signs high on the radar screen this month are Aquarius, Pisces, Taurus, Leo, Scorpio, and Aries. Leave toxic feelings behind. Open the pathway to contentment with inner joy. Have fun!

PEOPLE, PLACES AND TOPICS IN THE NEWS

Ukraine keeps surfacing in the news. As I write this section, Russia is heavily attacking Ukraine with no sign of a let-up and no details on carnage. Ukraine was busy repelling some 80 Russian attacks over the last day or so. In the U.S., more Republican candidates are considering running for President in 2024. Flooding, snow, and rainstorms are taking their toll in parts of California. Look for ways to aid those who have been displaced by sudden weather events. Right now several planets are lining up in Aries as the spring equinox nears. New beginnings and healings ahead.

The first time I heard of the film Everything Everywhere All At Once, some months ago I had a strong feeling it would be the one to watch with a title like that. ## READERS CORNER

Last month's newsletter stimulated discussion over long-term transits of outer planets. Readers were very positive regarding the clarification that explained why planets stay in certain houses for long lengths of time. Thanks to all who commented. This month we'll look at aspects unfolding in the chart of an early born Aries who has several planets affected by shifting signs of current planets. The subject of moving is also addressed. Hope you see yourself and others in a new light. Related topics may appear in future newsletters.

Q. I am an Aries and was born March 21. I have been very restless over the past two years, have considered moving but have not felt drawn to any particular place. I have a good job but sometimes feel bored. I have not started job hunting yet. What do you see in my chart? Can you help me decide where to move?

A. I am going to address your chart first since you are an Aries. Please note that as Aries dawns this year, the Sun, New Moon, Jupiter, Chiron, Mercury, and Vesta are in Aries. You have Pisces on the Ascendant and that puts each of the transiting planets in your second house along with your natal Sun. No wonder you are restless. Mars is moving to Cancer in your natal 5th house on the 26th which creates a hard aspect to your Aries Sun. And your 2nd house of income, assets, and self-development will receive the year's first solar eclipse on April 20th in Aries that connects to natal Mercury in Aries. Neptune in Pisces is in hard aspect to your 4th house natal Moon in Gemini. And Uranus in Taurus has been in your natal 3rd house since 2018 giving you an unsettled feeling as though something is about to happen in your neighborhood or creating interference to how you are processing information mentally - maybe worrying too much without knowing what is driving the worries. I would do nothing until you have had a thorough consultation to sort out priorities and identify what appeals to you and what does not among the array of choices that are evolving. As for giving advice on where to move, I never tell anyone where to move. No one but you can determine whether a location appeals to you or makes you feel secure, at peace, at home, or enthusiastic about building a new life.

I recommend using Astrocartography before moving, a facet of astrology that looks at the effect of relocation on the natal chart. So many variables exist related to why you might want to move that I can address them only generally in this space. First of all it is important to visit cities that interest you. You probably won't find out much about a city if you are passing through or are on a business trip and have numerous obligations that interfere with how much you can learn about the location. If you like what you see then go back when you can take your time and learn more about it. I recommend spreading out the location of cities that interest you - if you concentrate only on one geographical location, such as the east coast, you will not see much variation in how your planets respond because the longitude and latitude make a difference, and when they don't change much neither does your life. Sometimes the same two or three planets vie for a position in locations near the same latitude and longitude even though the cities are different. The rule of thumb is to go at least 300 miles away from your current location yet that narrow mileage can be misleading when the aspects or visibility of planets are not significant. For example, your Ascendant may change by a degree or so only. If life is dull in your current location, it is not going to change much within that 300-mile radius, and you probably don't belong there. Of course if you go somewhere for the first time and really feel good about everything you see, that might be one to explore. When I work with clients I recommend that they select at least three cities they like, and we go from there. If you have never been to these places before it is doubtful that I would recommend living there. You have to get a feel for the environment. You can determine links with cities or states without visiting, but living there is a big step and requires more depth of exploration. Generally, if you are a water sign and find a water sign city or one with strong connections to your chart, you are off to a good start. The same compatibility applies to fire, earth and air signs because the environment feels natural to you. You may even be attracted to a state that has other compatible elements to add further connection and confirmation for your relocation choice.

I hope this information is helpful to you and that you take the time to set priorities. Sort out conditions that are affecting your life. Once you do that you can schedule an appointment for relocating if that is your choice. I would be happy to work with you.

OFFICE HOURS: Please note the schedule of hours: all office hours are on Monday through Friday 12-6 PM EDT. Saturday hours are 12-4 PM.

Thank you to all who sent in questions and comments about last month's newsletter. I'm glad you enjoyed the Pisces issue and welcome your thoughts once again.

QUOTE OF THE MONTH: "The only way to be truly happy is to make others happy."
