ANNOUNCEMENTS:

Congratulations to CK for winning the January drawing; February's winner will be notified on the 29th and will receive a $15 discount toward your next consultation. Those of you who schedule an appointment February 18-March 20 are eligible for a $15 certificate covering appointments booked through March 31. Be on the lookout for evolving telephone con artists who leave a message for someone else using your phone number it. Do not respond, in fact, don't answer the phone if you are unfamiliar with the phone number. If the call is legitimate, you will receive a voice mail message. The callers often want you to answer questions and once you respond, they hang up, but call you again using another pitch to lure you into their business. You could be agreeing to an action that you don't want. Reboot your computer if it gets hung up while you are looking at an email message that seems stuck. Run a security check with your software program. Never provide callers access to a credit card or bank account number when you have not initiated the phone call. Flag SPAM messages related to vendors or banking and financial institutions and send them to the company's security department without opening them. Happy birthday to A, M, B, ML and A! Congratulations to Julie and Josh on the birth of their baby girl, Sophia in late January. Happy 33rd Anniversary to J and D. NOTE: The 2024 Sun Sign Book and the 2024 Moon Sign Book that includes my article, 2024 Solar and Lunar Eclipses Through the Houses is available at Llewellyn Worldwide and Amazon.com. ### BIRTHDAY HIGHLIGHTS FOR PISCES desire to understand differences, qualities you cherish as a water sign element. Pisces rules the 12th House of seclusion, retreat, and regrouping, allowing you to enjoy personal freedom while generously sharing your spirit with loved ones. Behind your tender eyes lies a probing mind and a love for solving mysteries, embracing romance, following crime stories, and taking on challenges when you feel passion for the cause. Like the fish, you often move in too many directions at once or refuse to be realistic when it comes to limiting activities. Some of you hide out for days to recharge your batteries by working or reading in bed. Clearing your head means checking into your sacred sanctuary to search for the truth and escape the scrutiny of nosy types who ask too many questions. Many Pisces are fond of gambling, playing the slots or the lottery, often winning, especially if your natal chart has a well-placed Jupiter. Pisces often daydreams frequently. Many of you spend too much time on games, hobbies or killing time. The rest of you have a practical approach and refuse to let grass grow under your feet when you have a deadline to meet. Yours is the last of the mutable signs of the Zodiac with Neptune as your ruler and the natural occupant of the 12th House of secrets, planning, behind-the-scenes activity, mysticism, meditation, confinement, convents, escape, charity, handicaps, hospitals, widows, orphans, secret enemies, institutions, indirect lighting, loose ends, poetry, and confidential matters. If you have natal Neptune in your 1st House, your Pisces traits are accentuated. Spirituality, discovery, deep space, fame, psychic ability, and notoriety may claim your attention now while transiting Neptune in Pisces occupies the heavens through 2026. Use your ESP especially if this is the year that Neptune is connecting to your Sun as it will if born March 16-20! This phase takes an entire year to play out giving you a chance to clear the fog on your radar screen. Identify the best action dates and clarify priorities because you need plenty of time to make the changes you desire. Your colors are lime, rose tones, lavender, mauve, purple, sea green, violet and royal hues. You may attract diverse sources of income via creative ideas that lead to a new beginning this year. Make purchases at the spring shoe sales to find comfortable footwear that compliments both your casual and dressy wardrobes. Pisces rules the liquids of the earth including oil and gas, aromatherapy, alcohol, medicinal drugs and illegal drugs, ether, and intoxicating perfumes. The paternal side of the family is part of your domain. Pisces rising has bedroom eyes and can be flirtatious, charming, and kind especially when you listen and remain calm. This year the Sun enters your sign on February 18 at 11:13 PM EST and leaves on March 19 at 11:06 PM EDT. Material in the following section may also refer to individuals with Pisces on the Ascendant.

Mercury is direct in Aquarius as your sun sign period begins and goes quickly into Pisces on February 23 at 2:29 AM EST in your solar 1st House for a rapid trip through your sign that ends on March 9 moving to the passionate sign, Aries where it spends the remainder of your sun sign period. Work diligently through this period when Mercury occupies Aquarius in your 12th house to finish up your pending projects, housecleaning, filing and shredding papers, or preparing your taxes. You'll have more than your share of contentment and will feel satisfied that all is well in your world. If you feel exhausted, take a nap and don't beat yourself up if you can't finish everything in a couple of days. Those of you in a relationship may feel particularly loved even more when romantic gestures come your way. Start new projects while the great communicator is direct, checking your natal chart for favorable dates during this run of Mercury in Aquarius and Pisces. Venus moves to Aquarius on February 17 and gives you daydreaming time in your solar 12th House as you evaluated relationships. By March 11, Venus moves to your sign, Pisces, and brings attention to your presence through April 5. Enjoy the good vibes and the attention you receive from others during this time. Your aura shines and energy levels soar as you accomplish what you desire and feel happiness within. and accomplishment will make you happy. A romantic partner could be jealous the last weekend of February. If you meet a new prospect the weekend of the 23rd, wait to date until you learn more about this person. Ask social contacts. Venus in your sign is helpful and engaging for all types of relationships in mid-March. Mars in Aquarius squares Jupiter in Taurus on the 26th, a good date to lie low and watch spending. Concentrate on accomplishing goals and then take time to recharge your psyche, especially if a difficult person is in the picture. Enjoy entertainment, intuitive vision and creative insight. Mars is in analytical Aquarius through March 23 in your solar 12th house as indicated above. This marks a time of productivity that helps you assess current reality, develop plans, health, and look at enjoyable ways to celebrate special events for you and your family or dear ones. If your health has been under par, take the time to visit medical specialists or have a medical or dental checkup. Read, write, and hone your skills in social media preferences. Mars in Aquarius will square Uranus in Taurus in your solar 3rd house on March 9, another day to make sure you are up for activities that are claiming your time. Make quality conditions a priority in any venue you choose so that you don't have to settle for a less desirable option. You could be fielding ideas on how to make the grounds around your home stand out. Pamper your garden and plant desired trees, flowers or shrubs. Put energy into painting once the weather breaks. Jupiter is in Taurus in your solar third house of communication, community activities, contracts, local travel, mental health, neighbors, siblings, and all forms of transportation or professional equipment. Uranus is also here in this house. Life will not be dull during this period which continues through May 25. On that day, Jupiter moves to Gemini in your solar fourth house of home, family, residents of your home, base of operation, real estate, and end of matters. Jupiter in this important house often deals with expansion, renovation, sale or purchase of property, or landscaping and investment in property such as adding fences, paving, and an outer makeover. Entrepreneurial Pisces types may want to start a business and look at ways to market your product. If you are looking to take on work from home, share your resume with a strong network. Be on the lookout for announcements and explore your options. Someone in your household may be moving out of your home this year and you have decisions to make regarding how you will use vacant space. Wherever Jupiter transits in your natal chart, look for chances to expand your priorities. Schedule a family reunion. Tackle any cluttered space in your home - closets, drawers, a home office, or garage. Freedom from cramped quarters gives you more energy and enthusiasm. Saturn in Pisces arrived in your first house last year and most affects those of you born February 22-March 11 in 2024. The planet of restriction occupies the sector that deals with assertiveness, health, individuality, innovation, passion, energy, and self-development. Formulate plans for claiming your power in 2024. In 2024 Saturn goes retrograde on June 29 and moves direct on November 15 in your sign. Watch this section of your chart carefully, especially if you have planets in this house. How are you managing responsibility? Are you a go-getter or a procrastinator? If you like your work and have passion for the gist of it, you will easily feel enthusiastic about life. If you can't manage your workload or experience long periods of daydreaming, do some analysis of where the snags lie and take a new approach to get a grip on a workable outlook. Saturn holds you to strict standards of conduct and demands that you review commitments. Letting go of some of the items on your overcrowded schedule, should make life easier. Trust your decision making skills. Decide what you can drop and what to add to your agenda for a more meaningful, productive life. Check integrity of electronic equipment and social networks. Remember that Neptune is in this house as well. Check facts carefully.

Uranus is direct in motion in compatible Taurus now and occupies your solar 3rd House of communication, messages, personal and business talks, transportation, and all forms of technical instruments - phones, tablets, servers and mechanisms for increasing transmission speed. Many of you may be in need of equipment to make communications tasks run more smoothly. You could be in the market for printers, computers, software, instructional, or media enhancements. Upgrade your security system and check it often. Compare rates. Mars in Aquarius squares Uranus in Taurus on the 9th. Be careful what you destroy or want to eliminate. Check carefully. Sometimes with this aspect, people scrap historical records or important files. Jupiter is in this house, too, until late May when it moves to Gemini. Meanwhile people and conditions needing your attention may include your neighbors, siblings and their children, cousins, and the community. With Uranus in a mental house, you'll juggle many issues as you identify solutions. Familiarize yourself with recently purchased electronics including Robot vacuums, phones, and a new tablet. Maintain a healthy mind, body, and spirit. The third house stretches your mind and consciousness. Since Uranus goes retrograde for a long period of time each year, expect to find some erratic energy from September 1 through January 30, 2025. Those of you born March 8 through 18 experience considerable activity from Uranus this year.

Pisces, your birthday cycle honors your signature planet, Neptune in the 26th - 29th degrees of Pisces in your solar 1st House of creativity, action, passion, independence, innovation, new beginnings, personal appearance and preferences, and assertiveness. Those of you born March 16-20 may find yourself involved in making changes in your personal or work life. Note that these shifts may occur on both the conscious and subconscious level involving you or others important to you, especially if one or more of you have experienced recent health or relationship setbacks or are close to someone who has. Note that the first lunar eclipse in Pisces falls on Neptune this year on September 17. Choose a direct path to correcting matters to improve your health, finances, goals, and dreams. Avoid the fog that sets in when you drop your guard. Release stuck patterns that allow you to cherish friends, welcome romance, and find better health care providers. Bypass the ruts that make you moody. Welcome your birthday year with enthusiasm! Your First House is the reservoir to help you explore the depths of intuitive and psychic knowledge that you manifest when solving problems. Celebrate by sharing your light, warm spirit, and favorite birthday cake with others. Don't escape from the truth by embracing extreme opinions, watching bizarre behavior unfold, hiding behind addictions, drinking too much, following unfounded medical treatments, or giving political extremists a voice. Neutralize negative news content on the Internet and TV. Embrace healthy goals to balance your life. Meditate, discover joy, and radiate in its light. Let go of toxic air and people. Use your psychic gifts and absorb metaphysical truths. Neptune is retrograde from July 2 through December 7 in 2024.

Pluto started 2024 direct in Capricorn in your solar 11th House and makes a positive astrological connection to your Sun Sign especially for those born March 18-20 and focuses on contacts, friendships, associations, groups, organizations, and goals. Existing friendships or memberships in organizations undergo change when Pluto disrupts stuck conditions while staging an intervention to help engage in more compatible relationships with individuals and groups that share meaningful goals and dreams. Look in front of you to discover interesting associations that are waiting to blossom. By January 20, Pluto moved into early

Aquarius where it makes a commitment to stay through 2043 and helps you identify where you have been resisting change. Your Pisces' outlook pretends nothing is bothering you, but Pluto's move to your solar 12th house in Aquarius will serve as a wakeup call to help you face the truth. Count on more soul searching and hide out only long enough to understand your fears. Now passive resistance is collapsing, so remove the rose-colored glasses and admit you could be happier with a much better quality of relationships. The nature of work may change. Some of you may accept a new position or retire. Your interest in crime solving could lead to sharpening analytical skills via detective work to ferret out secrets, solve complex problems, and discover the nature and type of information that helps you pull all the clues together. Maintain financial records and closely monitor what you owe and spend. You had premonitions that leadership or policies in your workplace could change. Be ready for them. Personally, get ready for rebirth in attitude. Use your ESP and intuition to establish new habits. In 2024, Pluto turns retrograde on May 2 in Aquarius, moves back to Capricorn on September 1, stations there and moves direct into Capricorn on October 11 at the last degree and moves forward until it finishes its long cycle on November 19 and moves into Aquarius in your 12th house for its long journey to unearth the secrets you have locked away as you pursue your desire for self-renewal. Those of you born March 18-20 breathe more lightly when Pluto changes signs. Congratulations on embracing positive new directions.

The last two eclipses that took place in 2023 still have influence in your chart. The second solar eclipse of 2023 occurred in Libra on October 14 at 21° ♎ 08' and fell in your solar 8th House of joint income, savings, and debt, including investments, estates, sex, wills, death, rebirth, psychological matters, and karmic completions. Any planets in this house are likely to be affected and bring changes to these matters that may be positive or unexpected. Wouldn't a lottery win be nice! Matters that have been surfacing since spring are coming to a head and need attention. A partner's income could change for the better. Financial decisions are due. The year's final lunar eclipse took place on October 28 in Taurus at 5° ♉ 09' in your solar third house of communication, education, local travel, neighbors, cousins, siblings, and transportation. Self-talk is soaring, and your mind is juggling many options related to this cycle. Uranus in Taurus keeps making demands to settle one thing or another, including signing contracts. Neighborhood activities are demanding, and you may have to back away to avoid overcommitting. Cousins and siblings may contact you more frequently this year. If you are a Pisces and have Taurus or Scorpio planets or an Ascendant in those signs, these eclipses are incredibly meaningful. Remember if an eclipse falls on your birthday or on a natal planet, it takes on higher importance.

Eclipse activity makes a strong statement in your life in 2024 with 4 eclipses affecting your chart during this cycle. As 2024 unfolds, the first lunar eclipse occurs on March 25 in Libra at 5° ♎ 07' in your solar 8th house of joint income, savings, and debt, including investments, estates, sex, wills, death, rebirth, psychological matters, and karmic completions. If you have planets in this house in your birth chart expect that they might be stimulated and send a few surprises your way. Use scrutiny when shopping for mortgages, loans, and interest rates before committing to terms. Contact reliable, recommended lenders. Two weeks later, the first solar eclipse of the year occurs on April 8 in

Aries, 19° ♈ 24' in your solar second house of income, assets, spending habits, self-development, investments, and raises. Take the time to examine your net worth and determine how well you can meet expenses and manage inflation. Apply for a new position if you want added insurance to stay solvent in erratic financial times. If your salary decreases or you lose your job, start working with a headhunter to identify a secure position. Polish your resume and identify suitable sources for new positions. Match qualifications well, contact reliable networks, and find compatible employment. Revisit goals for building savings and retirement accounts. Sharpen credentials and compete with others. This eclipse is strongest for you if born March 9-11.

The second solar eclipse of 2024 occurs on September 17 at 25° ♋ 41' in Pisces and falls in your solar first House at 10:34 pm EDT and highlights assets such as personal appearance, self-image, assertiveness, your character, individuality, personality and drive. An eclipse here challenges you to work on your goals and develop a plan to identify interests and objectives. If you are experiencing a disagreement with a loved one, address it and resolve it before it explodes. Sometimes an eclipse in Pisces leads to a surprise proposal or an elopement. The year's final lunar eclipse takes place on October 2 in at 10° ♋ 04' and falls in your solar 8th House of joint income, savings, and debt, including investments, estates, sex, wills, death, rebirth, psychological matters, and karmic completions. No doubt you have made financial modifications since the Libra eclipse on March 25 by analyzing the strength of your investments and modifying the amount you put into savings and retirement. Decrease credit card and household debt. Eclipses in joint money houses raise the potential for you or your spouse to receive a promotion or raise. Let the Law of Abundance fill your world. Your increased knowledge of money management leads to greater stability and success. I wish you love and blessings. This description of Pisces' outlook may apply to those with Pisces Ascendants, multiple Pisces planets, and your Moon in Pisces.

PLANETS' POSITIONS FEBRUARY 18 - MARCH 19

You will start this cycle in a highly productive mode fully engaged in work that meshes nicely with goals. By the 21st idealists will begin to clash with manipulators when Mars in Aquarius squares Jupiter in Taurus. Assess major facets of your life, especially your Sun sign. Mercury starts this cycle in intellectual Aquarius and then moves into Pisces on February 23 at 2:29 AM EST where it completes its cycle late on the evening of March 10 when it moves to Aries. While Mercury is close to your sun, you'll have an abundance of mental and physical energy, allowing you to tackle projects, complete pending work, and pursue important goals. A positive time to find romance begins around the Pisces new moon on March 10th. The Full Moon of February 24 in Virgo opposes the Sun, Mercury, and Saturn in Pisces. The saving grace is that the opposition trines Jupiter in Taurus, revealing insight into phonies that may pop into your life. Learn to say no. You will also find numerous opportunities to start new initiatives the week of February 26. Research appealing ventures. Make and return phone calls and schedule meetings. Allow abundance and fresh ideas to come to you spontaneously. Venus starts out in Aquarius where dates lead to analytical discussions and topics related to social change and social media. The love planet moves to Pisces on March 11 and favors affection, romance, and entertainment venues. Venus starts the week with harmonious vibes and a desire for creative solutions and calm conditions. Feel the content you have as you begin the work week with less stress and more momentum for tackling goals. Enjoy the sense of accomplishment this month while Mercury is direct. March 12-13 are perfect for making your environment pop with stunning décor or purchasing new clothing, revamping your hair style, or buying jewelry. Work on goals all month and enjoy the feeling of clearing clutter and pending work from your to-do list. Mars spends the entire Pisces cycle in Aquarius accelerating the volume of chatter, testy debate, coveted activity, fun, squabbles, and drama. Keep an eye on the full moon in Virgo on February 24 when an uncomfortable aspect with Mars could get quarrelsome. On the 9th Mars in Aquarius squares transiting Uranus in Taurus leading to disagreements that can upend any progress you have made in mending fences. Spend spare time completing tax returns and ascertaining that forms and documents are in order. Those born in early degrees of Aquarius should be especially careful since Pluto now covers 0-1 degree. Accept invitations for entertainment, museum exhibits, cultural events, and fine dining. Get out of work mode and enjoy new alliances. Jupiter travels rapidly through Taurus during the entire Pisces cycle and most affects you favorably this month if born February 28-March 7. Jupiter also creates harmony for Cancer, Libra, and Capricorn with planets at 9-15 degrees of their signs. Aquarius, Leo, Libra, Scorpio, and Sagittarius with planets at these degrees may experience challenges and delays in executing plans. Spend any down time looking over written material with a critical eye and perfect material via editing and sought after feedback to present a polished product during this cycle. Anticipate success. Be prepared to defuse confusion that could arise. Seed the Spring awakening with positive vibes during the week of March 18-24. Saturn in Pisces travels direct through 8-12 degrees of this sign most affecting Pisces born February 7-March 3. Breathe deeply as you take on important work involving contracts and important papers and proofread carefully to tie up loose ends. If you are a Pisces you will experience Saturn through February 14, 2026. This month other mutable signs (Gemini, Virgo, and Sagittarius) experience challenges if you are born with planets in your sign from 8-12 degrees. Do your best to dig your way out of ruts and move on to smoother intervals while Jupiter in Taurus is in harmony. Important matters related to your career, work, passion, personality, physical body, self-image, and zest for life occupy your mind. Strengthen relationships with colleagues, family, friends, and relatives. Get health checkups especially important for Pisces, born with planets at 8-12 degrees of Pisces. Taurus, Cancer, and Scorpio benefit from smoother transactions. Seek medical attention if you have been feeling low on energy, or sluggish. Review priorities, modify goals, and take a time out for fun and games. Saturn is known for leveling restrictions, so keep your eye on the economy. Where is Saturn in Pisces housed in your chart? Make it a priority to know. Uranus, the planet of the unexpected continues on its disruptive 7-year journey through Taurus now affecting the lives of Taurus born May 9-12 and creates new challenges. Although it seems odd, Uranus prefers more security than usual in the conservative sign, Taurus. Stay calm when unexpected disruptions hit your world out of the blue. Note what happens prior to the change. Stay aware of Uranus's current presence with planets at 19-20 degrees of Taurus, Leo, Scorpio or Aquarius who experience sudden jolts. Those born with planets at these degrees in the signs, Virgo, Capricorn, Cancer and Pisces experience positive surprises, unexpected gifts, windfalls, cash, and benefits. Although intensity, upsets, and high drama may be in the landscape for the fixed signs, the events that occur depend on the number of planets affected in individual charts. Transits of this planet remind you that "your life can change in a day" as you witness truth and insight through spontaneous revelation. Taurus, you claim the spotlight in 2024 and will enjoy Uranus' presence for 2 more years while the Uranus conjunction to your Sun plays out through the end of April 2026. Prepare for the best by assimilating the unfolding opportunities as you claim your power and go after desired goals. Remain flexible. Neptune in Pisces is currently influencing Pisces born March 14-17 as well as Cancers and Scorpions born around 26-27 degrees of their signs or with other planets at these degrees. Use your strong intuitive hunches to experience inner power, insight, and self-discovery. Even while you clear away remaining debris, you'll be grateful that self-awareness reveals the truth. You love mysteries, so unravel the hidden meaning in messages. You probably don't like leaving problems unsolved and will stay up late to find out what happened in crime cases, becoming fascinated with what makes perpetrators behave abominably. Certain signs like Gemini, Virgo and Sagittarius with planets at 26-27 degrees with these aspects may be experiencing information overload. Faulty thinking patterns often lie at the core of annoying confusion. Often, associations with others necessitate working through the layers of fog until they truly understand different points of view. Emotional reactions whirl around Pisces' cup. If you are experiencing multiple hits on these degrees, you may be experiencing internal shock, plumbing problems, floods, crying jags, frequent bathroom trips, or mental fatigue. Head to a water resort, or find healing professionals that help restore your health and minimize anxiety if you are feeling highly stressed. Eligible Pisces may attract a new romance only if you step out of your comfort zone and into the spotlight of the social world. Engage in stimulating discussions with an unbiased perspective that helps you change your opinion about subject matter that used to turn you off. Attract participation and understanding. Say good-bye to blocking options. Pluto in Capricorn takes a breather this month while interacting with Cardinal sign people born at 29 degrees of this sign: Capricorn, Aries, Cancer or Libra; it may also affect your Ascendant or other planets at that degree, creating challenges. Pisces and Scorpio benefit, too. Pluto moved to Aquarius on January 20 and covers 0-1 degrees this month. Look at your natal chart. Where does your natal Pluto reside and what house is hosting transiting Pluto now? Examine clues that call for action to eliminate blocks and stagnant ideas. If born January 20-22, your Aquarius Sun is most connected to this transit. Discuss relationships that need work and are stuck in negative holding patterns. On a global, governmental, and political level, note that internalized anger among leaders keeps flexibility at bay and prevents formulation of decisions that stimulate confidence and unite constituents. Be aware this year of damaging policies and coverups of the truth that remain roadblocks. Look for possibilities that allow integrity and justice to replace lies and cowardice. Pluto supports catharsis and keeps advisors, consultants and therapists engaged. Meanwhile transits of Mars, Jupiter, Saturn, Uranus, and emerging eclipse aspects reveal the flaws in objectivity. Clearly examine career, financial, or personal advice to understand the next steps and use the right tools to plan accordingly. If you were born with Chiron in Aries or are an Aries check the house where it resides because you're having a Chiron return at 16-18 degrees of Aries. While in aggressive and creative Aries, The Wounded Healer heightens the awareness of those born April 5-8 regarding issues involving diverse economic hardships, inflation, the cost of living, family, health, workplace, home, romance, and environmental quality. Be prepared to acknowledge information related to long-held secrets, financial losses, or misrepresentation of facts which may emerge. Seek and examine solutions. Thoroughly assess your situation before you act and be discreet in sharing details. Keep Bach remedies on hand to address emotional angst. A few drops of Rescue Remedy brings relief when processing grief. Impatiens is a constitutional remedy for those with Aries planets and impulsive tendencies. Try a few drops of Impatiens and sip it slowly in water especially if you overreact to criticism and comments that disregard tact. If you get excited easily and say more than you should, a dose of these remedies may dissuade you from saying too much. See a comedy and remember that the best medicine to nurture your loving heart and soul is laughter.

PEOPLE, PLACES AND TOPICS IN THE NEWS

The former president had another day in court this week regarding inflated values of properties he holds in New York City. Follow coverage of details on reliable news networks. Although many prices are coming down, including interest rates that will help home purchasers, credit, housing loans, and some travel costs, inflation remains high and prices of food and many commodities including utilities are steep. We are optimistic for changes in the price of medications, and hope that escalating costs for home and auto insurance will become more important to states that are struggling to afford the coverage, namely, Florida. Russia continues to pursue the war in Ukraine and made the news this week regarding the execution of opposition leader Alexei Navalny who was killed in prison. Russians are demanding details and the world waits for release of Navalny's body to his family. Let's continue to visualize healing light and positive vibrations for our country and the planet.

Maurice Benard: A Pisces born March 1 in San Francisco, CA, is a central figure in the long-running General Hospital Soap on ABC, playing the role of mobster Sonny Corinthos since 1993. The leading ladies he has been paired with over the years have included Vanessa Marcil, Sara Joy Brown, Tamara Braun, Laura Wright, and Cynthia Watros. Maurice's chart reflects his Sun in Pisces conjunct Chiron with Jupiter in Pisces making him highly sensitive of his surroundings and of the plight of others as he has personally dealt with depression since he was in his early 20's. Natal Uranus, Pluto, Part of Fortune, and Ceres oppose his Sun/Chiron conjunction, and challenged him to find ways to succeed in spite of the medical/mental challenges that would surface. His chart shows that his spouse, Paula, has been highly supportive and seems intuitive as well. His solar natal house is loaded with planets and points indicating that he throws himself completely into his role and wins the applause of the public, the cast, director, and his peers. His Moon in Venus-ruled Taurus favorably trines Jupiter in Pisces and opposes natal Neptune which sends harmonious vibes to his Sun/Chiron conjunction. His planets contribute to his good looks and deep instincts for performing. In the next few years, the Pisces/Virgo eclipses will stimulate his solar first and seventh houses beginning in September. Thank you, Maurice, for presenting your outstanding Podcast, State of Mind!

READERS CORNER

I received numerous messages from readers responding to last month's question related to planning an Easter visit to see the writer's grandmother but his girlfriend was unwilling to visit, insisting on celebrating with her nearby family instead. Thank you for sharing your personal experiences in this matter. Most readers indicated that this writer does not know his girlfriend well enough to be presenting her with an engagement ring in a few months. They found her attitude selfish and shortsighted. Why would he think she would visit his grandmother after they got engaged? A few readers were appalled that the girlfriend was unwilling to discuss the pros and cons of the visit. Today's dilemma involves a woman who was warned that the mother of her male friend is hard to get along with and she should keep her distance. Note her surprise below when she finally met his mother. I hope you respond if you have insight.

Q I have been dating my boyfriend since June but never met his mother. When Christmas came and went and we still had not met, I asked him about it. He said that she did not entertain much and was hard to understand, kept to herself, and seldom went out. Then I was invited to a wedding shower for his cousin (we are attending the wedding) but the Sunday shower date created a conflict for me since I was leaving the next day for a business trip and had to leave early on a Monday morning. I purchased a gift and called his mother to see if I could drop the gift off at her house since she was attending the shower. She was absolutely enthusiastic that I called and agreed to meet me at her home at 3 PM a few days before the shower. She was so kind and gracious when I arrived and invited me to come in, offered to fix a late lunch, offered me a piece of homemade apple pie (the best I ever tasted) and a cup of coffee. She told me that she was just coming out of recovery from a serious back operation and had been riddled with pain for the last few years. No wonder she was not inviting people over and did not entertain much! After we met, we agreed to stay in touch. I could not wait to tell my boyfriend how kind and gracious she was to me. She even gave me a piece of that delicious pie to take home. I would appreciate your thoughts on this situation. Our meeting was so much different than I expected it to be. I sent her flowers the next day. Her birthday is March 12 and mine is July 9. I liked her. Many thanks for your help.

A. You and your boyfriend's mother share many compatible planets that contribute to the instant rapport you have with each other. Both of you are water signs with the suns (Pisces and Cancer) in trine aspect to one another. Your Sun in Cancer conjunct Venus trines her Sun and Mercury conjunction in Pisces. Her natal Moon in Taurus falls in her 6th house of health. Transiting Uranus in Taurus has moved over her Moon three times in the last few years. Uranus is the chaotic planet that contributes to sudden change in health or other important life areas. Simultaneously, transiting Neptune in Pisces (sometimes bringing fog and confusion) has been on her Sun which could have contributed to doctors' concerns about how to treat her condition and possibly delayed much needed surgery. It is also possible that one or more medications were ineffective for her pain. I am not a doctor so I will not elaborate on health issues. How good that you met under favorable circumstances and enjoyed one another's company. I think your boyfriend realizes that he is not a medical specialist and only had information that was reported to him regarding his mother's health. He may have visited her in her less healthy state and realized she was slipping. Pain medication administered prior to the surgery could have made her seem confused or too lethargic to entertain visitors. Her chart shows overall improvement at this time. By all means stay in touch. I think you will soon see the sensitive, caring woman emerging. May your boyfriend cherish the difference that healing brings to his mother.

Thank you to all who sent in questions and comments about last month's newsletter. I'm glad you enjoyed the Aquarius issue and appreciate your feedback.
